Bridge Party at Country Club.

There will be a bridge party given on Saturday, September 2nd, at 4:30 in the afternoon, for the benefit of the Women's building of the Greater State Fair. Admission will be 50 ginla where they visited Mrs. Rodger. cents and as many as can are urged to get up tables. Those doing so are asked to bring table and cards, and View, and also saw something of the as the Country Club is a delightful great Dismal Swamp, that is so famed place to entertain, the party will be a most enjoyable affair, as well as in helping in a worth while cause. Those forming tables are asked to notify Miss Minnie Clyburn, chairman of bridge party, or Mrs. John T. Mackey, chairman of refreshments, not later than Friday afternoon.

Returned From Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mills and family have returned from a delightful sojourn at a camp near the Hermitage in Columbia and Charleston. Mill pond. A picturesque spot that is most inviting on long summer days and moonlight nights to pitch a tent under the spreading oaks just above the pine-fringed shore of the blue lake that affords ample amusement in boating, fishing, and swimming. The young people of the family had as their guests, Allen McCutchen and Miss Eliza Baron, of Columbia and Misses Dolly Singleton, Helen Savage and Polly DePass.

Tag Day.

If you are a citizen of Camden or any other part of Kershaw County and if you happened to be in town, Monday, the 28th, you were doubtless surprised to find yourself tagged for the hospital, when the only excitement Camden from John Hopkins hospital, you expected was the campaign meets paltimore, after completing his course ing. It was an inspiration on the an opportunity in sharing in this great work and everyone, with few exceptions, responded liberally as the result shows $188.53. Much of the success is due to the untiring erioris of Mrs. Robert Marye assisted by Mrs R. B. Pitts and Miss Robbins T Some of those whose services in tagging. were indispensable are as follows: Mr. John Wilson, Mrs. Kennedy, Blakeney, Mrs. Ralph Shannon, Mrs. W. D. Barrett, Misses Ethel Yates Nancy Lindsay, Emily Wooten, Agnes DePass, Rebecca DeLoach, Annie Thompson. Then, too, the names of Miss McCaskill and of Miss Sinkler in the attractive uniforms of the hospital itself must not be omitted for their appearance which brought the cause itself ville. home to all was a great help and in all day. We may all be proud of our City. hospital and the success of this tag day is a great encouragement to the management as it shows the personal interest of our town and county citi-

Ancient Chinese embroidery work, far surpassing the finest of the present time, and which must have been done with a tiny needle much smaller than ever seen now, was on exhibitionin Washington recently, says an Associated Press message from that city. So fine is the work that the finest details of the features of the figures represented were clear; the hairs of the men's beards, small muscles in the little figures, even the minutely worked long-pointed finger nails and the eye lashes were so perfect that to be appreciated, experts declared, they had to be viewed through a powerful microscope.

WORST IS OVER

But Boll Weevil Will Be Plentiful Next Month Says Whittle.

With August at end the worst is over.' Bolt weevils will be fairly swarming in the cotton in September. but most of the crop destruction is past. The bolls are hardening to open and they are no longer suitable as egg-laying places of the boll weevil. No longer is it worth while to pick up squares containing unhatched weevils. If there is prospect of getting enough top erop or middle crop, as the case may be, to fight with the weevil about, then apply poison.

Over a great part of the southeast the cloudy, rainy cool, weather in August, gave the weevils a great boost A cry of dismay was heard in the land. Those who were having their first severe experience were utterly astounded at the destruction that came suddenly like a thief in the night.

The weather as a handicap to boll weevil fighting is now more fully appreciated by those who hitherto had not experienced it. It is also better appreciated now than ever before that to meet the weather handicap there must be a most thorough and complete destruction of weevils before and between the weather periods, stood up under the weather stress? The writer has been visiting poisoned areas and everywhere the benefits are to be seen. At places where close observation and care has been given in applying the polson a full crop is assured. At other places where close attention has not been given the poisoned areas are not much better than those where only square picking is employed. Even where rather close attention has been given, the daily rains have so much undone the poison that the prospects of yields are but little above the average. But the reports of success with calcium arsenate dust is general and gratify-

A wet May and June has recently been showing how it can cut the middle and top crop. A wet May and June means a short crop as a rule. But weevils are also being charged up with losses which a wet May and June are responsible for.

The greatest thing that a farmer can do in combating the weevil this fall is to rip up or turn under the cotton stalks just as soon as the cot ton is picked. The sooner the better Kill the green cotton stalks and you destroy the weevil's food. It will yeave your premises for those of the man who does not kill the stalk early, quarters early with such a long period of fasting ahead as to make the weevil Mrs. Eugene Blakeney has returned no sort of a life insurance risk. It will likely die before it sees another cotton square.-C. A. Whittle.

Death of Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Emma Roberts, a very estimable lady of the Malvern Hill section, died at her home Friday evening, August 25th, after a short illness.

Mrs. Roberts was the wife of Mr. W. R. Roberts, who for many years has been identified with the business interests of Camden. born quite a number of children, who occupy a prominent part in the affairs of this and other counties. They are: Mrs Benton Sheorn, Mrs F M Clements, of Columbia; Mrs C_M Moseley, of Westville; Mrs H C Langley, Misses Jennie, Evie, and Mazie Roberts, and Willie C Roberts, of Columbia, and Albertus Roberts, of Greenville. The funeral services took place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. F. H. Harding, of Grace Episcopal church, Camden, and the interment was at Malvern Hill chapel. Mrs. Roberts was fifty-five years of age.

From Sheriff Welch.

To the Voters of Kershaw County; want to express my deep appre ciation to the voters of this county, both ladies and gentlemen, for the very flattering vote given me when I asked their endorsement for another term as their sheriff. I received a flattering vote throughout the whole county as will be shown by the tabulated vote. I will endeavor to conduct the affairs of this office in the same fair and impartial manner as in the past, and have nothing but the kindest feeling towards those who saw fit to cast their ballots against me. Very respectfully, GROVER C. WELCH.

Judge of Probate Richards.

Friends in Camden and this county will be pleased to know that J. P. Richards, better known to his friends as "Dick" Richards, has been elected to the office of judge of probate for Lancaster county. Mr. Richards is a son of Mr. Norman S. Richards, of Liberty Hill, in this county, and has only been in Lancaster about one year where he went to practice law. This speaks well for our former countyman and his friends will be glad to hear of his success. The vote was H. H. Horton 1.276, J. P. Richards 2,208.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS.

The Dove, Fox and Deer season opens September 1st. All hunters who desire to enter the field must obtain licenses before doing so. There have been a number of Deputy Wardens appointed for Kershaw County and they will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law all violators.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE XXX.—WISCONSIN

THE many T cities 1 D Wisconsin with French names show the French influence in its early settlement. The first white man to penetrate this fegion was Jean Nicollet, who was sent out in 1634 by Champlain to open trade with the Indians. He landed at Green Bay and probably traversed the country to Chicago. Fur traders and missionaries followed and the latter built a mission where Ashland now stands. This was the first church erected in the state and around it sprang up the first permanent settlement. - Joliet and Father Marquette descended the Wisconsin river, and La Salle explored a great deal of Wisconsin before he took his famous trip down the Mississippl. Among the fur traders to come to Wisconsin shores was Daniel du Lhut, after whom the city of Duluth, Minn., was named.

During the Revolution Wisconsin remained loyal to the British and though Wisconsin became a part of the United States by the Treaty of Paris in 1783, it was not until 1816 that federal troops really established authority there. Indian uprisings continued for some time ending only with the Black Hawk war in 1832. Then followed extensive immigration from the New England States.

Wisconsin had formed a part of the Northwest territory until 1800, when it became a part of Michigan territory, under which jurisdiction it remained until 1836, with the care plant of turn years, when it was consorred a part of Illinois territory, With the admission of Michigan as a state, the Wisconsin territory was created, which included also the present states of lown and Minnesota and portlens of North and South Dakota.

In 1818 Wiscousin was taken into the Union as the thirtleth state. Its area is 56,000 square miles and it has thirteen toral votes for president.

The state is named after the Wisconsin river. This is an Ojibwa phrase which means "gathering waters." It is sometimes called the Badger State (@ by EcClure Newspaper Syndicate) formed last Friday at the Grammar School Auditorium, with between thirty and thirty-five members. There seems some misunderstanding about who is eligible. Any woman can Join the Auxiliary who had a husband, a brother, a son or a father in the Army or Navy between April 6th, 1917, and November 11th, 1918, and who had an honorable discharge. If your man is a member of any Post of the American Legion, so much the better, but it is not necessarily so for you to become a member of the Auxiliary. We hope that every woman who is eligible will join us in a live work for living men who have given their all for their country. We are working for these men who will probably never get out of hospitals where they patiently suffer and are always cheerful and bright. There are those that will tell you they are "fed up on the war"; these never knew the suffering that we women went through who sent our all to help save the world. Unless we remember these men, who will? The Government can't do the little things for these men that women can. so the Post and the Auxiliary are trying to make their lives a little easier. We who have had our boys back unharmed, don't let us shut out these other boys who lie there in the hospital ill and dying. All that can join do so. The membership fee is only fifty cents a year. J. Building Large Number Houses.

The Hermitage Cotton Mills, the oldest cotton mill in the city, is now having erected on their property near Camden twenty-seven new houses to be used by additional operatives of the company. The houses are being constructed by the Minter House Company, of Greenville, S. C., and are the house company has charge of the buildings and local help is being employed, furnishing work for nearly one hundred carpenters and laborers. It is quite an addition to the payroll of Camden.

For a Women's Building.

Every woman in Kershaw County Unit of the American Legion was is asked to help in the work of erecting a building on the State Fair grounds, that will be worthy of the women of South Carolina, and that will be their property. It will be used as a community house, place for conventions and other meetings,

The amount asked of Kershaw County is only $175.00 and the plan is for Life Membership, costing $25.00 each or $5.00 a month. Any one taking a life membership is admitted free to the Fair, and has a vote on the management. Smaller contributions will be used in forming life memberships to be given as prizes in our schools, on any organization desired.

Any woman whom these ladles have not seen is asked to hand in her contribution, however small, so that each can have a share in this building and in helping the fair which means so much to our State.

New Owners for Cafe,

Alex Papajohn, formerly with the Olympia Cafe, and who has been in Camden for more, than four years, has sold out his interest in the Olympia and has purchased the New York Cafe on East DeKalb street, and took charge Thursday. He had greatly improved the Olympia before leaving models of neatness. A. M. Perry for and the new cafe he has purchased is a model of neatness. It is on the Washington to Atlanta highway over which most of the auto travel passes from north to south and will prove a most excellent dining place for tourists as well as town and county folks.
