Council of Farm Women Meet. On last Friday morning at 11 o'clock a full and interesting meeting of the Kershaw County Council of Farm Women was held at the Court House, Mrs. Prancis Kline, State Marketing Agent had been invited to address the council, and gave a most interesting and instructive talk, telling how other markets were conducted and the many problems they had to solve. At the close of Mrs. Kline's address the president. Mrs. Paul Brown, called for and opened discussion of the problems of this particular market. It was decided to employ a secretary and to charge a commission fee on the total sales to deftay expenses of market, Mrs. C. E. Watts was elected secretary and she will be a valuable medium, having a stronghold on town and community. A marketing committee was appointed. das is composed from one representaave from each demonstration club and we ladies from the city as the Council is auxious that the consumers be onsidered on every quotation pertaining to prices etc. Mrs. William King and Mrs. R.
