South Carolina Tuberculosis Association.

The above association has appointed a committee for Kershaw County for the sale of Christmas seals bonds. It is hoped that a liberal patronage of this much needed work will be given and that a sufficient sum may be raised to provide clinics and specialists to treat the disease throughout the county. One-fourth of the deaths between the ages of 15 and 45 are caused by the White Terror. And it is a curable disease if taken in time. The committee consists of the following: Mrs. E. G. Richie, chairman; The Reverends, F. H. Harding, Edwin Muller, J. J. Johnson, W. H. Hodges, Father M. J. Reddin, the Mayor, H. G. Carrison, W. D. Barrett, W. L. DePass, Mrs. William Ancrum, Mrs. W. J. Mayfield, Mrs. H. G. Marvin, S. G. Richards, Jr., Miss Robbins, J. W. Sanders, Miss Jennie V. Boyer, Miss Ernestine Bateman, Mrs. Elmer Watts, Mrs. E. C. DuBose, Mrs. Miller Boykin, Jr., Miss May Boykin, Mrs. I. R. Hayes and Mrs. Hellman, of Kershaw, and others. See, or phone this committee if the children do not reach you with the seals.

John D. Kennedy Chapter Met.

The above chapter met Monday afternoon with Mrs. F. Leslie Zemp and Miss Ella Zemp for the regular December meeting. The president, Mrs. W. J. Dunn presided and the chapter secretary, Miss Louise Nettles, was in her place.

Many important items were discussed and the chapter expressed its approval or disapproval of certain measures to be brought up at the State Convention, and in some instances the delegates were instructed how to vote, and in others it was left entirely to their judgment.

The chapter is sending up a splendid report to the convention, all pledges paid and every call of the Division has been cheerfully responded to and the chapter has shown progress in several departments, charitable, memorial, and historical. Feeling that each year finds us in advance of the previous one, gives us courage and the incentive to renew our efforts to make our chapter work of sufficient importance to be felt by our State Division and our great National body of Daughters. And we are proud of the fact that the utmost harmony prevails. Loyalty, faithful service and earnest cooperation have been the magic keys to the success of this splendid chapter, a part of that great organization grown from a modest beginning to be National in its scope. It has enlarged its borders to embrace the whole country.

Mrs. W. J. Dunn and Miss Leila Shannon carried the greetings of the chapter to the State Division meeting in Newberry this week.

After business a social hour was enjoyed. The hostess served hot tea, cheese straws and cake.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. N. R. Goodale with Mrs. C. M. Coleman and Mrs. W. F. Nettles as assistant hostesses.

Cotton Ginned in The County.

A report from the bureau of the census from Washington gives the number of bales ginned in Kershaw county up to November 14, 1923, at 18,746, as compared with 10,947 for a like period in 1922.

A Beautiful Reception.

One of the prettiest parties of the season was the reception and tea given at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. C. Richie, the former president of the Civic League as hostess and Mrs. William Ancrum, Jr., the newly elected president, as guest of honor. Mrs. Richie's guest list included the members of the League, the ladies of the Hospital staff, and the teachers of the Grammar and High schools, which numbered around one hundred and seventy-five ladies.

The gardens as well as the interior of this home are noted for artistic beauty and charm and the down-pour of rain on this particular afternoon did not prevent the guests from taking advantage of an invitation that promised an unusual pleasure.

Mrs. Richie received her guests informally, she wore an exquisite afternoon gown of grey crepe satin with matching accessories.

Mrs. Ancrum as honor guest was charming in blue velvet with squirrel trimmings and accessories to match.

The rooms were flooded with light in striking contrast to the dreariness without. The dining room was lighted by candles alone. There is something about candle light that is restful. It awakens the imagination, it breathes of romance and whispers of "The days that are no more." No wonder it has taken such a strong hold on the present artistic revival of the nation. The polished table in this room had as a center decoration a silver basket filled with a variety of luscious fruit, and was further adorned with yellow chrysanthemums and tall yellow tapers in silver candle sticks. A silver service at either end of the table was presided over by Mrs. Edward DuBose and Mrs. E. N. McDowell, who poured tea and coffee. The refreshments consisted of nut bread, beaten biscuits, fruit cake, and pouf cake and were served by Misses Henrietta Johnson, Ernestine Bateman, Minette Boykin, and Mrs. W. O. Hay. Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Jr., graciously presided at the punch bowl. It was not only a delightful social occasion but a get-together meeting to enlist the interest and cooperation necessary to carry forward our public institutions that mean so much to Camden and its future.
