

Big Crowds Expected In Camden Next Week

Everything is all set for a successful County Fair next week, October 9 to 14. Bunts, Carnival Shows will be on Monday morning and the Fair will be ready to receive visitors that day. No definite program has been set for Monday and Tuesday, other than midway attractions.

Wednesday ushers in the first big day, with the Merchants and Manufacturers in charge of the program. Five thousand farmers and members of their families are expected to come to Camden that day as guests of the Merchants and Manufacturers and partake in the largest barbecue ever held in the county. The business men of Camden want the farmers to always feel at home in Camden, and they will receive a warm welcome at all times. A committee headed by John W. Wilson will have charge of the barbecue which will be served in the fair grounds. All visitors are cordially urged to stay over for the free midway acts during the afternoon and after first dark a very elaborate fireworks display will take place. This will be worth traveling miles to see and it is hoped that all citizens of the county who cannot attend the barbecue will come in for the fireworks. This magnificent display will take place at the fair grounds also and it is made possible by the generosity of a public-spirited citizen, along with the cooperation of the city and county. The fireworks program is published in another section of the paper. There will be no admission charge to see the fireworks display. By having the program to start after first dark, will enable our country friends to return home at a reasonable hour, regardless of how far they live from Camden. Visitors from nearby towns are expected to attend also. The midway will be in full blast and if our visitor friends care to stay over after the fireworks, there will free acts on the midway following the fireworks display.

Thursday will be Agricultural Day and of course the farmers will visit Camden in large numbers again to see their fine exhibits. Henry Green, agricultural agent and Miss Sadie Craig, demonstration agent, have been busy collecting exhibits from all parts of the county. Another feature that day will be the big political gathering. All candidates for governor have accepted invitations to speak that day from a platform that has been erected in the athletic field. There will of course be no admission charge for this, and you will hear some red hot issues discussed. This feature will attract thousands. That afternoon will be free acts on the midway and again during the night.

The Merchants and Manufacturers have rented a large tent 60x120 and that night at eight will be an "Old Fiddlers' Convention." Everybody likes to hear old fiddlers and the tent will be packed. Fiddlers from all directions will participate.

Friday will be "School Children's Day," and every school child of the county is expected to take part in the mammoth parade that will pass through the business section of Camden at eleven o'clock. Another large crowd will come to Camden to see this big parade, which will be interspersed with beautiful floats. One of the feature floats will be the NRA Floating Fountain, entered by the Merchants and Manufacturers. Proud parents will line the streets to watch their children pass in review. Bands will play snappy marching tunes. The children will continue on to the athletic field of the fair grounds for their exercises. At three-thirty will be a football game between Camden and the fast Brookland-Cayce team. Perhaps the largest crowd ever to see a game in Camden will be on hand to cheer the Bull Dogs, who have kept Camden at the top of the football race for the past ten years.

There will be free acts on the midway both during the afternoon and again at night. At eight at night will be a Fashion Show, which is to be put on by a committee composed of Miss Mary Thompson, Clifton McKain and Elhib Schlosburg. This will take place at the Merchants and Manufacturers tent. Some of Camden's prettiest girls will appear on the stage wearing the latest Fall models of clothes, and during this show, music will be furnished by a band and also by Taylor Brothers, broadcasting orchestra.

The program on Saturday will be turned over to the Negroes of Kershaw county. The Negro school children of the county will parade thru the streets Saturday morning, and they too will go on to the fair grounds for their exercises. That afternoon will be a football game between the colored high school of Camden and the Chester colored high school.

Free acts will take place on the midway both during the afternoon and night.

The Negroes will arrange an attractive program for their day, which will be announced later.

The fair grounds and buildings are now being overhauled in readiness for the Fair. The city and county officials are going to lend a helping hand in every way possible. As usual, the American Legion and Shrine Club will work day and night with the Fair Association, and all is needed is good weather to guarantee the best fair ever held in Camden.

Two attractive exhibits at the Fair will be those of the Forestry Association and the Fish and Game Association.

Kershaw county has taken a lead among all counties of the South in forestry conservation and Charlie Nuite, county forestry agent, will have a fine exhibit.

The Fish and Game Association will have a large booth with live partridges and Canadian geese and mounted fish and game. They want to show the citizens what a paradise we can have if fish and game are protected. All styles of guns and fishing tackle will be displayed also.

The Association has a live membership and have outlined a program that will restock our fields and our streams, and protect game from pot hunters, forest fires and the like.

Samuel Russell will have charge of the Dog Show Thursday, October 12, at 4 p. m., and this will give you a chance to see some of the best dogs in the State. He has an able committee assisting him.

Following the dog show will be the horse and mule show and races that will take place during the show. Mr. Russell will again have charge of this and a strong committee is helping him.

Program of Fireworks

The display of fireworks at the Kershaw County Fair this year will be the largest and most magnificent ever seen here before.

With a crash and bang, twelve nine inch Aerial Flash Salutes will be projected high into the night in salvos of two, where they break into luminous spreads of silver fire and detonations that can be heard for miles around. This announces the display is about to begin. Johnson, Wyndham M. Manning and perhaps Thomas B. Pearce and Burnet R. Maybank will be guests of the Fair and will deliver addresses. A large number of other notables over the state have been invited to be present on this occasion and have expressed their intention of attending.

County Teachers Name Committees

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Kershaw County Teachers Association some definite plans were made for the association. Speakers are now being selected to address the teachers at each general meeting for the entire year. It is the purpose of this committee to secure some of the best people of this state for these meetings. It will be noticed that the committee plans to have a certain number of departmental meetings at which time there will be well planned programs carried out by the presidents of each department. It is hoped that more may be accomplished in one hour by this method than by having a general and a departmental meeting to run two hours.

Plans are now being made to print a small hand book which will carry the programs for the entire year, and a copy of this given to each teacher at the first meeting. If there was ever a time when every teacher of the county should back the teachers association, both county and state, it is now. May we take the following statements as our goal: "Every teacher in Kershaw county a member before first meeting." It can be done.

Midget Football Team is Organized in School

(By Jack Halsall)

The midget football team is for small students of high school that are preparing themselves for the first team the following year. To play on this team they must be passing on three subjects. In other words this is not an ineligible team. The boys on this team are practicing very hard every afternoon, learning new signals and scrimmaging afterwards. They are using the first teams left over equipment from the last two to ten years. Edward Holland was elected captain by a unanimous vote and Marion Smith was elected manager.

L. S. Mayer is very good at forward passing. Edward Holland and Ned Beard are good at receiving passes. Billy Nettles, McKain Richards, Albert Irby, Jack Brown, Murray Graham, Woodrow Sanders, Bill DeBruhl and L. S. Mayer are good at running with the ball.

The list of players are as follows: Edward Holland, Bobby Marye, Ellis Rowell, "Tub" Wooten, McKain Richards, Roscoe Johnson, Ray Moore, Jack Halsall, Albert Irby, Billy Nettles, L. S. Camden Mourns Death of Mrs. K. G. Whistler

Camden citizens and winter visitors will mourn the passing of one of Camden's adopted daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Brown Whistler, age 73, who died early Sunday morning at her home "Paint Hill," after a long illness.

Mrs. Whistler came to Camden about thirty-five years ago and operated the Major Cantey home on Camden Heights, which was later sold by her to the late T. Edmund Krumbholz, who remodeled it and changed the name to the Kirkwood Hotel, visited by thousands in recent years as winter guests of Camden.

Mrs. Whistler's grandfather, John Poits was the first president of the Corn Exchange, New York City. Her father and mother were Robert W. Brown and Josephine Lovette Brown, who lived at Eden Prairie, near Minneapolis, Minn., where she was born. Later they moved to Richmond, Va.

Fifth District May Soon Have Survey

Lancaster, S. C., Oct. 2.—The United States Geological Survey, in cooperation with the South Carolina Relief Administration, will soon begin a topographical survey of those sections of South Carolina that have not been mapped previously. Due to the fact that no similar survey has, in the past, been made in any of the counties of the Fifth Congressional District, Congressman J. P. Richards has been in consultation with the Geological Survey and the State Relief Administration urging an immediate survey in the counties of the Fifth District. R. M. Porter, chief engineer of the State Relief Administration, who will direct the survey in South Carolina, has definitely assured Congressman Richards that one of the first survey projects will be commenced in the Fifth District. Mr. Richards is of the opinion that this survey will open up great possibilities for industrial development and that the completed survey will prove to be a real source of adequate information to all concerned.

Charleston Bantams Down Camden Team

Charleston, Sept. 30.—Charleston high school Bantams defeated Camden high, 20 to 7, here today, but the victory did not come until after the Bantams had received a scare when Camden led them 7 to 6. Kooksie Robinson had run back a 40-yard punt for the first touchdown but Ross Santos missed the kick for the extra point. Camden came back with a drive in the second period to score a touchdown and made the extra point.

In the third period the Bantams scored a touchdown and stayed ahead. Soon after the period began Charleston got the ball on their own 47-yard line and made a touchdown. Santos and Robinson running from punt formation. Robinson made a 15-yard run, reversing to land on Camden's 13-yard mark. Santos and Poteat took the ball to the 5-yard line and Robinson went through to score. The extra point was scored on a pass.

In the fourth the Bantams scored another touchdown.

Team Has Good Record Over Period of Years

When the big Charleston high football team defeated Camden on Saturday it made the second team that had been able to defeat Camden since the 1928 season. The other team to defeat Camden in that long period of time was the Chester high team. The Batesburg-Leesville team defeated Camden in the lower-state championship in 1928, and this makes three teams to defeat Camden since the 1927 football season.

Since the 1927 season, Camden has played in the lower-state championship series, the upper-state championship and three times in the state championship, winning the state championship in 1931.

Until the defeat on Saturday, Camden had never lost a game prior to the championship series since the 1927 season. The team played Charleston without the services of Flowers, the captain, and two linemen, who were on the injured list, but managed to lead the first half by a score of 7-6.

Camden Eleven Meets Chester Team Today

The football season will open in Camden this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on Zemp Field. The old rivals Camden and Chester will be seen in a fast game as both teams are in good condition.

Camden played last Saturday the strong team from Charleston in the City by the Sea and the score although being 20 to 7 in favor of the Charleston lads was one full of thrills.

Chester played Newberry last Friday and won by a score of 33 to 0. Chester has been put in Class A this year, having an enrollment sufficient to be classed with Columbia, Spartanburg, Charleston, Greenville and other of the larger towns of the state, so the two teams will not have a chance to contend for Class B championship this year.

This is probably the only chance Camden will get to play this team, so a full attendance is expected. Admission will be adults 50 cents, all-school children 25 cents. Don't miss this game. Come out and show the team you are with them.
