SENSATIONS AND TRAGEDIES.

The past week has been one of sensations and tragedies. The daily press chronicled such news as actress murdered in New York, charges of graft in Washington, millionaire's wife placed under arrest in dive in Atlanta, priest shoots a woman at Pittsburgh, and in our own State we have a circuit judge charged with drunkenness, two women made savage attack on young woman at Clinton, policeman shoots man to death in barber chair at Iva, and on down to our own country, white man goes home, gets his gun and shoots an inoffensive negro. Bad record for one week.

One Man's Secret.

A 14-year-old boy, George Black, built himself a wagon out of four wheels, an egg crate and some other material, then went to peddling merchandise for eggs among farm folks around the town of Pigeon, Mich.
 He became known to every farmer for miles around. A few years later he opened a store. The business outgrew it and he bought a big factory building. Recently he built a three-story addition to that. Black now does a business of $350,000 a year in this town of 800 population. People for miles around trade with him. Salesmen in his store work on commission; his hardware clerk averages $250 a month and the woman at his notion counter makes $20 a week. His business nets about $1,000 a day. Not long ago a merchant in a larger town took a day off and went to Pigeon solely to ask George Black if he cared to divulge the secret of his success. Black smilingly said he was glad to tell the world his secret.

I offer nothing but real bargains— and I advertise in the newspapers in small towns around Pigeon. There's no secret to it—advertising has done it for me.—Lancaster News.

Better in the Penitentiary.

A fine and suspended sentence for using deadly weapons and inflicting wounds upon a negro did not appear to fit heavily upon Wade Reynolds of Kershaw county. He had demonstrated that the suspension of his sentence was misplaced leniency.

The coroner's inquest over the body of Willie Harris, colored, revealed that several white men under the influence of whiskey began to fight at a filling station in Camden of which Harris was part owner. While attempting to separate the men Harris was shot with a shotgun in the hands of Wade Reynolds.

While under a suspended sentence for wounding one man, Reynolds kills another. Not only did he not take warning and shun temptation, but he drank whiskey and carried a shotgun around in the night time. Such conduct is better in the penitentiary.— Columbia State.

Held Fine Meetings.

Secretary Fewell has returned from Camden, where she attended the semi-annual meeting of South Carolina Commercial Secretaries, which she states was by far one of the most interesting and instructive yet held.
 Among the subjects discussed was publicity in all its phases. Dr. J. F.
 Jacobs of Clinton giving most valuable advice on how to prepare advertising in the most effective manner.
 W. E. Sirrine, of Greenville, spoke enthusiastically on the proposed Southern exposition to be held in New York city early in 1925. A number of problems which the secretaries have in common were discussed at length in a most informal manner.

Camden's reputation for hospitality was fully maintained, the visiting secretaries being the recipients of much social attention during the two-days' session, the entertainment features including a luncheon by the Camden Civic League, a most enjoyable banquet, at which 150 were present, at Hobkirk Inn, a luncheon at the new Kershaw County Country Club and a polo game. Rock Hill Record.

The conspicuous failure of the German government to join the other nations in honoring its embassy flag out of respect to Woodrow Wilson attracted attention in Washington and throughout the country. The German government took the position that Woodrow Wilson was a private citizen, and for that reason the government was not called upon to show that respect. During Wednesday afternoon, a number of individuals, said to be taxi drivers, raised an American flag half way up the embassy's flag-poles. The flag was removed by the police. After it was officially announced that the afternoon would be devoted to general mourning, the German embassy announced that its flag would be lowered to half mast.

Chas. Sanborn was killed and Bryan Keenan was seriously wounded in a cuff battle with police on the outskirts of Cleveland, Ohio, Tuesday. Both men were drunken and were being hunted for robbery and a murder.

Chamber of Commerce Notes

Made-in-Camden Exhibits.
 The Chamber of Commerce is arranging a series of exhibits showing Camden-made products, to be placed in window of the store on the corner of Broad and DeKalb Streets, formerly occupied by Snyder's store. There will be two exhibits each week, beginning Thursday, February 14 with an attractive showing of the products of the Camden Brick Company.

Fourteen or fifteen separate exhibits will be shown, covering a period of five or six weeks. The Chamber of Commerce is indebted to Mr. F. M.
 Zemp for the courtesy extended by him in giving the use of this window.

While not known as an industrial city, Camden has a good start already, as is shown by the fact that her industrial payroll amounts to over $2,000 for each work day of the year.

The Chamber of Commerce asks the cooperation of all the business men in making a success of the county-wide campaign for the use of pure seed and Calcium Arsenate in combatting the boll weevil this year.

Sixteen young ladies of Kershaw County will receive through the Chamber of Commerce, a setting of Pure Bred Rhode Island eggs, as the gift of the business men of Camden. Each of these young ladies will agree to furnish another girl with a setting of eggs next year, and so on, making an endless chain Poultry Club for Kershaw County. The Secretary will be glad to hear from anyone wishing to contribute to this cause.

POLITICAL PROPHECIES.

Roy Stone Says McLeod and Dial Will Be Unopposed.

(Greenville News.)

Governor Thomas G. McLeod will be absolutely without opposition in the gubernatorial campaign next summer, it is argued by E. Roy Stone, of Greenville, who is recognized throughout the State as a political prognosticator of unusual foresight and keen perception. The only state offices which will be contested, in Mr.
 Stone's opinion, are those of attorney general and secretary of state.

Samuel M. Wolfe, attorney general, will not again offer for the attorney generalship, Mr. Stone pointed out, and it is probable that there will be several candidates, in addition to John M. Daniel, of Greenville, Mr. Wolfe's assistant, who will hotly contest the office; Mr. Stone declined to prophesy on the election of a secretary of state, but said that there would in all probability be several candidates.

Com. L. Blease, former governor of South Carolina, whom rumor has linked up with candidacy to the United States senate, will not really oppose Senator N. S. Dial, Mr. Stone opined.
 Senator Dial will have no opposition to re-election to the senate, he believes. Blease has not and will not receive sufficient encouragement from his constituents to venture into the senatorial race, is the opinion expressed by Mr. Stone. Blease's followers would vote for him in a gubernatorial race, the Greenville political prophet said, but they feel that it would be like sending a good man to a foreign country to elect him to the United States senate in Washington, in that they would lose him from the state.
 Mr. Blease announced for the senate weeks ago.

It will be remembered that Mr.
 Stone's political prophecies in regard to the gubernatorial race in 1920 were startling in their accuracy. In an interview which was published in the News in February of 1920, he said that McLeod would defeat Blease by a majority of 14,272 votes. The actual tally at the close of the election showed McLeod had been made governor by the people with a majority of 14, 280 votes, exactly eight more than had been accredited him by Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone is supervising agent for the Carolina Life Insurance company, and in his work comes in close contact with a large number of people of all classes every day. Being naturally deeply interested in the politics of the state, he almost constantly talks politics. In this way he is enabled, with surprising accuracy, to determine the lay of the land with regard to politics.

Messrs. McAdoo, Reed and Underwood having been invited to address the house of representatives, Dr. Olin Sawyer, of the committee to entertain the visitors in case they come, has asked that the committee be relieved of inviting Mr. Reed. Dr. Sawyer resents the manner in which Mr. Reed hounded Mr. Wilson on the league of nations proposition.

According to a report issued by the Interior department at Washington, the Indian wards of the United States last year received a total of $35,659,- 810 from oil and gas leases on lands owned by the Indians.
