The Great Falls school truck from Rossville section, which is driven by William Stevenson, turned over last Thursday afternoon on its trip from near the Great Falls Farms company's store. Five of the children were painfully, but not seriously cut and bruised on the face and body. The accident appears to have been caused by the truck running in a ditch when passing a car. This truck carries about 15 school children. The five children hurt are now being cared for in the Great Falls hospital.

REQUEST FOR BOOKS

Presbyterian College of South Carolina Makes Appeal.

The Presbyterian College at Clinton is making a collection of books and papers bearing on South Carolina history and people. We have some valuable and rare volumes already, and hope to acquire more. This is frankly a begging letter.

There are perhaps in the homes and bookshelves, in old trunks or dusty corners or garrets—or maybe in well-kept libraries, papers and books that we should like and that the owners might be willing to donate to the college. They will be preserved in the College Library for future generations, and for many people. Recently one of the professors found some valuable books in an old farmhouse, occupied by negroes, a part of an excellent library that had been thrown about for years by tenants. He has also found in one or two old-fashioned secretaries some good volumes. It is a pity that certain books are scattered over this state that we should be delighted to get, and yet the possessors hardly care for them, or have forgotten their existence entirely.

We wish the old histories, Ramsay, Dojcho, Simms, etc., or other sketches of this state. Stories of men in the Revolution, histories of communities, schools, and churches would be treasured, as well as sketches of counties in the early days, and stories about or by men and things in our state. We should be glad to get complete or partial files of newspapers and early periodicals, files of complete minutes of organizations, churches, and such like, or pamphlets concerning any of these things. We should be especially pleased to acquire, or find, unusual, rare, or old books and periodicals of any sort.

We think we are doing a good service to others by securing this collection. Look through all your books, no matter how few nor how dusty and old and torn they may be, and send us or write to us about them. We shall be grateful, and you will help us beyond any price. Notify H. M. Brimm, librarian, or Dr. Dudley Jones, Clinton, S. C.

Credited with the theft of four Ford cars, J. L. Horn, about 35, of near Greenville, was committed to the county jail, pending transfer to the county chain gang for service under a sentence of thirty days for "tampering" with another Ford car. In connection with this "tampering," Horn was named in a warrant charging an attempt to commit a felony. One car which Horn is alleged to have stolen by police, was found to contain the license tags from all the other Ford cars "credited" to the man's account with local police.

A superior court judge of Hartford, Conn., has ruled that a wife has a right to sue her husband for physical injuries received in an automobile accident in which her husband was driving a car in which the wife was injured. The woman is suing her husband for $5,000 damages.

Pastor and trustees of the Greater Bethel African M. E. church of Chicago, destroyed by fire Friday night with a loss of $100,000, are charging that the fire was of incendiary origin and blame it on the Ku Klux Klan. Bethel is claimed to be the largest negro congregation in America.

Laurens Woman Sues for Alimony.
Laurens, Oct. 18.—Another chapter in court is to be written in connection with the Young case from Clinton, in which two aged women, Mrs. Alice Young and her sister, Miss Emma Stroud, the former's son, Elmore Young, and his young wife, Mrs. Kathryn Goggins Young, figured in a sensational trial in general sessions court here last June, when the two elderly women were convicted of assault and battery and given prison sentences following their trial in which it was charged that the defendants had on February 7 last physically assaulted Mrs. Kathryn Young at the Young home in Clinton. In consequence of the alleged attack on the young matron by her husband's mother and aunt, there was an immediate estrangement between Elmore Young and his wife. Mrs. Young is making her home in Asheville with her mother and two sisters, it is understood, and has resided there since last spring. She is now bringing suit against Elmore Young alleging non-support and demanding alimony sufficient to provide support for the plaintiff who alleges among other things in her affidavit that she has been abandoned and deserted by the defendant and that he is not contributing to her support in any degree whatever. Plaintiff also makes the claim that she has not recovered from the injuries when the "cruel and murderous assault" was made on her, as alleged by defendant's mother and aunt last February, and that by reason of such alleged injury plaintiff is now "physically incapacitated" to support herself. The summons and relief papers were served on the defendant at his home in Clinton yesterday afternoon by the deputy sheriff. The case probably will come up for hearing at the next term of civil court for Laurens county.

After a desperate fight with a negro, early Saturday morning, during which the negro bit off the ear of Policeman Callen, New York officer, and knocked another officer out with his own night stick, Callen shot the negro five times in the abdomen as the negro was on top of him. The negro died in a few minutes after being shot.

Sideache Backache

"I have been taking Cardui," says Mrs. Lillie Bolton of Lake Providence, La. "I got down in bad health and lost in weight until I only weighed 120 pounds. I had bad pains in my sides and back and my legs hurt me until I couldn't walk. I stayed in bed half the time. I tried all kinds of medicine, but it did me no good. Finally I tried

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"It seems like it did me good from the very first. After I had taken half a bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and I got better and better. The pains in my legs and sides disappeared and I began to gain in weight until now I weigh 155 pounds and feel better than I ever did in my life. I am perfectly well and strong. I have given it to my girls, too."

Cardui has relieved many kinds of pains and distressing symptoms caused by female trouble. It should help you, too, in the same way. Why not give it a fair trial?
