Steedman-Taft Wedding Cards.
Mrs. Harriet Shannon Steedman has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Joyce, to Dr. Robert Burbridge Taft, Wednesday evening, October the sixth, at half after eight o'clock, Grace church, Camden South Carolina. This marriage will be of especial interest throughout South Carolina, as the contracting parties are well known and widely connected. Miss Steedman has all the dignity and charm of an old-fashioned girl combined with modern attractions and Camden is especially proud of her vocational achievements. Dr. Taft is a prominent young physician of Charleston.

Kirkwood Book Club Met.
Mrs. E. D. Blakeney was hostess to the Kirkwood Book Club on Thursday morning for its reassembling meeting after the summer adjournment. The new officers for the incoming year are: President Mrs. W. R. DeLoache; Secretary and treasurer, Mrs. R. M. Kennedy, Jr. The book committee is composed of Mrs. W. R. DeLoache, Mrs. John Lindsay and Mrs. James Burns. New books were discussed and plans and program arranged for the coming season. The hostess served tempting refreshments.

Brides-Elect Honored.
Among the many charming pre-nuptial parties honoring a popular pair of brides-to-be, Misses Elizabeth Workman and Joyce Steedman, was the one Saturday afternoon when Mrs. F. W. Lachicotte of Charlotte entertained at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Y. Steedman. Tables for bridge were arranged in a lovely setting of garden flowers, bright, sunny yellow predominating in the color scheme. Mrs. Jack Whitaker won the score prize and Miss Brook Jones of Virginia, cut the consolation. Each honor guest was presented with a bungalow apron and a surprise shower of good eats for the pantry followed. After the shower had subsided a salad course with accessories was served.

Services at Presbyterian Church
There will be services at Bethesda Presbyterian church on Sunday, September 26, at 11:15 a. m., sermon by Rev. C. D. Brearly, of St. Matthews. After services there will be an important congregational meeting.

Brought Us Fine Watermelon.
The Chronicle force is indebted to Mr. G. G. Goff, who resides on the Lockhart road, for one of the finest watermelons of the season. The force heartily enjoyed the treat.

WORKMAN-ZEMP.

Pretty Church Wedding Solemnized Wednesday Evening.

Of marked beauty and unusual interest was the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Brisbane Workman and Charles Herbert Zemp, solemnized at eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church in this city. Beauty and simplicity were emphasized in the decorations of white and green. The altar was banked in ferns and palms amid which innumerable candles twinkled.

Mrs. F. N. McCorkle presided at the organ and while the guests were assembling Mr. Bennie DeLoache sang, "Oh, Perfect Love" and "At Dawning." The bridal party entered to the strains of the time honored wedding march, rendered by Mrs. McCorkle. The groomsmen were: Messrs. Pete Mackey, Julian Shanklin, Charles E. DeLoache and Brevard Boykin. The bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Steedman in green spangled georgette; her flowers were white asters; Miss Virginia Clark, in green, georgette and carrying white asters; Miss Betty Haile in orchid georgette with her bouquet of purple asters; Miss Helen Boykin in lavender georgette with asters of a matching shade.

Mrs. Francis Lachicotte, of Charlotte, mother of the groom was dame of honor and Miss Martha Workman, sister of the bride was maid of honor. They were each gowned in rose georgette and each carried pink asters of delicate shell pink.

The flower girls, Betty and Anne Whitaker, were adorable in dainty pink frocks with garnishings of baby blue. They carried baskets of roses and scattered petals in the path of the bride. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Gatewood Workman, who gave her in marriage. She was indeed a picture of youth and beauty in her lovely bridal dress of white satin, tulle and chenelle, the train of hand-made imported lace fell from the shoulders and her tulle veil from a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. James DeLoache, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Workman, of Mayesville, uncle of the bride.

A large reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Workman White. The rooms were brilliantly lighted, wreathed in smilax and flower filled. The receiving line was composed of the entire bridal party and the hostess, Mrs. R. W. White, who wore a becoming gown of gray georgette.

In the dining room the table was lace-covered and was adorned with burning white tapers in silver candle sticks and centered with a basket of white lilies and feathery green ferns. The punch bowls were presided over by Misses Faith deLoach, Louis Lang, Mollie Blackwell, Dotty Zemp and Gertrude Zemp.

In the gift room upstairs many beautiful, handsome and useful presents were displayed. Mr. and Mrs. Zemp left by auto for a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Bessemer City, North Carolina.

The following were the out-of-town guests for the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Boykin, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. John Barnwell and family, Spartanburg; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell, Rock Hill; Dr. and Mrs. Forest Workman, Sumter; Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Workman, Mayesville; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jennings, Winnsboro; Gov.-elect and Mrs. John G. Richards, Liberty Hill; Mrs. Morgan Sauls, Liberty Hill; Miss John G. Richards, Liberty Hill; Miss Annie S. Workman, Commerce, Texas; Miss Virginia Clarke, Orangeburg; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lachicotte, Master Billy Lachicotte, Charlotte; Misses Isabelle Dunlap, Mr. W. B. Dunlap, Rock Hill; Misses Katherine Morgan, Elizabeth Clarke, Martha Workman, Winthrop College; Mrs. Henry Stroecker, Charleston; Mr. Julia Shanklin, Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Blakeney, Charlotte; Miss Ketchins, Winnsboro.

Hunter-Campbell.

Of much interest to their many friends in Camden and throughout this section is the wedding announcement of Miss Alice May Hunter and Mr. Donald A. Campbell. In Grace Episcopal church and in the presence of relatives and a limited number of friends the ceremony was performed by the rector the Rev. I. del. Brayshaw, last Sunday evening at seven o'clock. Mrs. Campbell, for several years a resident of York county, has attracted many friends during her visits to Camden, and in which city she will receive a warm welcome as the bride of Mr. Campbell.

TOMLINSON-CLYBURN.

Former Camden Man Weds Fayetteville, N. C., Lady.

The following is taken from the Fayetteville, N. C., Observer, of September 16:

A wedding of much social prominence throughout the state was solemnized last evening at the First Presbyterian church when Miss Eleanor Tomlinson, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis K. Tomlinson, was wed to Mr. James W. Clyburn, lieutenant in the United States army. The Rev. F. Campbell Symonds, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The vows were spoken before an altar massed with palms, ferns and Calla lilies, and the candleabra in the center and on both sides formed a lovely background for the impressive military ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered. Mrs. E. H. Lambert at the organ played a march by Gounod and "Reverie" by Schubert. Mrs. F. L. Vinson accompanied by Mrs. Mabelle New Williams on the violin sang "For You Alone." This was followed by another beautiful solo by Miss Lucy Cooper, who sang "At Dawning."

As "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" was played two soldiers entered bearing the American flag and the regimental standard.

The groomsmen and ushers entered by twos crossing in front of the altar and forming rows on both sides.

The groomsmen were Lieut. E. V. Holmes, Lieut. J. F. Powell, Lieut. L. A. Roberts, P. H. Ringsdorf, and Lieut. W. A. Metts. The ushers were Mr. Charles Lambeth, Mr. Walker Lambeth, and Mr. Addison Lambeth of Charlotte, and Mr. Egbert Smith of Goldsboro.

The bridesmaids, Miss Wilhelmina Huske and Miss Rachel Tomlinson, were beautifully gowned in pale gold chiffon dresses and carried arm bouquets of yellow roses tied with orange tulle.

Miss Emily Moye, of Greenville, N. C., who acted as maid of honor, wore an exquisite dress which was a combination of two shades of yellow chiffon. Miss Moye also carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. Francis K. Tomlinson, who gave her in marriage. She was beautiful in an old-fashioned wedding gown of cream satin with the yoke and sleeves of Princess Anne lace. At her waist was a cluster of orange blossoms. Her veil of tulle, which was caught at intervals with orange blossoms, was held in place by a coronet of lace bordered with pearls. The bride carried a lovely shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

Lieut. B. A. Trousdale acted as best man to the groom.

During the ceremony Mrs. Lambert played "To a Wild Rose."

As Mendelssohn's recessional was played the groomsmen formed an arch with their sabres for the wedding party to pass under.

A brilliant reception was given in the ballroom of the Prince Charles hotel immediately following the ceremony. The guests were met at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Huggins. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Tomlinson, Lieut. and Mrs. J. W. Clyburn, Miss Emily Moye, and Lieut. B. A. Trousdale, Miss Wilhelmina Huske and Mr. Egbert Smith, Miss Rachel Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clyburn, Miss Minnie Clyburn and Miss Mary Clyburn of Camden, S. C., Mrs. W. R. Hollowell of Raleigh, Mrs. Estelle Smith of Goldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Addison Lambeth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lambeth and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Abbott of Charlotte.

Mrs. William Morgan, Sr., and Miss Kate Gaster invited the guests to the table where ice cream and cake were served. The table decorations were beautifully arranged to correspond with the decorations of the ball room which were yellow and green. The center piece was a large bride's cake around which were yellow roses. The candlesticks with white tapers were wrapped with yellow tulle.

Those serving cream and cake were Miss Mary Evans, Miss Lucy Cooper, Miss Mary Cooper, Miss May Catherine Huske, Miss Susan Rose, Miss Peggy Rankin, Miss Eloise Snyder, Miss Winship Stegman, and Miss Sarah Shaw.

Lieut. and Mrs. W. A. Metts and Mrs. J. F. Powell served punch.

The groom is a graduate of the West Point class of 1924 and for the past two years has been stationed at Fort Bragg. He is originally from Camden, S. C.

The bride is the beautiful and at-

At Last--- A Perfect Sanitary Napkin 'GAUZETS'

GAUZETS are a perfect embodiment of the essentials and refinements in a sanitary napkin. The United Drug Company developed GAUZETS after several years of research and experiments, the object of which was to secure to the users both comfort and health.

GAUZETS are constructed from cellulose tissue and antiseptic gauze of the high standard required by hospitals. Being highly absorbent, GAUZETS are made without rubber. They have buffed edges, which prevent chafing.

These napkins are thoroughly hygienic. Being light and cool, they are worn with entire comfort. They are easily adjusted and conveniently changed.

In these days of light, simplified garments for women, GAUZETS are so immaculate and so satisfying an improvement upon all other methods as to be indispensable.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

WHERE IT'S COOL.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24.

"Blarney"—Featuring Renee, Adoree and Ralph Graves, in a picture of action. The Epic of the prize ring set in the bad old 80's of New York, when bare fists were in style. Take a tip and don't miss this one.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25.

Fred Thompson in "Hands Across the Border." Thompson will thrill you in this western picture. Don't miss it. Also fourth chapter of "Casey of the Coast Guard" and a two-reel comedy, "Along Came Auntie." Special Children's Matinee Saturday Morning at 10 o'clock. Admission 10 cents.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 27.

"You'd Be Surprised."—You will be surprised when you see Raymond Griffith in this side-splitting comedy. It's a rattling good comedy-mystery woven around the unraveling of a murder by the coroner who is trying to avoid missing a theatrical performance. Also Pathe News.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28.

"The Clash of the Wolves."—Featuring that wonder dog Rin Tin Tin in one of the most thrilling pictures that any dog has appeared in. It is even a better picture than the "Night Cry" which this same dog featured.
Also Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29.

"Rolling Home."—Featuring Reginald Denny who turned water into gold by the magic of his smile in his newest and merriest melange of mirth. A gorgeous American comedy of a go-getter who ran a hard time dime and a waterfall into a fortune overnight while the girl of his heart looked on. It's a real joy-maker if there ever was one.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30.

"Mare Nostrum."—Look what a cast Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno in Rex Ingram's greatest picture since "The Four Horsemen." The fame of "Mare Nostrum" is already a nation-wide fact established by the marvelous record set at the Criterion Theatre, New York during its long extended run at $2.00 admission. It's one of the most exciting pictures ever made. It's crowded with romance and action. No increase in admission.
