Junior Visitors Complimented
Miss Nancy Lindsay entertained a number of the junior set at a pretty morning party Thursday, complimenting her cousins, Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Rock Hill and Miss Mary Lindsay Beall, of Lenoir, N. C.

A guessing contest proved very entertaining, Misses Estella Harding and Laura Houston tying for the prize, a fortunate cut gave it to Miss Laura Houston.

Among those present were Misses Betty Halle, Polly DePass, Agnes Shannon, Estelle Harding, Emily Lang, Aubrey Beattie, Virginia Clarke, Emily Wooten, Laura Houston, Elizabeth Miller, Mary Beall.

Faith deLoache and Mollie Blackwell assisted in serving the refreshments which consisted of a salad course, sandwiches and ice tea.

Mrs. James Burns As Hostess.

The re-assembling of Hobkirk Hill Chapter D. A. R. on the first Thursday in September was a delightful occasion in every particular. Mrs. James Burns was the agreeable hostess and welcomed an unusually large attendance in her beautiful new home, just completed on Fair street.

The chapter regent, Miss Minnie Clyburn presided, and the secretary, Mrs. Edwin Muller called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting.

An entertainment in the near future was discussed and decided upon, the proceeds to go towards meeting chapter pledges.

Very attractive year books were given out by the Regent. These contained a programme for the monthly meetings, names of hostesses, etc. Also a list of Chapter officers and committees and a complete list of the membership. The following are the committees to serve for the year: Year Book, Mrs. E. C. von Tresekow, Miss Leila Shannon, Mrs. S. C. Taylor, Memorial, Mrs. James Burns, Mrs. R. B. Pitts, Mrs. G. H. Lenoir, Chapter House, Mrs. J. S. Lindsay, Mrs. P. T. Villepigue, Entertainment, Miss Leila Shannon, Miss Ada Phelps, Mrs. Clifton McKain, Mrs. Edwin Muller, Mrs. S. C. Zemp, Mrs. R. B. Pitts, Publicity, Miss Louise Nettles.

After business the social hour was much enjoyed, the hostess serving ice cream and cake. Mrs. Clifton McKain gave several beautiful selections on the piano. Mrs. John Cantey and Mrs. Moultrie Bratford were guests for the social hour.
