BOXING BOUT

The Armory Building

MONDAY NIGHT, APRIL 4

"Wildcat" Reddish vs. Jack Cunningham
10 ROUNDS 10

"Wild Cat" Willie Reddish, the South Carolina colored boxing wonder, who has been boxing three years, has lost but one bout—one questionable—with Jack Cunningham, of Thomasville, N. C., will meet in Camden April 4th, in a ten round bout to decide the winner of the championship of the state. Reddish's next fight is booked for Newark, N. J., in May. J. C. Harrison, his manager, says his boy is ready for the milling.

Recital Date Changed

Announcement comes from Winthrop College that the graduating recital to have been given on March 21 has been postponed until Monday, April 4th, at seven o'clock. At this hour Miss Virginia Hamilton Haile, of this city, will play several numbers. Miss Haile will graduate in June from Winthrop, where she has been studying the past four years.

Class Visits Oil Mill

On Monday of the past week Miss Gertrude Strother, teacher of chemistry in the Camden city schools, took her pupils on a tour of inspection of the Camden Oil Mill. They were conducted over the plant by Mr. J. H. Osborne, who in a very interesting manner showed them the different processes through which the cotton seed is put to make the many products derived from it, explaining each step to them. The class and their teacher feel indebted to Mr. Osborne, superintendent of the Southern Cotton Oil Mill, of this city, for the privilege and pleasure of the trip.
