Epworth Anniversary Day.
The Lytleton Street Epworth League will present a pageant, "The Olden Prodigal," at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, April 8th, 8 o'clock. Hardy Mann, "The Modern Prodigal," portrays the type of prodigal who has gone the limit. The play might just as well have portrayed the social butterfly or the religious one. The Epworth League presents its pageant with the earnest prayer that many others like this modern prodigal may catch the vision of a useful and happy life. Public cordially invited.

Those taking the principal parts are: Mr. Basil Bruce, Miss Aubrey Pattie, Mrs. A. M. McLeod, Miss Margaret Jenkins, Miss Elise Hardy, Mrs. B. C. Zemp and Mr. Theodore Hodges.

PERSONAL.
W. D. Barnes, of Columbia, a chiropractor, will open a branch office in Camden on Friday, April 6th. He will have his office in the Bruce building, corner of Broad and DeKalb streets.

Honesty is the best policy in business, and is likewise the best principle.

Hampton's Birthday Celebrated.
The chapter exercises at the Grammar school last Friday morning were in charge of Mrs. G. E. Taylor, who arranged and successfully carried out a delightful programme in honor of Flag Day, Carolina Day, and the Birthday of General Wade Hampton. The stage was beautifully decorated with pot plants and cut flowers. Announcements were made by little Miss Thelma Flowers and the entire fourth grade joined in a beautiful flag exercise. Miss Josephine Alexander, the school's accomplished music teacher presided at the piano and the school joined in singing "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean" and the "Star Spangled Banner".

Miss Louise Nettles as president of the local U. D. C. chapter had been invited to address the school. She gave an informal talk on Wade Hampton and what he had done for South Carolina, and also spoke of State pride, our love for Carolina, from the pink oleanders on her pebble-washed shore to the blushing apple orchards of the mountains.

The state flag, the gift of the John D. Kennedy Chapter to the school was then presented by Mrs. Edwin Muller in a few well chosen remarks. Mr. J. G. Richards, Jr., received it and the school expressed their appreciation by standing. Carolina, the beautiful state song, was then rendered by Mrs. L. T. Mills, whose lovely voice never fails to please an audience, young or old.

The exercises were informal and pleasing and Mrs. Taylor is to be congratulated upon the entire success of the occasion.

Bridge Tournament and Tea.
Mrs. Warren Harris will open her lovely new home on Fair street for a Bridge Tournament and Tea for the benefit of the Camden Hospital Auxiliary on Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

Preaching at Flint Hill.
We have been requested to announce there will be preaching at Flint Hill Baptist church, near Cantey Hill, on Sunday, April 8th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The Rev. J. Moore will conduct the services.

Local Masons Invited.
Masons of the state will meet here next week. The local Masons will give a banquet at the Kirkwood Hotel Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, after which there will be an informal reception. We urge that all local Masons with their wives attend the banquet and reception. The committee wants to know by Monday morning how many expect to be there. Tickets have been issued and you can obtain them from the committee.

Robert T. Goodale,
Chairman.

Reduction in Rates.
We have been advised that there will be a general reduction in rates on electric lighting, heating, power and cooking, with special attention to that of cooking. This schedule will be published in the next issue of The Chronicle and the rates will become effective on May consumption.

Under the terms of the general appropriation bill, there can be no state aid to schools whose buildings are not insured with the sinking fund commission.

MRS. DeLOACHE DEAD.

One of Camden's Oldest Citizens Passed Away Monday.

On Monday afternoon, April 2nd, Mrs. Rebeckah Workman DeLoache "fell to sleep" after an illness of more than a month, from which she never recovered. In the passing of this lovely Christian character, Camden loses one of her most loved and valued women, one who held a warm place in every heart that knew her, and her death brought genuine sorrow to all who were privileged to call her friend. But we feel that she has joined that great cloud of witnesses to whom we look for inspiration and guidance and that she has left an example worthy of imitation. Her lovely character, sweetness of disposition, loyalty, and devotion to friends and family are traits to be admired and desired. She was a life long and faithful member of the Methodist church and her death leaves a void in the church circles that to the last claimed her interest and best efforts. "I serve!" was her motto and the service was glorified by her own utter unconsciousness of it. Her religion was of a nature a rock on which to lean when trials came.

She was Miss Rebeckah Workman, born and reared in Camden. In early life she was married to the late William Elliott DeLoache. Their married life was spent in or near Camden and a large family of sons and daughters reared. In her life she showed them ever the way of right, truth and justice, in her death she has left them a priceless heritage of blessed memories and holy benediction of peace and faith and love that passeth understanding.

Mrs. DeLoache is survived by a large family of children and grandchildren. The children surviving are: W. E. DeLoache, of Columbia; Mrs. Hettie Delay, of Birmingham, Ala.; R. Blair DeLoache, J. R. DeLoache, W. R. DeLoache, Benjamin P. DeLoache, Mrs. Willis Shehorn, Mrs. W. Robin Zemp, Mrs. John T. Nettles, all of Camden, and three devoted grandchildren, whom she reared from infancy, Mrs. A. K. Blakeney, Charles, Elliott DeLoache, of Camden, and James DeLoache of Savannah.

The funeral services were solemnized at the Methodist church, Tuesday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. W. H. Hodges officiating. The active pall bearers were her five sons and her grandson. She was laid to rest in the old Quaker cemetery under a mound of flowers. Even in "The Valley of the Shadow" hope sees a star and faith hears the flutter of an angel's wing.

"We see but dimly through the mists and vapors;
Amid these earthly damps,
What seem to us but sad funeral tapers,
May be Heaven's distant lamps."

Was Well Known Here.
At his home in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, on March 24th, Mr. Edward Hull died after a critical illness of several weeks. Mr. Hull has many friends in Camden who will regret to hear of his death. For many winters he came here with his wife and family and learned to love the place, so much so that he compiled a pamphlet on points of interest in the town. Recently he had expressed himself as "wishing that he could go back to Camden for the rest of his life." Those who knew Mr. Hull admired him for his cheerfulness of disposition, his unusual powers of mind and friendliness of spirit. Although a great sufferer for many years, he made a brave fight for life and seldom complained of his trials. The sympathy of all his friends will go out to his wife and family in this hour of bereavement.

Thanks The Firemen.
To the loyal Firemen of the City: We want to thank you for your promptness and the wonderful work you did in saving our home from destruction by fire.

Very truly yours,
Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hirsch.

Civic League To Meet.
The Civic League will meet next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Grammar school auditorium. Anyone who may have seed or plants that they would like to exchange will please bring them to the meeting, especially would we stress autumn flowers or plants, chrysanthemums, etc. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Members are urged to be prompt.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Items of Interest Gathered From Many Sources.

Among the prospective candidates for the Democratic nomination for the presidency next year are the following: William G. McAdoo, Oscar W. Underwood, James M. Cox, Senator Colquhoun of New York, and Senator Rolleston of Indiana.

Former President Wilson has asked Governor Sweet of Colorado, to appoint Hutson Thomson, Democrat, to the United States Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel D. Nicholson, Republican, who died last Saturday.

William Hohenzollern, former emperor of Germany, is sawing wood under guard at Doorn, Holland. This is because of extra activities of the monarchists of Germany, and Holland fears that some effort might be made to liberate William.

The Japanese diet broke up in a free-for-all fight Monday when a motion was introduced by the opposition to impeach the government. Trays and inkstands were among the missiles used in the fight.

Charlie Albert, one of the best known of Washington newspaper correspondents, and for years representing the New York World at the capital, died Monday after a short illness.

Mrs. Anna Buzzi, when arraigned in New York Tuesday on a charge of having killed Frederick Schneider on February 26, entered a plea of not guilty.

Large numbers of foreigners are being driven out of Germany because of special taxes and the high cost of living. Hotel rates are higher than in Paris and London.

Dr. Louis L. Jacobs, of the public health service, is on trial at San Diego, Cal., charged with the murder of Fritz Mann, dancer, whose body was found near that city several weeks ago.

Following the suicide of the cashier, Lonnie F. Gibbs, on March 10, an audit of the books shows an approximate shortage of $460,000. Gibbs carried $600,000 life insurance.

Farmers of South Carolina are showing a disposition to hold their cotton now, after selling rather freely during January and February, according to a statement by J. Clifton Rivers, State Warehouse commissioner. There are now in state warehouses about 90,000 bales of cotton, and more is being added every day, he said. The greatest number of bales stored by this department of the state this year was about 176,000 bales, Mr. Rivers said.

A. M. Scarborough became superintendent of the penitentiary last Saturday instead of Col. A. K. Sanders, and Captain C. C. Roberts, for a number of years past head of the state prison guards, handed in his resignation.

No Further Extension.
Columbia, April 4.—No further extension of time for the payment of taxes will be granted after April 15, it was announced today by Walter E. Duncan, comptroller general. Executions will become effective after that date, he said.

DEAL IN DOLLARS

It's good business—when you deal in dollars. You acquire a stock in trade which never goes below par and is always good in any market.

There is scarcely any reasonable desire that the average person cannot gratify—when they deal in dollars—which is another way of saying "Thrift."

The rapidly growing habit of thrift among the American people and a keen appreciation of the comforts and security that comes from money in the bank makes it necessary that you do likewise else lose out in enjoyment of a full and peaceful old age.

Remember—a passbook is the only dream book in which dreams come true

To get ahead, one must have a definite plan about it. When opportunity knocks—have your Loan and Savings Bank book about you.
