NEWS OF KIRKWOOD SOCIETY

Happenings of Interest Among Our Northern Visitors.

Spring-like weather and many additions to Camden's winter colony mark the opening week of February. Teas, dinners, polo matches and golf tournaments have been featured extensively, and on Saturday morning the first cross country ride and hunt breakfast drew many to the Kershaw County Country Club.

In the saddle for the brisk gallop over hill and dale were Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gault, Miss Oara Gault, Miss Helen Hoyne, and Messrs. Thomas Robinson, Charles Little and K. G. Whistler. Many others awaited the equestrians for the delicious breakfast at the Club, and all voted the affair so delightful that the rides will be held every week during the season.

Another event at the Kershaw Club was the luncheon given by the Directors of the Camden Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday to the visiting State Commercial Secretaries, The banquet at Hobkirk Inn also for the visiting Secretaries which took place on Tuesday evening was another outstanding event of the week.

Sunday afternoon many motored to Hannah's Cabin for tea. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gault, Mrs. A. S. Hunter, Mrs. Nesbit, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney, Miss Sweeney, Mrs. Ralph Shannon, Mrs. Arnold Burges Johnson, Mrs. Elwood B. Eddy, Mrs. Charles Clifton and Miss Alice Clifton.

Mrs. R. M. Lisle of Poali, Pa., gave a card party and tea on Monday afternoon at the Kirkwood Club House for twenty-two guests. Mrs. Lisle is for the first time one of Camden's cottage colony.

To Bird Dog Lovers.

Bird dog lovers will have the opportunity of seeing some of the best dogs in the country at Augusta, Ga., if they will attend the "Shooting Dog Trials" to be held February 19th and 20th. The second annual "Shooting Dog Trials" will be held in Augusta, Tuesday, February 19th, and Wednesday, February 20th, although from the interest manifested in this event, it is quite possible it will require more than two days to finish the trials, A most cordial invitation is extended to out-of-town people to enter bird dogs and those desiring to do so will com-municate with Mr. J. V. Westmore- need, he imbued in us that spirit. of municate with Mr. J. V. Westmoreland, care of the City Offices, Augusta, Ga., who will communicate with them in regard to any information and they may wish and also furnish entry blanks. A fee of $3.00 is charged for each entry. The Augusta Field Trial Association was organized to create and maintain an interest in bird dogs and not for profit and at the same time to determine who really had the best shooting dog in this section, as no man yet has ever been known to admit that he owned anything but "the best bird dog in the country." It is hoped that every owner of a bird dog, whether he be good, bad or indifferent, will be sportsman enough to enter his dog as all dogs are owned and handled by hunters and not professional field trial handlers. Four handsome prizes will be awarded.

Hon. J. Rion McKissick, of Greenville, Senator T. B. Butler, of Cherokee, and Cyrus L. Shealy, of Lexington, were on Friday elected trustees of the South Carolina University to succeed Messrs. Resolutions on Death of Mr. Wilson. The following resolutions were adopted at the regular monthly meet-ing of the James Leroy Belk Post of-this city. this city:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His supreme wisdom to still in death the efforts of our former Commander-in-Chief, Woodrow Wilon, and

Whereas, by his example of unselfish service to his country in her most trysacrifice and patriotism, in the camps and on the fields of battle, necessary to the successful conduct of the war,

Whereas, as the head of the civil branches of our government he displayed such traits of leadership and ability as to excite the admiration of the world, and

Whereas, after the paralyzing hand of disease had laid hold of him, he aroused our unstinted admiration and respect by his gameness and undis-mayed courage, Therefore be it resolved:

That James Leroy Belk Post of the American Legion, of Camden, South Carolina, do express by these resolutions our sense of irreparable loss in the death of our beloved leader; mat a page in our minute book be dedica ted to his memory; that a copy of these resolutions be sent his bereaved family, and that they be published in the local papers.
