

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE

H. D. NILES Editor and Publisher

Published every Friday at No. 1109 Broad street and entered at the Camden, South Carolina postoffice as second class mail matter. Price per annum $2.00.

Camden, S. C., Friday, Aug. 29, 1924.

For our part we do not think much of this protest vote. It is a bad precedent to set. We might wake up some morning and find an exceedingly undesirable elected to one of the highest offices in the gift of the people.

In our neighbor counties Sheriff John P. Hunter has been re-elected in Lancaster and Sheriff Huist has been re-elected in Sumter. Clerk of Court Scarborough has been elected at Sumter over Mrs. Elizabeth L. Clifton. John B. Duffie, C. J. Jackson and William M. Reynolds have been named to the house from Sumter. Mr. Jackson was the great sufferer from the cyclone at Horatio. In Lee county Sam Scarborough has been re-elected sheriff, Singletary clerk of court, and Brown has been elected supervisor.

Clemson College reports more than 1,000 applications for entrance next session. The list of applicants includes an unusually large number of men 21 years of age and over.

The department of commerce in its statement of today as to activity in the cotton spinning industry for July, gives South Carolina first place in the average active spindle hours per spindle in place with 218, North Carolina ranking second with 187. The report also gives the South Carolina mills first place in the total spindle hours for July with 1,146,745-626.

An Italian army officer, Lieutenant Locatelli, started off with the American army aviators in their jump from Iceland to Greenland last Thursday; but failed to make the trip. Although he started some fifty minutes ahead, when the Americans reached Fredricksdal, Greenland, the Italian was not to be found. Search was commenced immediately; but it was without success until Sunday, when Locatelli and his companion were picked up in the water by the warship Raleigh, at a point 123 miles east of Cape Farewell. The Italian had run on engine trouble, and being forced to fight in the water was unable to outpace the Americans. He and his companion were uninjured but were badly exhausted. Locatelli requested the destination of his airplane and the officers of the Raleigh complied with his request.

Wagon destruction of between one and several thousand dollars' worth of women's furnishings by one of those breakdowns entering the East Main street establishment of the Edward A. Harley company late Wednesday night of early Thursday through an unseasonable wind was attributed to the man who had to be pulled to the rescue and a small amount of damage to a car of the same firm. The car was damaged by the wind which was blowing from the north and the driver was unable to get out of the street. The car was pulled out of the street and the driver was rescued. The damage to the car was estimated at about $500.

A young man, identified as William H. Smith, was arrested on Wednesday morning by George Toole, well known planter of Hawthorne section of Aiken county. It is alleged by officers. Moody was shot on the highway and the girl spent the night on the highway was that his car broke down, and he says that the girl was safe in his car and nothing in any way untoward took place. Dr. Hastings H. Wyman gave first aid to the injured man, whose head and face was sprinkled with bird shot, one of the shots piercing and destroying the right eye. Moody was taken to the Augusta hospital for an operation, and Sheriff Howard went to arrest the alleged assailant.

A father came into the office of the probation officer, Miss Elizabeth Brooke of Spartanburg, and asked the court to take steps to take his children away from his wife, who left him some time ago, and is living near Camp Wadsworth. The two children are a girl, age 16, and a boy, age 6. The father lives in Gaffney at the present time, but has lived in Spartanburg until recently. Sworn affidavits in the matter were filed Thursday morning. The sheriff was given papers by Judge Hicks to go and take the children from the mother, as she was an improper guardian. The two children will be held by the court till an investigation can be had in the matter.

Negro Shoots Another.
At an early hour Thursday morning near the home of Bennie Jones on Campbell street James Deas was shot and perhaps mortally wounded by Bennie Jones. All parties are negroes and the trouble is said to have started when Bennie Jones slapped the face of a child belonging to Deas. Deas in retaliation took a wagon trace and administered a severe beating to Jones. Jones returned to his house and securing a shot gun fired the contents into the back of Deas, producing a terrible wound. The wounded negro was taken to Columbia by Dr. J. P. Pickett for an x-ray examination. It is thought some of the shot penetrated his liver. Jones was arrested and placed in the city jail but was later transferred to the county prison.

Didn't Need Him.
A husky young Irishman secured his first great freight-handling contract after serving some years as one of the "gang."
Promptly at seven o'clock that morning he called five hundred of the burly "dock wallopers" to order and shouted:
"Now, yez are all to worruk for me, and I want ivery one of yez to understand right now that I kin lick any man in the gang."
Four hundred and ninety-nine swallowed the insult, but one large, giant-built warrior moved uneasily and leaping from the line, he said:
"You can't lick me, Mike Hennessey."
"Oh, I can't, can't I?" yelled Hennessey.
"No, you can't," was the determined answer.
"Well, then, go to the office an' get your money," said Hennessey. "I'll have to man in me gang that I can't lick."
The United States patent office has issued its 1,000,000th patent. It was taken out on a submarine designed to travel under sea and rise to the surface by forcing its way through the water. The first patent was issued nearly a half century ago.
It is making estimates on the cost of the air mail recently established between San Francisco and New York it appears that on the first eastward flight eight thousand pieces of mail were carried and $2,308.18 received. This netted a profit of more than $100,000, according to the exact figures.

Kills Telegraph Operator.
Marion, Aug. 26.—W. T. Bernard, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad company at Pee Dee, shot and killed Duncan Perritt, telegraph operator of that place, about 8 o'clock this morning. Bernard fired twice with a revolver, it is said shooting Perritt through the heart. The tragedy occurred between the railroad track and Bernard's house. Bernard was arrested at his home by Sheriff Rowell and Deputy Sheriff Edwards, surrendering without resistance, and lodged in the county jail. He refused to make any statements.

Boy Kills Father.
A young white man, 18, is said to have shot his father with a .45 caliber revolver at 275 of the W. L. Park. The boy was shot through the head and died instantly. The father was shot through the chest and died a few minutes later. The boy is said to have been in a quarrel with his father at the time of the shooting. The father was a well-known merchant in the community.

Young Man Loses Foot.
Sumter, August 19. Earle Courtney, of Rock Hill, a young child, employed by the Carolina Electrical Company, had his left foot amputated as the result of injuries sustained at the new girls' high school building this morning, when a ten ton girder fell and one of the cables whipped back and struck him on the heel. In falling Courtney struck his head and his skull was fractured. The accident occurred when a brick fell into the gears of the hoisting machine and broke it, the girder falling to the ground and the suddenly slackened cables whipping all about. Others employed in the vicinity escaped injury. Courtney was on a ladder in another room when the cable caught him and tore off half of his foot. He was taken to the Tuomey Hospital, where it was stated tonight he was doing as well as could be expected.

WOMAN ELECTED GOVERNOR.
Mrs. Miriam Ferguson Was Wife of Ex-Governor Ferguson.
Dallas, Texas, August 24.—Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, the first woman candidate for governor of Texas, and wife of James E. Ferguson, former governor, was nominated at the Democratic primary Saturday, over Felix Robertson, of Dallas.
Judge Robertson today telegraphed Mrs. Ferguson at her home at Temple:
"I sincerely congratulate you on your victory."
Temple, Texas, August 24.—Mrs. Miriam Amanda Ferguson, nominated for governor of Texas yesterday in the Democratic run off primary, is just a quiet, unassuming wife and mother who has never taken much interest in social or political affairs, save when her husband was involved. Until it was ruled that her husband former Governor James E. Ferguson, was ineligible for office in Texas because of his impeachment in 1917 and until the courts held this spring that he could not get his name on the ticket as a candidate for governor, she has had "no very great desire" to hold office. Today, however, she is the proud holder of the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas, which has always meant election in this state, and she says her heart is full of joy, not because the office will mean much to her personally, but because the expression of confidence of the people in the Ferguson family means everything to her children and her children's children.
Also she is proud "for Jim's sake." Like many other women, Mrs. Ferguson objects to telling her age. "There is not any use in putting that in," she smiled at her interviewer today. "Besides," she added, "you better not do it."
"Why?" she was asked.
"Oh, because—because I am the woman nominee for governor now."
Mrs. Ferguson was born and reared in Bell county, about 10 miles from Temple. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Wallace. Both are dead. Mr. Wallace was one of the earliest settlers of Bell county, coming to Texas from Tennessee.
Mrs. Ferguson attended a one-room rural school and later was a student at Baylor college, at Belton. She was married in 1899 to James E. Ferguson, her boyhood sweetheart, whose father also was a pioneer settler of this section. They have two children, Mrs. Ouida Ferguson Nalle, of Austin, Texas, and Miss Dorrace Ferguson—the latter her private secretary in her campaign.
"Don't forget to mention my grandson," she cautioned. It was to vindicate her husband's name so that little Ernest Nalle, five years old, might not be embarrassed should he wish to run for public office when he grows up that she ran.
Asked how she felt this morning when she woke up and realized that she was the nominee, Mrs. Ferguson countered:
"Wake up? I did not even go to sleep. Of course I'm overjoyed but there is the realization of responsibility and I shall pray to God for guidance just as I did throughout this campaign."
Hundreds of telegrams of congratulations have poured into the Ferguson home all day from all sections of the state and nation.
Mrs. Ferguson knows how to cook and sew and she is the only member of the family who can drive a car. This afternoon she gathered flowers from her yard and took them to a sick friend, as she did yesterday on her way to the polls. Former Governor Ferguson spent most of the day answering telephone calls and accepting congratulations for his wife.
