Camden Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. A. Stanley Llewellyn, of Camden, are week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morgan, on the Augusta road. Mr. Llewellyn is past commander of the South Carolina department of the American Legion, and both he and Mrs. Llewellyn are well known in Greenville and section.—Sunday's Greenville News.

Wednesday Club Met
The Wednesday night bridge club met this week at the home of Miss Betty Cureton on Chesnut street. The members of this club are: Misses Pete Boykin, Willie Haile, Caroline Houser, Betty Cureton and Messrs. Edward Wooten, Walter Wooten, Lawson Bateman and Charlie DeLoache. After cards the hostess served delicious punch and sandwiches.

"Parade of the States"
On Monday night, April 11, from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, over a coast to coast network the National Broadcasting system will present "The Parade of the States," and on that night will feature a South Carolina program furnished by the General Motors Orchestra. The program is entitled "A Tribute to South Carolina."

Honors Bride-To-Be
On Saturday evening Miss Catherine McCarrell was honor guest at a lovely dinner party given by Miss Margaret Mills. A color scheme of pink and white was used and covers were laid for sixteen. Miss Mills' guests included the following: Misses Catherine McCarrell, Hallie Carson, Helen Savage, Carolyn Heyman, Betty Knapp, Dolly Singleton, Charlotte Boykin, Julia Seabrook; Messrs. Kirkman Finlay, Jr., Alexander Clarkson, Brevard Boykin, Andrew Whitaker, Edwin Guy, Arthur McCarrell, of Columbia, David Blackwell and Laurens Mills. Miss McCarrell's engagement to Kirkman Finlay, Jr., son of Bishop and Mrs. Kirkman Finlay, was announced Easter Sunday. The wedding will take place in June.

Met With Mrs. Boykin
The Friday afternoon bridge club met last week at the home of Mrs. Deas Boykin, at Boykin. Mrs. Nettles Lindsay was the only substitute and also won the high score. A delightful salad course was served by the hostess after bridge.

Mrs. Ambler Entertains
One of the prettiest parties of the week was that given at the home of Mrs. L. R. Ambler on Fair street Monday afternoon. Four tables were placed for bridge in the spacious rooms, which were decorated in lovely garden flowers. Mrs. B. O. Boykin received the first prize, a lovely card table cover; Mrs. F. W. Spencer the second prize, which was two decks of cards. Mrs. Warren Harris received third prize, and was presented with a lovely box of stationery. Mrs. Ida Heath received a most attractive bowl for fourth prize and Mrs. William Shannon cut the consolation, receiving two beautiful linen handkerchiefs. After a most enjoyable evening the hostess served a delicious course of ice cream, cake and coffee.

Hostess To Her Club
Mrs. M. M. Reasonover was hostess to her club Tuesday afternoon. The rooms were decorated in ferns and spring flowers. Mrs. Hubert Wilson won high score and Mrs. L. P. Tobin cut the consolation. A salad course with sandwiches and tea was served by the hostess after cards.

Entertains at Bridge
Mrs. Rhetta Halsall delightfully entertained five tables of bridge at her home on Thursday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in the different spring flowers. Mrs. Floyd Beaver won high score for the ladies and Mr. Dess Goodale for the men, while Mrs. M. M. Reasonover cut the consolation. After a most delightful evening the hostess served a salad course with coffee.

Mrs. McLeod Hostess
Mrs. Alfred McLeod was the charming hostess to the neighborhood bridge club on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Carroll DesChamps was a guest of the club. Mrs. J. L. Williford won high score and Mrs. W. O. Hay cut the consolation. A delicious course was served by the hostess after cards.

Entertains For Guest
Mrs. E. B. Mobley delightfully entertained her guest, Miss Ida Louise Carothers, at two tables of bridge Saturday afternoon. Those enjoying Mrs. Mobley's hospitality were Misses Pete Boykin, Betty Cureton, Susan Kennedy, Kit DeLoache, Thomasia Guthrie, Patsy Pea, Miss Guthrie's guest, and Miss Charlotte Salmund. At the end of an enjoyable evening, the hostess served a delicious course of ice cream and cake. Miss Pete Boykin won high score, Miss Betty Cureton low score and Miss Tommy Guthrie cut the consolation.

Met With Mrs. Smith
The Wednesday afternoon bridge club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. B. M. Smith on North Mill street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and lavender verbinas. The substitutes at the club were Mrs. M. L. Smith, Jr., Mrs. L. L. Clyburn and Mrs. John DeLoach, who won the high score. A delicious course of chicken salad and sandwiches was served by the hostess.

Spinster's Club Entertained
The Spinster's Club was entertained Monday night by Miss Maxine Sterne at the home of Miss Kit DeLoache. An extra table was had for Miss Bee McCarrell, whose wedding will take place in June. Besides the club members the guests were Misses Nancy Dempster, Helen Savage, Hallie Carson, Mrs. Sam Evans and Miss McCarrell. Mrs. Sam Evans won the high score for the guests, while Miss Dolly Singleton won high score for the club. Miss McCarrell was presented with two lovely linen handkerchiefs. A delicious sweet course of cake and coffee was served after cards.

Miss Shannon Hostess
The Wednesday morning bridge club met this week at the home of Miss Charlotte Shannon. The large rooms were beautifully decorated in ferns and spring flowers. Miss Charlotte Campbell, of Washington, D. C., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Marvin, Mrs. Warren Harris, Mrs. Joe Guthrie and Mrs. Perkins, of Florida who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward DuBose, were the guests of the club. Met With Mrs. Chewning
Mrs. R. E. Chewning was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the Sophie Zemp Circle at her home on Lyttleton street. There was a good attendance of members and a profitable program and business session was conducted.

During each devotional period under the direction of Mrs. W. R. DeLoache, the group is studying Fosdick's "Manhood of the Master." The discussion of the afternoon was confined to an article written by Fred Eastman, of Chicago Theological Seminary, entitled "Are Movies Fit For Children?"

The hostess served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

To Put on Special Program
The Deacons' Club of Camden Second Presbyterian church will give a program Sunday, April 10, 1932, at 7:30 p. m., at the above named church on Market street. Special features are the male choir, Browning Home female quartette, solos, duets and readings. James Bates will be the main speaker for the evening.

Visited Dry Cleanery Plant
The members of the physics class of the Camden high school on Monday of the past week accompanied by their teacher, Miss Gertrude Strother, visited the Camden Dry Cleanery and Laundry plant. Mr. W. M. Alexander, proprietor, personally showed them through this modern and sanitary plant explaining in detail all the different processes through which the garments passed in being cleaned. Quite interesting also was the way in which the large electric machines iron the work. After the tour of inspection each member of the class was presented with souvenirs by the manager.

Garden Club Notes
The April meeting of the Camden Garden Club will be held on Monday, April 11, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of Mrs. L. I. Guion, at Lugoff.

Mrs. E. N. McDowell is in charge of transportation. Anyone wishing to offer space in their car please telephone number 294, and if those wanting to be driven to the meeting will call Mrs. McDowell, she will see that they are accommodated.

Those attending the plant exchange at Mrs. Kirkland's on Monday found it the most pleasant possible way of getting new plants for their gardens. It is a pity that more people did not come and take advantage of this delightful way of exchanging courtesies.

It is learned in Columbia that the state sinking fund commission will reimburse school boards of the six schools damaged in upper South Carolina in the recent storm. A narrow belt was cut by the disastrous winds in Greenville, Union, Spartanburg, and Cherokee counties. Malcolm J. Miller, secretary of the commission, said the total amount of damage has not been ascertained but gave as his opinion that it may run to several thousand dollars.
