The salad supper will be at 25c a plate and to get into the cake walk the juniors will pay 5c each and the others 10 cents.

This entertainment is given by the members of Lugoff club to raise funds for some permanent improvements made at Lugoff club house and for the cottage built at the 4-H camp above Camden for the use of all 4-H club boys and girls and members of Kershaw County Council of Farm Women. The public is cordially invited to attend and to take part in the songs and games which will be a part of the evening's entertainment.

Her maternal grandmother is Mrs. Ema Kyle, of Tenaha, Texas, great grandfather, W. F. Walker, of Tenaha, Texas, paternal grandfather, G. H. Lenoir, of Camden, S. C.

Had Entertaining Program

The Camden Garden club held its April meeting Monday afternoon at Grace Church Parish House. Business was dispensed with at this meeting.

Mrs. W. S. Rainsford, chairman of the program committee, presented a most delightful program, which was opened by Mrs. R. W. Pomeroy's interesting and comprehensive report of the meeting of the National Council of Garden Clubs which was held in Miami.

Very interesting were the moving pictures of gardens of England and the Dublin horse show depicted by Mrs. Samuel Russell through pictures taken by her during a recent visit there. As these pictures were being shown Mrs. Russell in a charming manner briefly presented points of interest.

Mr. Barron, of the State Forestry staff showed slides of historic trees of South Carolina and very ably told of the work of the forestry department in our state, stressing the two phases—reforestation and fire-prevention.

Following the talk by Mr. Barron, the garden club members were graciously invited by Mrs. Dacre Bush to visit her lovely garden and tea was served to them on the porch of her home.

Given Surprise Party

Mrs. Edna Clyburn was honoree at a delightful birthday surprise party Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Niles, hostesses being Mrs. C. G. Kornegay and Mrs. Niles. White dogwood and pink honeysuckle furnished simple but very effective decorations for the living and dining rooms, where seven tables of contract were in play. Prizes were presented Mrs. Lee Little and Mrs. G. E. Taylor for high and low scores respectively and Mrs. Alfred McLeod received the consolation. Following the bridge games Mrs. Clyburn was presented an Easter basket which was filled with birthday gifts brought by the guests present. After the packages had been opened the hostesses served a very tempting menu, consisting of ice box cake, whipped cream and fruit punch.

Met With Mrs. Tindal

The members of the Thursday contract club were entertained this week by Mrs. Hughey Tindal. Miss Charlotte Boykin was the only substitute. Prizes for this series of games were awarded Mrs. Dan Murchison for highest score and Mrs. Leonard Schenk for next highest. The hostess served a salad course with coffee after cards.

Club Met Saturday

Miss Katherine Myers was hostess Saturday morning at her home on Laurens street when she entertained the members of her bridge club. The tables were attractively arranged in the sun parlor amid baskets of crab-apple blossoms. Misses Anne Sullivan and Margie DeLoache played for absent club members. A salad course with hot tea and cakes was served after the card games. Miss Ben Mildred Sowell was winner of the high score prize and Miss Anne Sullivan the low prize, while the floating prize was held by Miss Margie DeLoache.

Still Open To The Public.

Miss Eileen Ellerbee, owner of "Millvale," the beautiful home with its handsome old furniture, books and paintings, near Rembert, requests us to state that the home is still open to visitors. All that is asked for inspection of the home is a contribution to the Church of the Ascension at Hagood. Visitors are always welcome.

M. Alexander, Mrs. Louise Rosich, Mrs. Henry Niles, Mrs. Louise Cantey, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Betsill and Mr. Jeff Boyd. Bowls of red roses and white narcissi were used for decorations. BISSELL-BLAKENEY

Charleston Wedding Was of Especial Interest in Camden

The following account of the wedding of Miss Frances Evelyn Bissell and Eugene DuBose Blakeney will be read with especial interest here where both were popular members of Camden's young social set:

A wedding of interest throughout the state was that of Miss Frances Evelyn Bissell, daughter of Mrs. Frances Bissell Wooten, of 105 Tradd Street, and the late William C. Bissell, and Mr. Eugene DuBose Blakeney, Jr., of Camden, which took place Saturday at noon in St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal church, Charleston, with the Rev. Harold Thomas, rector officiating.

The Palm Sunday decorations, already in the church, were lightened by sprays of spirea and other white spring flowers and white candles. The wedding music was played by Mrs. W. Hugh Hard.

Miss Sarah Ann Bissell was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of powder blue crepe with blonde accessories and carried a Colonial bouquet.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. DeLoache Sheorn, Jr., of Camden, as best man, and Messrs. Claude B. Rowe and T. Ladson Webb, Jr., served as ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. William C. Bissell, wore an ensemble of dark blue Crepe Elizabeth, with accessories to match and a corsage of Joanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley. She carried a copy of the marriage vows, bound in white kid with markers of white satin, showered with lilies of the valley and ferns.

The ceremony was followed by a buffet luncheon at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Annie Bissell Hugenin, 35 Tradd Street. The lower floor of the home was decorated with dogwood, peach blossoms and other spring flowers. Baby's breath, snapdragons and white candles were used on the table, at one end of which was the wedding cake which was cut by the bride during the luncheon. About forty-five guests, all relatives of the couple attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeney left later by motor for a wedding trip north. On their return they will be at home in Atlanta, where Mr. Blakeney is connected with the Eastern Air Transport Company.

Mrs. Blakeney was graduated from the Camden High School and attended St. Luke's Hospital Training School for Nurses, Richmond, Va. She was graduated from the school in 1930 and later was associated with the Knickerbocker Hospital in New York.

Mr. Blakeney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene DuBose Blakeney, of Camden. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina and is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. He was graduated in 1929 from Brooks Field, the Army air school at San Antonio, Texas, and is a lieutenant in the Army Air Reserve Corps.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Tupper, of Camden; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spong, of Columbia; Mrs. Frank Wooten, of Camden; Mrs. Daisy P. Towill and Mr. and Mrs. John Bell Towill, of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene DuBose Blakeney, parents of the bride-groom, and Miss Mary Lee Blakeney, of Camden; Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Blakeney, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams, of Great Neck, Long Island, and Mrs. Wiley C. Hull, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala.

Bridge Party To Be Held At St. Mary's

A benefit bridge party is to be held at St. Mary's Hall, on Lytleton street, on Monday, April 17th, at 8:30 p. m. The tickets are only 50 cents and are now on sale.

As this hall has always been freely offered to Camden citizens, of all faiths, who have requested it from Father O'Brien, the pastor of St. Mary's church, it is hoped that many people will reciprocate by taking tickets, as the church urgently needs funds to carry on its work for its members and the entire community. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Woods Robinson and others.

Honored Young Daughter

Mrs. C. C. Whitaker entertained Saturday with a lovely children's party in celebration of the birthday of her daughter, Betty. The children were delightfully entertained with games and contests. Later they were invited into the dining room where a pink and green color scheme was carried out in the decorations. The table was centered with a silver bowl of pink snapdragons and crapple blossoms. Silver bon bon dishes held pink and green mints and tall pink tapers burned in silver candlesticks. Ice cream and little individual cakes in the chosen color motif were served to the thirty-five guests.

Mr. Howard Throver and little son, Billy, Bobbie Bell and Mr. C. M. Graves spent several days in Richmond last week.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Miss Emma Meyer on lower York street Wednesday, April 12. The evening was spent in card games and friendly talk—and especially talking by Farmer W. L. Jackson. A delicious salad course was served. The occasion was the celebration of a "certain birthday" for Miss Emma.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Booker, of New York, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Pomeroy this past week. While here Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy entertained in their honor at a luncheon on Tuesday where many of the northern residents and our local citizens had the pleasure of meeting them.
