

Respect Your Old Age

You like freedom and independence now—it will mean even more to you when you are old.

Money is power. The elderly person with money is looked up to and respected. Without money, he or she is dependent upon public or private charity.

Live your life. You never can so long as you depend upon each day's work for your daily bread. Get ahead. Let others work for you.

Start and save. Get ahead. That's the first step. Then you are ready to take advantage of any opportunity.

Your dollars grow fast here, for we pay 4 per cent interest, compounded. Get your money to working for you. Get started!

Augusta, Ga., December 4—A sequel to the Beldoc mystery, in which the wife and three children of J. W. Lee, a prominent planter, died suddenly a few weeks ago of a strange malady, believed at the time to have been caused by poison, has taken place at Martins, S. C., about 15 miles from Allendale, according to information received in Augusta today stating that nine persons are desperately ill at a boarding house there after eating biscuits made from flour taken from the Lee home at Beldoc. The peculiarity of the situation is that the affair occurred at the boarding house of Mrs. R. F. Creech, who is a sister-in-law of J. W. Lee, who now lies ill at the University hospital here.

People do get sick. There is plenty of work for the doctor always. Suppose you got sick and couldn't earn any money, but had to spend more. What would you do? You'd worry yourself more sick. You would fret for those you love.

But if you had a nice sum of money in the bank you could rest easy knowing that those dependent upon you were well cared for.
