

MORE TROUBLE IN HERRIN

One Man Killed, Another Wounded—Victim Sought Young's Friend

Herrin, Ill., Feb. 1.—Another pistol fight stirred Herrin early today and when the smoke had cleared away, it was found that a man representing himself as an officer seeking to arrest a Klansman, had been shot to death in the Lymar Hotel by Policeman Rufus Whitson after the alleged officer had wounded Policeman Sim Stephens and terrorized hotel employees. The latest affray came while Sheriff George Galligan was seeking martial law in Herrin. Quiet prevailed tonight.

The man slain had given his name as Joseph Phillips and also as Johnson, and once said that he came from Springfield, Ill. He was accompanied by two unidentified men, when he was slain, who escaped. Phillips wore a cap that belonged to Sheriff Galligan, of Williamson county, it is said, and it was said he had called on the latter several times lately.

Sheriff Galligan, who had gone to the capital to confer with Gen. Black about the need of troops here, said Phillips had called frequently but did not divulge any particular business.

The shooting today came on the heels of the slaying of S. Glenn Young and Deputy Sheriff Ora Thomas, who shot each other to death in the lobby of the European hotel, a few days ago. As soon as their funeral had been held and a coroner's jury had returned a verdict that they killed each other, Sheriff Galligan requested troops be turned to Herrin to prevent a serious outbreak.

BEGINS WITH PRAYER

Unusual Procedure For Garage Man in Greenville

Greenville, S. C., Feb. 2.—"I'm a servant of the Lord and I carry the Word of God with me in my work," was the reply that F. F. Barnett, proprietor of the North Street Garage, gave to a News representative yesterday when questioned about the reading of the Bible and a word of prayer every morning with his employees, before taking up their duties.

Every morning at 7:30 o'clock the employees of the garage and any other persons who may desire to gather with Mr. Barnett, engage in reading of the Bible and a word of prayer is had and promptly at 8 o'clock the men go to work.

Mr. Barnett, who was reluctant in talking on the subject stated that very often when arriving at the garage he would find several people who were waiting for work to be done on their cars. These are always asked to join in the morning devotion, which they do usually, somewhat surprised.

Back in the garage the reporter found men working away in quite the usual fashion. Nobody cursed if the nut didn't happen to fit or if the wrench slipped and some bark was knocked off somebody's hand. To all appearances the frame of mind into which the employer and his men go to their morning services, is carried throughout the day. The men spoke highly of Mr. Barnett and his plan of always starting the day off with devotion.

Now my teeth are clean, my breath sweet, and my mouth completely healed."

The experience of Mrs. Travis is duplicated in hundreds of other cases. If you have pyorrhea—or threatened with pyorrhea your teeth are in danger. Quick and effective treatment is necessary. Commemorative Coins

As the 150th anniversaries of many events during the Revolutionary War approach, there seems to be a growing demand for the coining of commemorative coins by the government. The latest suggestion in this respect is for a 50-cent piece in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the battle of Bennington. A bill to authorize such a coin was passed recently by the senate, and will in all probability pass the house and become law. The coins commemorative of the great Lee memorial on the face of Stone Mountain, in Georgia, have just been put into circulation, and are being mined in large quantities in Philadelphia.

The usual plan for the handling of such coins is for the government to authorize the special coinage, minting a limited number of coins, which are delivered to the organization promoting the celebration. This organization sells the coins as souvenirs, the proceeds, above the face value of the coin, being used to aid in the financing of the celebration. The coin is usually 50-cent piece, and it is usually placed on sale by the organization at the price of $1.00. In the case of the Stone Mountain memorial coin, an effort is being made to sell the pieces at the highest possible price. W. W. Fuller, a wealthy North Carolinian, bought the first one to be sent to that state for $1,000, and the plan is to dispose of at least one in each southern state at that price.

The souvenir coins eventually get into circulation at their face value, as in the case of the Columbian half dollar, commemorating the discovery of America, coined for the world's fair in Chicago in 1893. Gradually they disappear from circulation, finding place in the collections of coin fanciers throughout the country. —Spartanburg Sun.

Means and Felder Convicted

New York, Jan. 30.—Gaston B. Means, one time confidential agent of the Department of Justice under Director William J. Burns, was fined $10,000 and sentenced to two years in the federal prison at Atlanta today when a jury found him guilty of having conspired to obstruct justice.

Thomas B. Felder, Means' former attorney and co-defendant on the conspiracy charge, was fined $10,000 but got no prison term. Both men were granted permission to apply for writs of error, automatically staying execution of their sentence.

Sentence was imposed by Judge Lindley on a sealed verdict returned by a judge-picked jury after five hours' deliberation last night. The sealed verdict declared the defendants guilty on all counts. Mercy was recommended for Felder, but no recommendation was made in the case of Means.

Got a Covey at One Time

Jim Jefferson, who lives on the place of Mr. W. B. Burckhalter, near North Augusta, went on a rampage last Friday, and shot up a number of colored people. Deputies Robinson and Sheppard were called to the scene and they found that Jake Smith was well peppered with shot, Robert Henderson, shot in the arm and Georgia Moss, shot in the side. It seems that Jefferson was jealous over the attention paid to Georgia by the other colored men, and Jefferson found them all together, and opened fire with his shot gun and got the whole bunch with one shot. All concerned were colored. Number six shot were used, and no one was particularly injured. Jefferson was arrested and lodged in jail.—Aiken Journal.

The maximum penalty for the offense is two years imprisonment or $10,000 fine or both.
