Large capital not necessary.

Chicora College for Women.

A fine full start was made this September with an enrollment of about 250 students, as many as the college could accommodate.

The usual social activities at the beginning of the year were greatly enjoyed by the students. Receptions were given to the other colleges in town, that is, the University of South Carolina and the Columbia Theological Seminary. The freshmen also were taken care of by a special social given to them.

The year began with several new professors on the faculty making one of the strongest faculties the institution has ever had: Charles Brookes Chapin, D.D., as professor of education and religious pedagogy; Mrs. John Drake, associate professor of English; L. Wilson Jarman, as professor of mathematics; Dugald McIntyre, Ph.D., as professor of psychology and philosophy; Miss Fannie White, professor of home economics; Charles Judson League, professor of piano; Miss Ruth Mayes, associate professor of voice culture, and F. C. Thames, professor of physical sciences.

The religious tone and atmosphere of the college are above the average, and this is evidenced especially by the meetings and activities of the C. E. society and by the chapel services.

Some new buildings have been erected on the new Chicora campus. The college goes upon the principle that the professors are a distinct asset to its life and so the first buildings are buildings for professors' homes. The cornerstone has been laid for the administration building.

The president of the college, Dr. Byrd, was honored by the Presbyterian College of South Carolina by the conferring of the degree of LL.D. at the recent meeting of the synod of South Carolina.

The representatives of Kershaw county at Chicora are Miss Mary Welch Carson of Kershaw, and Misses Mary Louise McLaurin, Lizzie Kate Davis and Carrie Yarbrough of Bethune.

JAILORS IN TROUBLE

One Gets in Jail and Another Jailor Lets Him Get Away.

Albemarle, Nov. 19.—Deputy Sheriff Math Barbee may not have fallen down and cried out "What must I do to be saved" as did the Philippian jailor before Paul when the earthquake turned out the prisoners, but he has good cause to feel almost as serious as did that ancient official. Yes, he has reason to see visions of himself wearing the uniform of a working man who draws no wages or salary for his services, for he today saw done to another just what he possibly may expect done to him for the very same offense.

Stanly's jailor was this morning sentenced to 90 days on the chain gang by Judge Henry P. Lane, for allowing prisoners to escape from the Stanly jail recently. The said jailor was turned over into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Barbee, and bless goodness, Homer got away from him. So Barbee, having seen one official sentenced to 90 days on the roads for allowing a prisoner to escape, has some grounds for suspecting that the same may happen to him, for the jailor made his escape and up to late this afternoon Barbee has not seen hide nor hair of him.

Relief at Last.

A traveling man put up one night in a cheap little hotel where the thin partitions of a range of bedrooms, like the stalls of a stable, stopped half way to the ceiling. And in the stilly watches of the night he lay awake and listened to the finest demonstration of plain and fancy snoring that it had ever been his fate to hear. It was full of sudden and awful variations. Sometimes strangulation seemed imminent; then in the middle of a fantasia, the agony stopped suddenly and there was silence.

From a nearby stall he heard a voice exclaim, wearily: "Thank goodness, he's dead!"

RED CROSS YEAR'S COST $21,366,255

Nearly $12,000,000 Devoted to Helping Victims of Great Japanese Earthquake.

OVER 3,000 BUSY CHAPTERS

Aid to Disabled War Veterans Paramount and Reaches Nearly $4,000,000.

Washington.—More than $21,000,000 was the total of funds expended in all activities of the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year, ended June 30, says a statement issued by the National organization. This expenditure was almost one-sixth of the amount of money disbursed by the Red Cross in the war year, July, 1917, to June, 1918. Of this extraordinary sum $11,631,303 was America's contribution to the Red Cross for relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. This was increased to $11,768,803 by appropriations from general funds of the Red Cross, and it represented probably the largest spontaneous outpouring of beneficence of a single nation in the history of the world.

Over 3,000 active Chapters expended during the year $4,869,000, the National organization disbursed $16,497,255.35, making the total $21,366,255.35—all for humanitarian work which reached practically around the world. In announcing the year's record of American Red Cross industry the executive officials at Washington emphasize the fact that the extensive and never-halting work of the Red Cross depends almost wholly upon the nationwide support of the organization from the memberships enrolled during the annual roll call which this year will be in progress from Nov. 11 to 27, when everyone is asked to join or renew their membership in the American Red Cross.

Soldier Service Paramount

Service in behalf of the disabled veterans of the World War and their families is a paramount obligation of the Red Cross. The organization, through its Chapters, is constantly in touch with this duty in 2,609 communities throughout the United States—the Chapters alone during the year expending in service for veterans about $2,000,000. The National organization expended $1,735,825—a total of $3,735,825 applied to assisting war sufferers toward recovery from disability and distress.

This work is constant in hospitals, sanitariums, camps, soldiers' homes, in the community. For example, in helping disabled men and women in places where they were transient residents $173,076 from national funds alone was required to help solve their problems. Every Red Cross service is ever at hand ready to meet the individual need of these men and women.

The enlisted men in the Regular Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps, with their home ties, mean a never-ending Red Cross service which figures cannot fully interpret. In this work a total of $685,285 was applied in meeting an obligation under the Red Cross charter which has been fulfilled for over 20 years.

Domestic Operations Extensive

In the past year Red Cross operations were almost wholly confined to continental United States and the insular possessions. Relief work following disasters called for immediate activities in 192 places and a total of $737,603.87 was spent in this service alone. In 23 major disasters trained workers were kept at the work of rehabilitation for many months.

In carrying on the health activities a total of $444,836.66 from Red Cross national funds, and $808,090 from Chapter treasuries—approximately $1,252,836 in all—was applied, giving some idea of the extent of Red Cross service in the fields of public health nursing, nutrition instruction, and spreading knowledge of personal hygiene and care of the sick in the home.

For advancing the cause of human safety, the First Aid instruction, locally by Chapters and over extensive national territory by the Red Cross instruction car covering trunk line railroads, and in teaching water-safety and increasing the membership of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, the total cost was $288,239.71, of which $216,234.71 came out of national funds.

Army of Over 5,500,000

The Junior Red Cross in the schools—with over 5,500,000 in its "I Serve" ranks—was aided with $273,510.78 to which it is estimated the Chapters added some $277,000—a total of $550,510.78. In various other domestic activities the Red Cross spent $283,623.19, and the Chapters in their numerous voluntary services expended an additional $1,048,000 during the year.

Foreign obligations made from Japan, were met with national funds as $1.2 million. Relief of refugees in Greece, $299,887.28; Junior Red Cross projects, $99,579.75; League of Red Cross Societies, $18,000; other insular and foreign work, $231,865.31. The American Red Cross budget for 1924-25 is $4,647,000, or $68,236.96 less than the budget for the year ended last June 30.

In good deeds for all peoples in time of distress the American Red Cross never rests. Help this work with your membership dollar—join on Armistice Day.
