WEEKS-STONE

Winter Residents of Camden Married in Long Island

One of the outstanding social events of the Long Island colony Saturday was the marriage of Miss Frances L. Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Weeks, of Camden, S. C., to David Balderston Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone, of Brookline, Mass.

About three hundred guests assembled to witness the ceremony which was performed in the First Presbyterian church of East Hampton, L. I., with the Rev. Ernest E. Wells, officiating. The church was profusely decorated with white flowers and green shrubs, cedars and oak leaves.

The bride wore a long sleeved white satin gown with a lace veil falling from a wreath of orange blossoms. The veil belonged to her great grandmother. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Chartreuse and lavender were chosen for the attendants. Mrs. William Beebe, the bride's sister, was maid of honor; Miss Elizabeth Campbell of New York, Miss Mary T. Homans of Englewood, Miss Carol McMurtrie of Denver and Miss Edith Hall of Louisville, were the bridesmaids.

Robert E. Stone, Jr., of Baltimore, served as best man for his brother, Pryor Percival of Boston, James Dunbar and John Sherman of Cleveland, and the bride's brother, John K. Weeks were ushers.

A wedding breakfast was served at the "Lilly Pond Lane", home of Mr. and Mrs. Weeks, which was decorated with yellow, lavender and white flowers. The couple will sail for a wedding trip abroad. Mr. Stone will return to the Boston University Law school next fall. Miss Weeks made her debut in New York, January 7, 1931.

Library Hours Changed

Hours for the summer months at the Camden public library will be from 9 to 1 o'clock each day, beginning Friday, June 24th, announces the librarian, Miss Carolyn Burnett. The librarian is anxious to have books returned and states there will be no penalty added for the delay in returning them. Many of the most popular books are in the homes of the city, and so each one is asked to make a careful search for books belonging to the library and return same at an early date so that others may enjoy them.

Methodist Church Services

Rev. Warren G. Arial announces that there will be morning service at the Lytleton Street Methodist church on Sunday, June 26th, at 11:15. Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all services held in this church.

Enjoying Cool Weather

In a letter to a friend in Camden, written from Denver, Colorado, Mr. Samuel Russell, who makes his home here in the winter, says: "There is lots of snow up in the mountains yet. Last week I was in a blizzard with the thermometer down to 28 degrees, and at an elevation of 11,542 feet above sea level."

Shrine Club Met at Wildwood Manor

On Thursday of last week the Camden Shrine club was entertained at "Wildwood Manor," near Lugoff, owned by Noble Karl T. Rosborough. This, the first outing of the club for the summer, was thoroughly enjoyed by forty-two Nobles and their guests. An entertaining event of the afternoon was a horse shoe pitching contest in which Nobles Robert Storey and Leon Schlosburg won, defeating nine matched teams. Second place was won by Nobles W. F. Nettles and F. D. Goodale. Appropriate prizes were presented the winning teams for their skill in the game.

A delicious fried chicken dinner with trimmings and so forth, prepared by Gus Ward, popular West Water citizen, brought forth many complimentary remarks upon the ever popular Southern dish. After dinner a short business session was held, during which time a motion was made that the club entertain the Shrine clubs of Columbia and Sumter at the July meeting. A committee is to be appointed to name the place and time for same.

Guests of the evening were: Noble James Team, of Lugoff; Noble C. J. Shannon 3rd, of Savannah and S. W. VanLandingham, of the Camden Masonic Bodies.

Fire Destroys Suburban Home

Fire at an early hour Thursday morning completely destroyed the home of J. H. Walker, about a mile and one-half out on the Camden-Bethune highway. The house contained about nine rooms and was valued at around $7500, with partial insurance. A portion of the household goods were saved.

The fire originated near the kitchen at 4:30 in the morning and it is not known what was the cause. No fire protection was near and the house was at the mercy of the flames. Mr. Walker and his wife and five children will move to the L. W. Boykin farm near Boykin, where he owns a part interest in this farm.

Fire Destroys Small House

Fire about 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon destroyed a four-room house at 408 York street. The house was the property of Wash Alexander, of Washington, D. C., and was occupied by Grace James and family. No one was at home when the fire started and it is not known how the flames originated.

To Entertain on Tuesday

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Lytleton street Methodist church will hold a special meeting on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 28th, in the main church auditorium. The members of the society will entertain as guests of honor ladies who are members of the church but who are not enrolled as members of the missionary society. Mrs. B. G. Sanders, president of the local organization, will preside over the meeting and the devotional will be in charge of the Marietta Burns Circle, with Mrs. Warren G. Arial as leader. The Scripture lesson will be conducted by Mrs. N. C. Arnett. The musical program, arranged by Mrs. James Gandy, will include vocal and instrumental selections. The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. M. H. Shephard, of Columbia, whose talk will be interesting and helpful.

A social hour will follow the conclusion of the program. The meeting will begin promptly at 4:30 o'clock.

Entertained For Bride

On Wednesday evening Mrs. G. F. Cooley entertained at her home in honor of Mrs. George Chewing, a recent bride. In the living room garden flowers in all their lovely summer hues were arranged in bowls and vases. Upon arrival the guests were given slips of paper upon which they were requested to write advice to the bride, these upon being read aloud caused much amusement. Little Miss Carolyn Cooley, granddaughter of the hostess then came in wearing a fairy costume and requested the honor guest to go with her into an adjoining room, where Mrs. Chewing found an array of lovely and useful presents awaiting her. During the evening punch and cake were served. The punch bowls were presided over by Mrs. Harold Hatfield and Mrs. Arthur Smith.

The country is being warned by the secret service of the government against the appearance over the country of new counterfeit bills of most extraordinary clever imitations. The bills being circulated are of $5 denomination bearing endorsement of three mid-western banks, First National, St. Louis; First National of Jefferson, Mo., and First National of Toledo, Ohio.
