The Civic League Reception. One of the most delightful social affairs of the season was the reception Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Carrison, Sr., when the Civic League was hostess to the different organizations of the welcomed by Mrs. William Ancrum/ den, the popular president of the league, and Mrs. H. G. Carrison, Jr. The table, lovely in its setting of gleaming silver and rare old china, was Miss Leita Shannon and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. W. J. Mayfield and Misses Lillian and Ethel Yates, Mrs. Leon Schlosburg honored the company with an attractive musical program.

Shannon-Lindsay Cards. Mrs. William McWillie Shannon has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Agnes Nelson, to Mr. John Nettles Lindsay, on Tuesday, November twenty-fourth, at half after eight o'clock in the evening, Grace Episcopal Church, Camden, South Carolina. Miss Shannon is a pretty and popular member of Camden's younger society set. She was educated at St. Mary's College and Converse College. "MY GIRL" PLAYS DARLINGTON

One of Two Towns in State To Show Outstanding Musical Comedy

Not in years has the announcement so much interest as the one of "My shop at Mrs. Whitaker's residence at Girl" which comes to the Liberty 1314 Fair street-corner of Fair and Theatre, Darlington, on Friday night, Laurens streets, and it will be known November 13. Darlington is one of as "The Corner Shop." Pitts and "Irene." The critics were unanimous in their praise of the latest work of Harlan Thompson and Harry Archer. In offering "My Girl" Messrs, Archer and Thompson have given the theatre a musical comedy that possesses not only music and comedy but speed and the library on Saturday, afternoon grace, and Nicolai, Welch and DeMilt from three to five o'clock and every have spared no expense to present the afternoon next week. After that play here in the same elaborate manner that made it such a prodigious success in New York. It is very doubtful if there has ever been seen on a local stage a chorus to excel the one that is with "My Girl," as each girl was chosen for her individuality and in addition to being comely and shapely must possess talent and rare dancing ability.

To the lovers of good clean entertainment there is a rare treat in store in "My Girl" for there are five hundred laughs and not a blush in the two hours and a half of rollicking amusement. "My Girl" is honestly a musical comedy worth while. There is much interest in the coming engagement and the advance sale of sants will be very large so those desiring to secure choice seats are advised to send in their orders by mail.

Meeting of John D. Kennedy Chapter

The John D. Kennedy Chapter U. D. C., was delightfully entertained on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs George Rhame, with Mrs. C. M. Coleman, as assistant hostess.

The rooms were bright and cheerful November 15th, and no doubt will en- and a large attendance bespoke the interest of the members in this organization. The Chapter President, Mrs. N. R. Goodale, being out of town, Miss Leila Shannon presided, opening the meeting by having the Chapter repeat the Lord's prayer in unison. Mrs. Leslie Zemp filled the place as secretary, reading minutes of the last meeting, which were adopted.

The Chapter received the news of the resignation of Mrs. Edward Sill, as Chapter Treasurer, with deepest regret. Mrs. Sill has served as treasurer for many years and the Chapter in appreciation of her faithful and efficient service, gave her a rising vote of thanks. No election was held for a new treasurer, the matter being left for the next meeting.

As this was the meeting to elect delegates to the State Convention, Mrs. W. F. Nettles and Mrs. N. C. Arnett were asked to prepare a ballot for delegates and alternates. The following names were suggested and accepted by the Chapter:

Delegates-Miss Lou Nettles, Mrs. Leslie Zemp, Mrs. Edwin Muller, Mrs.

Alternates-Mrs. John Mackey, Mrs. A. S. White, Miss M. E. Gerald; Mrs. J. B. Wallace.

The President goes by right of office. This Convention will meet in Spartanburg the first week in Decem-

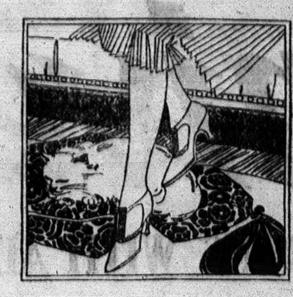

The question was brought before the Chapter in regard to inviting the State Convention to meet in Camden in December of next year, and a unanismous vote was taken that our Chapter should act as hostess to the State ! Convention delegates at that time.

No report was made of the sale of the Stone Mountain Memorial Coins, as several matters of interest in connection with the sale of these coins will have to be decided at the State Convention, after which the sale will go forward with renewed interest.

The Chapter Historian being unavoidably absent from the meeting, no program was planned. However, by request, Mrs. N. C. Arnett gave a recitation and Mrs. Edwin Muller light housekeeping. Apply 1214 gave several musical numbers, which Fair street, Camden, S. C. 32-34-pd added pleasantly to the social hour.

The names of Mesdames John Smith, M. M. Reasonover, and A. A. Reasonover were proposed and accepted for membership in the Chapter and the Registrar, Mrs. W. F. Nettles, was asked to forward application blanks to them.

There were many and sincere expressions of regret and sorrow in regard to the accident that recently befell the much loved and popular exHEADQUARTERS FOR DURABLE-DURHAM HOSIERY
