

SOCIETY NEWS

By Mrs. Frances M. B. Wooten
Telephone No. 133-W

Mrs. Kirkland Was Hostess
Mrs. Lawrence A. Kirkland was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Wednesday morning entertaining for friends from Winnboro, who were her guests for the day.

Gave Egg Hunt For Little Miss
Mrs. Julia Long Knapp gave a lovely Easter party honoring little Miss Mattie Duan, of New York, who has been her guest during the winter. Games were played and a hunt for eggs under the trees was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served the late afternoon.

Miss Shannon Was Hostess
Miss Charlotte Shannon was hostess at the Wednesday morning bridge club this week. Guests for the morning besides club members were, Mrs. Frank M. Wooten, Miss Elizabeth Farrelly and Mrs. Warren H. Harris. A delicious luncheon was served at noon.

Praises Sumter Flower Show.
Mrs. J. W. Cantey drove over yesterday from Camden with several ladies, who are interested in forming a Garden club in Camden, and all expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the exhibits, considering the Sumter Garden Club Flower show as one as any they have seen lately.—Tuesday's Sumter Item.

Mrs. Hay Entertains Club
The Thursday afternoon bridge club was charmingly entertained last week by Mrs. W. O. Hay on Fair street. Guests for the afternoon included Miss Mary Anderson, of New York; Miss Grace Stanley, of Richmond; Mrs. A. S. Llewellyn, Mrs. F. M. Wooten, Mrs. Henry Beard and Mrs. Hughey Tindal. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Tindal. After the game a delicious salad and sweet course was served.

Auxiliary To Meet Today.
The American Legion Auxiliary will meet today, May 2nd, at the home of Mrs. A. S. Karsch on Laurens street. The hostess will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Herman Baruch. The hour of meeting has been set for 4 o'clock.

Garden Club Had Meeting
The Camden Garden Club held a called meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Dunn on DeKalb street. Mrs. Harley Lindsay, of New York, who has been spending the winter here, was guest of the club and made many helpful suggestions for the organization.

Mr. Kirkland Host to Club
The Kosmos Club was delightfully entertained on Saturday evening by the Hon. T. J. Kirkland at his residence on Lyttleton street. The club members heard a most interesting paper on "Waterpower for Local Development." The paper was read by John J. McMahan, of Columbia. After business was over refreshments were served by Mrs. Kirkland. Those present were: Prof. Henry C. Davis, president of the club; Prof. Oscar Keith, of Columbia, secretary; D. M. Douglas, president of the University of South Carolina; Prof. Spencer Currell; Ex-Gov. D. C. Heyward, W. E. Gonzales, Prof. Patterson Wardlaw, Prof. E. C. Carson, Prof. F. W. Bradley, Prof. J. Ryan McKissick, Prof. McDavid Horton, C. C. Wilson, L. T. Baker, Dean of the University, R. M. Kennedy, Prof. George McCutcheon, Prof. E. L. Green, T. H. McMaster, Prof. J. Nelson Frierson. Guest for the evening was Mr. Laurens T. Mills.

Announce Engagement
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. DePass, of Camden, announce the engagement of their daughter, Polly, to Robert Moffatt Stephenson, of Covington, Ga., the wedding to take place in the late summer. Miss DePass is a brunette of unusual beauty. She is a graduate of Winthrop, class of 1927 and for the past three years has taught school in Pelzer. Mr. Stephenson is a graduate of Davidson and is now a member in the graduating class of business administration of Harvard from which he will be graduated in June.

On Visit After Long While
Mr. Joseph V. Dunlap, a former citizen of Camden, but now a prominent citizen of Atlanta, was the guest of his boyhood friend, Mr. L. A. Wittkowsky, Tuesday. Mr. Dunlap is a son of the late J. D. Dunlap, one time prominent lawyer of Camden. His parents occupied the old Lafayette Hall, where the Kershaw county court house now stands. It is his first visit back to Camden in thirty-five years. He returned to Atlanta by way of Chester, where he made a visit to his kinsman, Mr. T. S. Leitner, also a former resident of Camden.

Camden Aviator in Sumter.
Aviator N. N. Prentiss, of Camden, who was in Sumter Sunday and did a fine business taking up passengers during the afternoon, this morning telephoned Chairman R. L. McLeod of the Sumter Airport Committee, asking that a meeting of that committee be held Friday morning to discuss plans whereby he might make Sumter the base for his flying movements. The meeting of the committee has been called, but no definite plans have been formulated and it is not yet known whether anything will come of the meeting.—Tuesday's Sumter Item.

Personal Mention

Mrs. James Gandy has gone to Atlanta, Ga., for a visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Tucker left on Wednesday for their home in New York.
Mrs. Mary Grobusky, of Spartanburg, spent Thursday in Camden with friends.
Mrs. M. F. Charlton left Tuesday for Proctorsville, Vt., to spend the summer.
Mrs. E. E. Sill has gone to Montreat, N. C., where she will spend the summer.

Miss Maxine Sterne, of Oxford, N. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Evans.
Mrs. J. B. Kelly, of Bishopville, was the guest of Mrs. Carrie Davis on Tuesday.
Mrs. Susie Kozma, of Fayetteville, N. C., is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Sheheen.
Mrs. G. R. Cook and son, John Cook, will leave on Monday for their home in Trenton, N. J.

Mrs. D. O. Houser is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. O. F. Smith in Scotland Neck, N. C.
Mrs. Stephen Farrelly and grandson and Miss Elizabeth Farrelly, expect to leave for their home in Rye, N. Y., today.
Mrs. C. B. LaFitte has returned home after a delightful visit to her son, Mr. F. A. LaFitte, in Ridge Springs, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hammer and family left Wednesday for their home in Great Barrington, after spending the winter here.
Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Cobb and daughter have returned to Paw Creek after a visit to Mrs. Cobb's mother, Mrs. Loma Ledford.
Miss Elizabeth Blackwell, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Willis Cantey, will leave for Old Orchard, Va., on next Monday.
Mrs. Richard M. Boykin and Miss Mary Morrison Boykin, of Seattle, Washington, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Boykin.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bush, who have been spending the winter here in their home on Green street, left the past week for their home in Boston.
Mrs. Edwin DuBose had as her guests last week Mr. and Mrs. Allison DuBose and family, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Sumter.
Mrs. B. M. Marshall had as her guests last week end the following from Paw Creek, N. C.: Misses Georgia Gibson, Lottie Torrence and Stella Hall.
Mr. F. E. Coursen, Miss Ella Coursen and Miss Grace Keller, winter residents of Camden each year have returned to their home in Stockbridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Stone and family, who have been occupying their home on Lyttleton street the past four months, returned to Brookline, Mass., this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Hovey and family, who occupied the Lamoy cottage on Laurens street the past winter season, left Tuesday for their home in Lakeville, Conn.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cunningham left this week for Atlantic City to spend several weeks before going to Great Barrington, where they will be located the coming summer.

The friends of Mr. Clifton McKain will be pleased to learn that he has been made assistant manager of the J. C. Penney Company at Petersburg, Va. He left on April 25 for his new position.
Mrs. Sam Wellborn, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. V. W. Clarke on Fair street left Wednesday for Atlanta to spend several days before returning to her home in New Orleans.
Friends of Mr. B. P. DeLoache, Jr., who is a student of voice in Philadelphia will be interested to learn that he sang at two performances in New York with the Philadelphia Orchestra at the Metropolitan Opera House in April.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pomeroy left on Tuesday for Buffalo, after a winter spent here in their beautiful home on Kirkwood Heights. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. R. B. Deans and children. Mrs. Deans was recently badly hurt by being thrown from her horse but is gradually improving. The return trip home was made in a special train over the Seaboard Air Line Railway.
The Hobkirk Inn, one of Camden's delightful tourist hotels closed for the season on Wednesday. The beautiful spring weather has attracted many of the tourist colony to remain over after Easter. Among those leaving for the North this week are: Mrs. H. G. Marvin, Mrs. Harry Clawson, Mrs. Frank G. Hoynes, Mrs. Charles E. Davis and family, Mr. Louis Sledge, Miss Carolyn Bushnell, Mrs. T. E. Krumbholz and Miss Clara Krumbholz, all of New York.

Bride-Elect Honor Guest
The home of Mrs. W. L. DePass, Jr., was the scene of a delightful affair on last Saturday afternoon when she entertained with an announcement party for Miss Polly DePass, whose marriage to Robert Moffatt Stephenson, of Covington, Ga., in the late summer will be one of social interest throughout the state. Six tables were arranged in the living room where the guests were entertained. As the wedding march was played little Miss Lena McArthur Smith, of Clover, and Master Scottowe W. DePass, dressed as bride and groom entered the room announcing the wedding day. This little bride was lovely in a silk dress and wore a French drape of real lace and veil and carried a miniature corsage of valley lilies.
Bride was then played and the high score for the afternoon was made by Miss Hallie Carson and the low prize went to Mrs. A. D. McArn. The bride-elect was also remembered with a lovely-trousseau present.
Out-of-town guests included: Miss Louise Linner, of Anderson; Miss Nell James, of Greer; Miss Dolores Todd, of Piedmont; Miss Elizabeth Buchanan, of Darlington; Mrs. Hubert Smith, of Clover; Miss Lillian Brown, of Belton.

After the game the hostess served a delicious salad course followed by sweets.

Ridge District U.D.C. Met Here Last Week.

The John D. Kennedy Chapter, U. D. C., entertained the Ridge District conference Thursday, April 24th, the meetings being held in the American Legion hall. The meeting was called to order by the president of the local chapter, Mrs. S. C. Zemp. Rev. G. P. Watson made the opening prayer. The chapter hymn, "How Firm a Foundation" was sung followed by the ritual prayer and Lord's prayer in unison.
The address of welcome in behalf of the local chapter was made by Mrs. N. R. Goodale, which was responded to by Mrs. Fred Culvern, of Kershaw.
Mrs. Lamar Davis and Miss Loree Truesdale gave a piano and violin duet which was a musical treat for all present.

The presentation of officers of the division and district was next in order, Mrs. Zemp introducing Mrs. Landon, who in turn introduced the officers of the division. Mrs. John Cureton, youngest daughter of Gen. John D. Kennedy, for whom the local chapter is named; Mrs. W. B. deLoach, daughter of Gen. J. B. Kershaw and the Women of the Sixties were also introduced.
Camden's popular new Mayor, R. M. Kennedy, Jr., extended a cordial welcome to the visitors to Camden, "The City Beautiful," and Mrs. Hughey Tindal extended a cordial welcome in behalf of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Following the greetings, that soul stirring song, "Dixie," was rendered by the entire assembly.
Reports were received from the director and vice director, followed by a musical entertainment by the High School Glee Club, which reflected credit upon them and their teachers.
Mrs. J. Frost Walker, S. C. Division President, made a splendid address, giving much information on subjects relative to the work to be done by the chapters.

Miss Marion Salley, national state Historian, was next presented. She stressed the use of old southern songs in schools, also writing of historical essays, and urged the chapters to use their influence in keeping the song, "Dixie," from being commercialized.
The credentials committee reported fifty-seven delegates and forty-eight visitors present, one general officer, six state officers.

A reading by Miss Lenora Rhame, "Lee, the Unconquered," was rendered with fine effect, after which dinner was announced. All members and visitors were escorted to the Masonic hall, where a delightful luncheon was served. The Confederate veterans, though few in number now, were included as guests at the dinner. Only six of them were able to attend. There are now less than a score of these old heroes in our county.
After lunch the reading of the

Latest Styles in Spirited BATHING COSTUMES
At Great Savings

Extremely comfortable and attractive Bathing Suits made of the best material at a real saving in price. Many fascinating color combinations in the new styles. in Rugby Bathing Apparel.

$1.95 to $8.00

W. SHEORN & SON

minutes, roll call and reports were had, which showed that twenty chapters were represented after which five-minute talks were made by the following: Mrs. A. B. Glascock, of the Jefferson Davis Foundation; Mrs. Oscar Culp, on Matthew Fontaine scholarship; Mrs. R. M. Bratton on Confederate Home; and Mrs. M. W. Doty on official marker.
Resolutions of thanks were offered by Mrs. Annie Lee Adams and enthusiastically adopted.
York was selected as the place for the next meeting of the conference.
Mrs. John Cureton, of Chester, was elected director for the succeeding term and Miss Leila Shannon, of Camden, vice-director, after which the meeting adjourned.

Demonstration On Friday
For every lady attending the Kelvinator demonstration, which will be put on Friday, May 2nd, at 3:30 and 8:30 p. m., by a Kelvinator Electric Refrigerator expert, at The Dixie Radio, Inc., in the building formerly occupied by the Camden Clothing Company at 1013 Broad street, the Dixie Radio, Inc., will contribute ten cents each towards any church circle in Camden. Each lady will designate the circle she desires this amount to go to. Refreshments will be served free at both demonstrations. Any lady in Camden is invited to attend, whether she is a member of a circle or not. Remember, some church circle will get ten cents for every lady attending.

Trim and smart, this Sennit straw (above). The snap brim, patent Milan (left) is soft in weave. Each hat only $1.98

Genuine Panama, Optimo model, with narrow band. $3.98

Style and value combine happily in this genuine Leghorn. $2.98

Try on a SOLAR STRAW

—and see for yourself why more men wear this hat than any other brand!

Extreme care has been taken in the fashioning of these hats—they're not merely manufactured. You'll like the feel as well as the look of them! They have that "something" all men seek in headwear... it's hard to define, but easy to find in every SOLAR straw. Inside, as well as out, SOLAR stylists make strict demands. Materials and workmanship must never swerve from a superior standard... all this, because SOLAR straw wearers must know they are smartly dressed.

Sold exclusively by
J. C. PENNEY CO. INC.
1014 BROAD STREET CAMDEN, S. C.
LET US BE YOUR HATTER

FOR YOUR PROTECTION ALWAYS

Have your winter garments cleaned before storing them away as a precaution against the ravages of moths. As an added protection to your garments, we give Sanatex-Cedarized moth-proof bags free.

LADIE'S PLAIN COAT $1.00

LADIE'S FUR TRIMMED COAT $1.25

LADIE'S PLAIN DRESS $1.00

GENTLEMAN'S OVERCOAT $1.00

GENTLEMAN'S SUIT $1.00

Thoroughly cleaned and reshaped and sealed in moth-proof bags for your safety.

We Specialize on Washing Rag Rugs, Quilts, Blankets
CAMDEN DRY CLEANERY :- CITY LAUNDRY
TELEPHONE 17
We Solicit Your Patronage