POSTMASTER'S EXAMINATION

To Fill Vacancy in Camden Office at Salary of $2,700 Per Year

To fill the vacancy in the position of postmaster in Camden, the United States Civil Service Commission has announced, at the request of the postmaster-general and in accordance with an order of the president, an open competitive examination.

To be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must reside within the delivery of this post office, must have so resided for at least two years next preceding the examination date, must be in good physical condition, and within the prescribed age limits. Both men and women are admitted.

Under the terms of the executive order, the Civil Service Commission will certify to the postmaster-general the names of the highest three qualfied eligibles, if as many as three are qualified, and the postmastergeneral will select one for nomination by the president. Confirmation by the tenate is the final action.

Applicants will not be required to assemble in an examination room for scholastic tests, but will be rated on their education and business training and experience. The Civil Service Commission will make inquiry among representative local business and professional men and women concerning the experience, ability, and character of each applicant, and will assign rat ags upon the evider e secured.

CAMDEN FLAYS UNION

The Camden Buildogs closed one of its most successful seasons here Wednesday afternoon by defeating Union high school in a one-sided game of ball by the score of 94 to 7. Many of the Old Gold and Black warriors ended their high school gridiron career with a brilliant game. Union had a light but fighting aggregation and the brilliant effort of the whole Union team to stop the onrush of
