Beautiful Model Slain and Robbed

The current ugly scandal in the New York papers has to do with the recent murder of Dorothy Keenan, a beautiful woman known on Broadway as the "Butterfly" and having reputation as an artist's model. She has been noted for many months on account of her beauty. The woman was found dead in her expensive apartments, and the indications were that she had been chloroformed. The last visitor known to have been with her was a man known as "Marshall," but whose identity had been kept hidden until the past few days. It was commonly known that he was an accepted admirer who had given her large sums of money and rich presents. It has come out that "Marshall" is John Kearsley Mitchell, of Philadelphia—capitalist, club man and son-in-law of E. T. Stovessbury of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. It is not definitely established how the woman came to her death; but among the stories advanced is that acquaintances had been trying to get her to blackmail "Marshall" out of a large sum of money and that she had refused. The truth has not yet come out.

Death of Mr. Cantey.

Manning, March 24.—B. O. Cantey, of Summerton, died at 8 o'clock Saturday morning from heart failure and will be buried at Foreston in the family burying ground at four o'clock Sunday afternoon. He leaves a widow and two children, Mrs. W. F. Nettles, of Camden, and B. O. Cantey, Jr., of Sumter.

Capture Large Still.

Kershaw, March 26.—Magistrate A. L. Cook, who has been very active in the seizure of stills, made another raid Saturday and found a 50 gallon outfit with mash in the Bethune section. While not succeeding in apprehending the operators, he has evidence which will probably result in the arrest of the parties.

Famous Actress Dead.

Paris, March 26.—Sarah Bernhardt died peacefully in the arms of her son Maurice at one minute before 8 o'clock tonight. In life she had an amazing power of emotion, of marvelous realism and pathos in her acting of death scenes. At the end of her days she quietly drifted away into eternity, tired after her long fight against death, which she did not wish, but never feared.

Will Celebrate Silver Anniversary.

(Published by request.)
 Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hall, who reside a few miles east of Camden, intend celebrating the silver anniversary of their marriage on 8th of April, 1923. Mr. Hall was married to Miss Fannie Davis on the 8th of April, 1898. Their married life has been one of pleasure and happiness. They have ten living children and one dead. They have a large family connection, and have decided to celebrate their silver anniversary at their home. On these occasions, as is well known, it is customary to present the couple with articles of silver of some description and any of their friends thus remembering them may be assured they will appreciate it.

Death of W. A. Blakeney.

Miss Eileen Floyd received a letter last week notifying her of the death of W. A. Blakeney, at Waldo, Florida. Mr. Blakeney died quite suddenly on Thursday while ploughing in his young orange grove. He had not been in the best of health for some time and his death was attributed to heart failure. Mr. Blakeney formerly lived in Kershaw and was for a long time salesman in the store of the Kershaw Mercantile and Banking Company, and he lived where the home of F. E. Culvern now stands. He was well known in Kershaw and his many friends here and in the community surrounding regret to hear of his death. Mr. Blakeney is survived by his wife, who was a daughter of the late Capt. John Q. McManus, who also had his residence in Kershaw for a long time.—Kershaw Era.

Farmers of Springfield township, Lagrange county, Indiana, recently put on a campaign against English sparrows and rats. They got the heads of 11,000 sparrows and 300 rat tails.

Darling Jolly Lassie, 4-year-old cow, the property of Pickard Brothers, Marion county, Oregon, has just completed a world's record in the matter of giving butterfat. In 365 days she produced 1,149.29 pounds.

They have been having an old time brush with the Indians out in Utah during the past week. Several Piutes got into trouble with the authorities on account of sheep stealing and when the sheriff got after them they took to cover in the craggy fastnesses of Dry Wash, twenty miles from Blanding. Here the runaways were joined by about twenty other Piutes and several Utes under the lead of "Old Posey", the 107-year old chieftain of the tribe, who had been in many a previous brush with the whites in years gone by. Sheriffs of several adjoining counties appeared on the scene with posses of settlers and United States Marshal Ward took command of the situation. Several Indians have been killed and also several whites. At the bottom of the trouble is said to be rich oil properties on lands belonging to the Indians. Joseph Chatfield became so tickled at the antics of an American movie comedian at a London theatre recently, that he was unable to control himself and literally "laughed himself to death."

Home From Germany.

Lee Hilton, who is a sergeant in the United States Army, and was with the army of occupation in Germany from soon after his enlistment in 1919 until their return a few weeks ago, is spending a thirty days' furlough at home with his father, L. D. Hilton. He was in Germany about four years and speaks very interestingly about that country. Sergeant Hilton, who is stationed at Fort Screven, Ga., and has a little more than two years yet to serve out his enlistment, was married while in Germany and expects his wife to join him here during the summer.—Kershaw Era.

Mrs. Ralph Shannon Named.

Washington, D. C., March 22.—Chairman Cordell Hull of the Democratic National Committee has appointed Mrs. Ralph Shannon to act as a special representative of the National Headquarters in organizing a "National Democratic Victory Club" in Camden.

This is a part of a nation-wide plan of organization, extending into every one of the 5,000 larger towns of the country, and having for its object the formation of an army of 100,000 Democrats to bring victory in 1924. Chairman Hull is thus striving, by intensive work THIS year, to win the Presidential election NEXT year.

The plan is for each club president appointed by Mr. Hull to organize a club of twenty live Democrats in each town, thus giving the National Chairman 5,000 flying squadrons, each one composed of 20 dependable men and women, and each under a trustworthy captain, broadcasted over the whole United States and acting as the eyes, ears and good right arm of the national headquarters.

Formation of the Victory Club among Democrats of Camden will start immediately.

Residence Damaged.

The pretty residence of Mrs. Gus Hirsch, located on Broad street, was badly damaged by fire and water Saturday morning. The blaze originated in the roof and had caused considerable damage before the alarm. The fire department responded quickly and did excellent work. The damage to building was estimated at $1,000 and a like amount of damage to household effects from fire, smoke and water. Mr. Hirsch carried adequate insurance.

His House Destroyed.

A house on lower Campbell street belonging to John Burroughs, a colored tailor, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. Part of his household goods were also destroyed and damaged. He carried some insurance on both house and furniture.

MILITIA ENCAMPMENTS.

Large Proportion of South Carolina National Guard Will Attend.

Columbia, March 26.—A large proportion of the 128 officers and 2,500 enlisted men of the National Guard of South Carolina are laying plans with a view of attending the annual encampments this summer, according to statement here today by Brigadier General Robert E. Craig, adjutant general of the state. Report reaching his office, Gen. Craig said, indicate that the prospect of going to more or less distant points is found pleasing by the civilian soldiers of the state.

The largest part of the state military organization will go to Camp McClellan, at Anniston, Ala. Besides the state staff corps, the entire 118th infantry, the two motor transport companies, Nos. 118 and 218, and the ambulance company, No. 118, are scheduled to spend their training period at the Alabama camp, from July 16 to July 30, inclusive. There will be 90 officers and 1,600 enlisted men who are eligible to make this trip, according to present records.

The National Guardsmen will receive fifteen days pay for the service during the training camps, at the regular rates prevailing for corresponding grades in the regular army. They will, of course, also receive rations and transportation.

The total cost of the encampments for the South Carolina units has been estimated at $118,044.07.

Cotton Ginned in County.

The department of commerce has issued a statement showing that in Kershaw county there were 12,481 bales of cotton ginned in 1922 as compared to 12,933 in 1921. For the entire state there were 517,601 bales ginned in 1921 as compared with 786,039 bales in 1921.

Marriage.

Mr. Dewey McCaskill and Miss Queen Victoria Twitty, both of Camden, S. C., were married on Saturday night last, March the 24th, at the home of Probate Judge W. L. McDowell.

Ho, Hum!

"I don't see any use of a married man wearing a wedding ring," growled Mr. Grouch.
 "No," sighed Henry Peck, "anybody can tell a man's married by just looking at him."

First Close-up of Mrs. Harding Since Illness

Mrs. Harding posed specially for this picture on deck the McClean yacht in Florida last week, the first since her illness. Mrs. McClean is with her.

Will Spend Easter in Augusta.

St. Augustine, Fla., March 27.—President and Mrs. Harding plan to spend Easter in Augusta. Preliminary arrangements were made today for their departure late Saturday so as to arrive in the Georgia city early Sunday. How long they will remain there is undecided. A decision has not yet been made regarding any further stops from Augusta back to Washington. The general belief is they will remain in Augusta three to five days and possibly make another stop in one of the Carolinas. Plans for a stop at Asheville have been abandoned, however. The president played golf again today.

New Revenue Law Signed.

Governor McLeod Monday signed the new revenue act, the sales-luxury-amusement-ammunition-bond-stock-mortgage tax, and the measure became law with the approval of the governor.

Under the terms of the act a tax will be imposed upon the gross receipts of all manufacturing plants in the sum of one-tenth of 1 per cent.

All tobacco (except chewing) will be taxed, including cigars and cigarettes.

All admissions to theatres and places of amusements will be taxed. All ammunition will be taxed.

High priced candy will be taxed. Transfers of stocks, bonds, mortgages and notes will be taxed.

Under the terms of the act the state expects a revenue of from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.—Tuesday State.

Aged Negress Dead.

Saluda, March 26.—An old negro woman, Gracie Simpkins, who reckoned her age at 115 or 116 years, died near town Saturday. It is not known how accurate her memory was as to the date of her birth, but it is certain that she was a very old woman, as several persons who are now about sixty years old have stated that she was regarded as an old woman in their boyhood days. In slavery times she belonged to Mr. Arthur Simpkins of Edgefield; it is said.

Miss Paula Gellibrand, a beautiful heiress and one of the most popular girls in English society, is now working as a model.
