Mrs. Goodale Was Hostess.

Mrs. William L. Goodale was the agreeable hostess at a bridge party last Saturday afternoon entertaining with five tables of bridge. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris on North Fair street was handsomely decorated with flowers for the occasion. After cards sherbert with cake was served.

Marriage Announced.

Cards have been received in Columbia, issued by Mrs. William Welington Daniel, announcing the marriage June 8 in Atlanta of her daughter, Julia Aull, to John Franklin Anderson of Atlanta. After a short wedding trip the young couple are now at home at 87 North Moreland avenue, Atlanta.

The bride's father, the late Rev. W. W. Daniel, D. D., was for many years president of Columbia college, and she grew up in that institution, getting most of her education there. She and her mother have been recently living in Wilmington, N. C., where the elder daughter, Mrs. Sidbury, formerly Miss Willie Daniel, resides.-Tuesday's State.

The above announcement will be of interest to Camden people where the bride will be remembered. Dr. Daniel was at one time pastor of the Lyttleton Street Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Goodale, Messrs. Jack Watkins, Roland Goodale George T. Little, Jr., J. C. Gillis and M. B. Williams attended the marriage near Olanta of Mr. J. Edward Jones and Miss Bonnie Maude Truluck Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to the mountains of North Carolina. They will eturn to Camden July 1st.

Services at Malvern Hill Church. There will be services at Malvern Hill church on Sunday, June 22nd, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Every one is cordially invited to attend these services.

Seashore Excursions.

Southern Railway will sell round trip excursion tickets to Charleston and Savannah Thursday, June 19th, at exceedingly low fares. These tickets will be good going on regular trains June 19th and limited for returning until June 23rd.

A grand opportunity to enjoy a four days vacation at the seashore as well as visit the historic cities of Charleston and Savannah.

Walters-Moseley.

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Walters of 1320 Bull street, was married at noon yesterday at the First Baptist church to James Louis Moseley of Camden. The pulpit was a mound of tall palms with a long handled basket at each side holding pink gladioli, and candelabra burning white tapers.

The bride was attended by Miss Nell Coleman as maid of honor and Miss Genevieve Langley as bridesmaid. Miss Coleman wore a pink georgette gown with designs of bead embroidery and a pink picture hat this week at the home of Dr. and and Miss Langley was in orchid georgette and brocade with a wide brimmed hat of matching georgette and both carried bouquets of pink roses.

The bride, who entered with her father, was smartly costumed in a three piece suit of tan Roshanara crepe with trimmings of brown; a small tan horsehair hat with brown lace veil draped over the front brim and tan shoes trimmed in brown and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Mr. Moseley had as his best man Norman Sifly of Orangeburg and his brother, Lehman Moseley of Camden, as groomsman; and the ushers were: Fred and G. B. Moseley of Camden, other brothers; David Earle Walters, the bride's brother, and Arthur Langley, Jr., of Columbia. Before the ceremony Miss Isabel Monteith, contralto, sang a group of appropriate songs and the wedding march was played by the organist of the church, M. Berry Seay. The Rev. T. Clagett Skinner, D. D., officiated and the ceremony was followed by a buffet luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walters. The house was decorated in a profusion of white and yellow flowers and the table in the dining room, spread with cluny lace, had in the center a basket of white and yellow glad-

Mr. and Mrs. Moseley left by automobile for Charlotte whence they will go for a week's trip to the mountains of North Carolina. They will return to Columbia to be with the bride's parents during the summer session of the university summer school at which Mr. Moseley will take a special course preparatory to becoming principal of the Horry Industrial institute at Aynor. He is originally from Camden and was graduat ed at the recent commencement from the University of South Carolina with the degree of B.S. The bride was educated at Greenville Woman's college and Chicora and is a talented musician, a piano pupil at Chicora of Mrs. H. D. Still, an aunt of the bride, and Miss Maggie Sanders of Blackville, Miss Genevieve Moorer of Leesville, and Miss Elizabeth Dowling of Norway.
