COUPLE DETAINED HERE

Telegram From Rock Hill Stopped Marriage Ceremony Here Monday.

A young white couple giving their names as Lewis Baker and Nellie Fallo, both of Rock Hill, came down from Rock Hill Monday afternoon and made application for a marriage license from Judge W. L. McDowell. The probate judge had just asked the couple their names when Chief of Police Whitaker came in and announced that he had a message from Rock Hill from a brother of the bride requesting that the couple be arrested if they applied for a license. The message described the couple and further stated that the woman had a living husband, now in the United States navy to whom she had been married for about two years.

The officer placed both of the parties under arrest and carried them to the opera house where they were detained under guard in the lobby until the two brothers of the young woman came down from Rock Hill in the afternoon and carried her back home, leaving the would-be bridegroom in Camden. No charge was docketed against either party and the brothers say their only interest in the case was to keep their sister from facing a bigamy charge.

Married at Bethune.

Mr. Neal Franklin McCaskill, of McBee, and Miss Eva Gardner, of Jefferson, were married at Bethune on the 9th day of July, Magistrate J. E. Copeland officiating.

Services at Flint Hill.

There will be preaching at Flint Hill Baptist church, a few miles north of Camden on Sunday, July 16th, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. John N. Jones Dead.

Mr. John N. Jones, for many years a well known and prominent citizen of West Wateree, died at his home near Lugoff on Tuesday morning. He had been in failing health for a number of years and was 71 years of age. At one time Mr. Jones was one of the largest and most influential planters of his section. He was twice married and is survived by a large number of children. The remains were brought to Camden Wednesday morning and buried in the cemetery here after funeral services by the Methodist minister of Lugoff.

In our report of the death of Mrs. Lottie M. Smyrl last week we only mentioned her as being survived by four children. Mrs. Smyrl was the mother of eight children: Messrs Henry Smyrl, and Oscar Smyrl, of Camden; Willie J. Smyrl, of Rock Hill; Mrs. F. D. Campbell, Mrs. L. C. Shaw, Mrs. George A. Creed, Mrs. Fred Ogburn and Miss Mamie Smyrl, all of Camden.

Negro Killed in West Wateree.

The usual killing during court week for this county occurred Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when the dead body of a negro by the name of William Knox was found about a half mile from his home where he had fallen in the woods from a gunshot wound.

The negro resided near the plantation of Mr. Robert Mickle and it is thought that he was on his way home from his field when he was fired upon with a shot gun loaded with slugs, the load tearing away his heart. Sheriff Welsh went with a coroner's jury to view the body, but a verdict has not been reached, and so far there is no clue as to who killed the man.

Wants to Thank Searchers.

Mr. Steve Perry and the members of the family of Mr. William C. Garrett, and also the other employees of the Palmetto Power Company requests The Chronicle through its columns to publicly thank the citizens of West Wateree for their untiring efforts in locating the body of Mr. Garrett who was drowned in the Wateree river last Thursday afternoon. Especially would they thank Mr. Robert T. Mickle who personally directed the searching party.

Lookout Tree Falls.

Moore Haven, Fla., July 8.—The "Lookout tree," a cypress believed to have been the largest in Florida and which had stood for ages near the shore of Lake Okalochee, a short distance from the settlement of Belle Glade, has fallen. After withstanding violent storms, the big tree, 49 feet in circumference eight feet above the ground, toppled before a light gust of wind. Subsiding of the waters because of the drainage of the Everglades had resulted in a settling of the muck ground which left its roots undermined.

At the base of the tree was an artificial mound of sand believed to have been carried there from the lake shore by mound builders who once were inhabitants of the territory. The Indians or pre-historic people buried many of their dead in the mound for numerous specimens of human bones have been recovered from it. One of the most interesting of these was a wristbone encased by a crude handcuff, a recent discovery.

Must Remove Cows.

Judge Townsend, who is holding court in Camden this week, upheld Judge Kimball of the city court of Columbia Wednesday night when he dismissed the temporary restraining order granted several days ago in which the city of Columbia and the recorder were restrained from forcing Paris Bouknight to remove certain cows from premises at 718 Calhoun street. Attorneys representing Bouknight alleged that the city court judge declared lowing cows to be a nuisance and issued an order for the removal of the animals. C. S. Monteith, city attorney, of Columbia represented Judge Kimball and cited various ordinances to support his ruling.

Directs Verdict For York Woman.

York, July 12.—A verdict of not guilty as to Mrs. Effie Hudgins was directed by Judge Frank P. McGowan at 4 o'clock this afternoon immediately after the state had closed its testimony in the case of Mrs. Hudgins and Albert Zimmerman, charged with the murder of the former's husband, Pink Hudgins, on the outskirts of York, the night of November 7.

The motion for a directed verdict of acquittal as to the case against Mrs. Hudgins was made by the defendant's counsel on the ground that no evidence had been introduced to connect her with the alleged crime, and though argued against by the state's attorney, was granted, and the verdict read in court, following which trial of the case against Zimmerman proceeded.

Death of Tallie Harris.

Friday night at 11 o'clock the death angel came and took away Tallie Harris. He died peacefully, as though he was asleep, and we know that he went to the arms of his mother in Heaven.

He was buried at Antioch church of Lee County at 10:00 o'clock Sunday. Numbers of friends and relatives attended the funeral from Bishopville, Camden, and Alcott, besides the folks of the immediate neighborhood and vicinity. The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous.

Tallie Harris was reared by his uncle and name sake, Tallie J. Davis, his mother having died when he was but a child. He thought the world of his Aunt Mary and Uncle Tallie, who had been all that a mother and father could be to him. He was born in 1866, making him 56 years old. All of his life he was kind, affectionate, and obedient, as his folks will attest.

He is survived by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Davis, and his first cousins, Rollie Davis and Mrs. James H. Davis, of Bishopville.

Our hearts are heavy, but we console ourselves by thinking "It had to be," for "God knows best."

Watch For Red Spider.

Clemson College, July 10.—With the coming of hot dry weather cotton is likely to be attacked by red spider, a small reddish spinning mite appearing on the under side of the cotton leaves and causing the leaves to turn red on the upper surface. The pest may be controlled as suggested below by the Entomology Division.

Keep a close watch on the cotton when dry weather sets in so that you will notice the first signs. Carefully burn plants showing the sign. When large areas are infested, use one of the following sprays:

Potassium sulfide at the rate of three pounds to one hundred gallons of water.

Lime-sulfur solution at the rate of one gallon to one hundred gallons of water.

On large areas apply sprays with barrel spray pump, being careful to hit the underside of the leaves.

Destroy all pokewoods and violets in or near the fields, as these plants are the red spider's favorite winter host plants.

Wifey Won, As Usual.

"I did not!" she denied.

"I did not!" she flung back.
"Well, said hubby, "one of us two is a very capable liar. But there is one thing which prevents me from saying which one."
"Modesty, I presume," retorted wifey. And he gave up, beaten.
