Boykin, S. C., Jan. 12 .- The Charlotte Thompson High School girls defeated the Camden High School girls by the score of 22 to 9 last Friday afternoon at Charlotte Thompson. The winners got away to an early lead and at no time were they ever in danger. The first half ended in favor of Charlotte Thompson by the score of 17 to 3. The entire team played stellar ball with Ellen Boykin and Mary Pittman contributing possibly the best work for the victors. Elizabeth Lewis played a good game at side center for the losers. This is Charlotte Thompson's fourth victory with no defeats registered against her this season. The team has scored so far 143 points to their opponents 47. The line up of the game follows: Camden C. Mrs. Ella Sherwood McLucas died Friday morning at three o'clock at her home on North Main street, Marion, having reached the ripe age of 91 before her death claimed her. For many weeks Mrs. McLucas was at death's door and the end was not unexpected. Several years ago, due to a fall, she became an invalid and had not been able to walk even in her home since that time. Several months ago a serious malady developed and it was thought that the end was just a few days off, but week after week Mrs. McLucas with her remarkable vitality continued to hold her own. She was the widow of the late Major J. D. McLucas of Marion and was born in Wilmington, N. C.
