Heavy Christmas Mail.

The Camden postoffice force tells us that they handled a greater number of mail packages during the present holidays than ever before. While the force was not increased to a great extent they handled the increase without delay and the congestion was only for a short time.

Killed Under Engine.

Rock Hill, Dec. 22.—Herbert Lowrey, aged 12, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lowrey, of East White street, was run over and instantly killed this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by a switch engine. In company with a smaller brother, Garnett had been visiting his grandmother in the western part of the city, and were returning down the railroad track. One switch engine was taking on sand while another engine was pushing cars of coal up the chute. Along side main track. The boys stopped to watch cars pushed up steep grade and Herbert was standing just inside the cross ties. The switch engine backed up and struck the lad, knocking him directly across the rails and cutting off one leg and hip.

Harvey Releases Norman H. Boliver.

Columbia, Dec. 22.—Governor Harvey today suspended the sentence of Norman H. Boliver, who was serving a life term in the State penitentiary on a charge of assault with intent to ravish. Boliver was convicted and sentenced to electrocution at the June, 1918, term of the Court of General Sessions for Orangeburg County but his death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment in October of that year. The suspension provides that the life sentence shall become again in operation if Boliver should be convicted in a General Sessions Court on any charge of violating the criminal laws. Boliver was released from the penitentiary this afternoon.

Two factors entered into Governor Harvey's decision to free Boliver, according to a statement made by the Chief Executive. He said that he was merely carrying out the intention of Governor Cooper, his predecessor in office, and also that there were extenuating circumstances that had been brought to light since Boliver was sentenced.
