LYRICS OF LIFE
By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THE CONTEST.
Old age complains when Winter reigns.
But youth runs out to play—
And finds in storms a thing that warms
Its pulses all the way—
It is the contest so intense
With Winter's angry elements.
The weak perspire beside the fire—
And shiver with the cold;
The sturdy go to meet the snow
With hearts increasing bold.
With hearts made stronger by the gale,
Whatever arrows may assail.

The timid groan, the timid moan,
When troubles cloud the sky;
The brave go out and do not doubt,
Unfriendly fate defy.
And find each contest bravely met
Makes each contestant braver yet.

When thunders roll before your goal,
What will your answer be?
Will you go forth to face the north,
Or from the north flee?
Does Winter drive you to your fire,
Or each new storm new strength inspire?

THE GIRL ON THE JOB
How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good
By JESSIE ROBERTS

NEVER A BETTER TIME

THERE never was a better time than today for the girl or woman who wants to do well in business to make a success. The world needs constructive work. It doesn't care who does it, provided the work is good. Women are picked for jobs that no long ago would certainly have gone to men. In Washington, for instance, a girl has been made manager of the lunch room in the Treasury building. This restaurant serves lunches to 1,000 government employees every day. The business detail of running such a place is great, and only a trained woman could undertake it. But Miss Dorothy Chapman is an excellent example, graduated in hotel management from Cornell university, and she is doing it. And these things, which would not be held ready for them.

There are other ways for women who have a fair amount of training in the business world to make money. One girl, who works in a department store, sells her own hand-made goods to other workers in one of the big city department stores. These goods are put up at different prices, some are made each containing a bit of her own experience, food, soap, perfume and dainties, served in its white box.

There is certainly an opportunity to use the idea of railway stations. The thing is to be the best in the field at the time.

Home-saved and sound methods are what are needed. And training Training is by no means a college career or work in a business school, though these are the things to have. Training can be self-education, and you really want it.

Mother's Cook Book

Beauty and joy—the bread and wine and all.
We have forewarned, our noisy hearts forget.
We stray and on strange altars cry and call.
Ah, patient gods, be patient with us yet.
And Pan pipe on, pipe on, till we shall rise.
And follow, and be happy, and be wise.

SEASONABLE FOODS.

THERE must be something wrong with the people who do not enjoy the luscious muskmelon and the rosy-tinted watermelon, yet you find men who even dislike lemon pie, so it is hard to suit all tastes; however, "there is no loss without some gain," for there, wouldn't be enough of such good things to satisfy all appetites if everybody wanted the same food at the same time.

Orange Ice in Melon Cups.

This is really the nth power of serving, for each alone is delicious enough. Wash the small melons, cut in halves and scrape out the seeds and membrane carefully. Chill and fill with orange ice. Boil one cupful of sugar with a pint of water and the grated rind of an orange, add the juice of one lemon and the juice of four oranges, strain and freeze as usual.

Pimento Cheese.

A most delicious cheese may be prepared at home at a small fraction of the cost usually paid for such an article. Take one-fourth of a pound of good, snappy American cheese, put through the meat chopper, also grind with three hard-cooked eggs, three or four canned pimentos. Alternate the egg and peppers through the grinder to save the juice of the pepper, season with salt and cayenne, add mayonnaise dressing to moisten, and put away to chill. Cover with paraffin paper and keep in the ice chest. It never spoils, for it doesn't last long enough. This is excellent for the sandwich filling for hungry boys and men who carry lunches to school or work.

Fried Chicken With Boiled Rice.

Cut up the chicken for frying add butter to the hot frying pan, sprinkle the seasoning in flour and roll each piece until well covered. Place in the pan and cook slowly, closely covered, until quite tender, then brown. The chicken will be much more delicious and moist than if fried brown at once. Heat a mound of well-cooked hot rice in the center of the platter, surround with the chicken and serve with ripe olives.

Twin Mountain Muffins.

Combine one-third of a cupful of butter and one-fourth of a cupful of sugar, then alternately add three-fourths of a cupful of milk, two cupfuls of sifted flour, sifted with four teaspoons of baking powder, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt; add one egg well beaten, mix and bake in gem pans. A cupful of well-sifted all-grades or dates finely cut, may be added if desired.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I love to be outdoors
in fall
It thrills me when the blue wind blows
To hear the trees all whispering
The Secret that the Outdoors knows.

THIN BLOOD SAPS ENERGY. GUDE'S PEPTO-MANGAN REBUILDS THE BLOOD

Wrestling with a weakened condition of the blood is a desperate struggle. Thin, watery blood deprives the body of energy and causes a played-out feeling not unlike utter exhaustion. A man with weak blood has not the full use of his powers. He lacks decision, and vacillates until he loses self-confidence. Some men, and women too, go flailing along for months scarcely realizing that they need Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the blood builder. But when they have taken it for a while, what a difference there is in the feelings! The old-time vigor and the red-blooded hue of good health return. The new rich blood gets to work, building, fortifying, lifting the spirit up to its normal standard. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years as a blood builder. Druggists sell it in liquid and tablet form. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package.—Advertisement.
