House Warming For New Hospital. The Hospital Auxiliary met at the Library Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The president, Mrs. Leroy Davidson presided and the secretary, Miss Ella Zemp was in her place. A fine report for the year was read by the treasurer, Mrs. M. Baruch. Many matters of importance were discussed and the auxiliary rejoices in a large and enthusiastic membership. It was decided to have an opening reception and house-warming on March 8th, to which the people of Camden and Kershaw county are cordially invited. The hours are from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m. Refreshments are to be served and a social afternoon or evening promised to all who will attend. It is also to be a Hospital benefit and it is hoped that conditions will be favorable for showers—showers that will refresh and replenish the linen closet, pantry and kitchen. Anything in the housekeeping line will be very acceptable. Those who cannot conveniently take part in the shower will have an opportunity of making a silver offering for the benefit of the institution. Let us bespeak for this entertainment a liberal patronage. Our friends of the tourist colony are cordially invited to attend. The hospital is one thing that should claim the interest of everyone, for it is here that pain is alleviated and a balm for suffering humanity found.

Beautiful Home Wedding

Pine Grove Plantation, the country home of Mr. L. W. Boykin, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Tuesday afternoon when his daughter, Sarah Hamilton, became the bride of Mr. McGowan Holmes, of Charleston. The spacious drawing room, parlor and hall were thrown on suite and beautifully decorated in pine, bamboo, and smilax, while sunny daffodils were used in profusion. From the folding doors of the parlor and drawing room, an artistic arch spanned the hall. A flower wedding bell hung from the center and beneath it the vows were spoken. The bride's sister, Mrs. Boliver Boykin was dune of honor. Elizabeth Wingfield and Helen Bell, of Columbia, two winsome lassies in pink, brought the ribbons down the vine-garlanded stairway forming an aisle down which the bride came on the arm of her father. Mr. James Holmes, of Charleston, brother of the groom was best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joseph Bell, of Columbia. The bride, a typical maid of the Old South, was lovely in her bridal dress of white net over brocade satin, the long court train hung gracefully from the shoulders and her veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried brides roses and valley lilies. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. H. Harding, rector of Grace Church.

THE MAN WHO LOOKS VIGOROUS GOOD RED BLOOD IS THE ONLY SURE FOUNDATION OF PERMANENT HEALTH AND VIGOR Good color, bright eyes, solid flesh, erect bearing are dependent upon rich red blood. If your blood is not up to the mark your general health can not be. Late hours, eating the wrong foods, working indoors, fatigue, affect the blood. So many people eat well and take exercise, yet never seem to improve in health. Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken regularly for a while gives the blood that richness and redness that produces bounding health and vigor. It is a simple, natural way to get well and strong. Gude's Pepto-Mangan comes in liquid or tablets—at your druggist's. Advertisement.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Paragraphs of Interest to Feminine Readers of The Chronicle.

A few years ago Mrs. Carolyn A. Tefft was proprietor of a little millinery shop in Belvidere, Ill. Now she is at the head of an extensive business making artificial flowers for trimming millinery and decorating displays. So eager are the women of Galicia to establish a standard monetary system in their country they have agreed to offer their jewels to the treasury. Forty women's organizations have already laid plans to make the collections of jewelry. Just to satisfy her whim to see Broadway, the Spanish steamship Alfonso XII made a special stop at New York to allow Miss Isabelle Muir, daughter of P. G. Muir, the English shipbuilder, to spend three days inspecting the great white way of Gotham.

Reduction in household staffs, the change from flats to house life, and the necessity of having to cope with the domestic emergencies owing to the contrawise spirits of the modern cooks, have been the means of leading many women of royalty in England to take up lessons in cooking. American nurses are operating training schools in Poland. Women in New Zealand work for equal wages with the men. Nearly 275,000 women are employed in Massachusetts industrial plants. Paris millinettes have formed a new labor union and will work for solidarity. The First National Bank of Edgewood, N. D., is operated entirely by women. Women of Madison, Ind., claim the honor of having formed the first literary society in the United States. The Woman's Labor Union in Lynn, Mass., will hereafter have the affairs of their organization looked after by men.

Fitting Text

A colored preacher in Alabama had at one time served a short jail sentence and was fearful lest his congregation discover the fact, as in his later years he had been a model of rectitude. One Sunday, rising to begin his sermon, his heart sank to see a former cellmate sitting in the front row. Quick thinking was necessary. Fixing his eye on the unwelcome guest, the preacher announced solemnly: "Ah takes mah text dis mo'bin' from de sixty-fifth chapter and fo' hundredth verse of de book of Job, which says, 'Dem as sees and knows me, and says nothin', dem will Ah see later.'"—The Argonaut.

Columbia, Feb. 23—Politics are being talked around the halls of the legislature and there are rumors of interesting things this summer. Major John G. Richards of Liberty Hill, is in the capital and it is said that he is being approached with the request that he run for governor, as advocate of tax reforms. He was at one time chairman of the ways and means committee of the house and is considered an authority on tax matters and a strong tax reform advocate. It is also rumored that Prof. D. W. Daniel, of Clemson College, is being urged to run for governor. Prof. Daniel is a brilliant orator and would, it is said, make a strong campaign. He has hosts of friends and admirers, also it is pointed out, and would make a good governor.
