Mrs. McLeod Hostess

The Thursday afternoon contract club of which Mrs. Alfred McLeod is a member, was delightfully entertained by her at her home on Hampton avenue. Mrs. T. Lee Little and Miss Katherine Murchison were additional guests. High score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. J. G. Richards, Jr. After the contract games sandwiches, tea and cakes were served.

Lawrence A. Kirkland, Jr., who is a student at St. Andrew's school at Middletown, Conn., is at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirkland, for the Christmas holidays.

Spinster's Club Met.

Miss Lucy Kirkland was hostess on Monday evening to the members of the Spinster's Club. Other guests were Miss Barbara Hickox, of Bennington, Vt.; Miss Hallie Carson and Miss Adele Savage. Scoring high for the evening was Miss Lucy Kirkland. After cards the guests were invited into the dining room where a delightful oyster stew was served.

Mrs. Llewellyn Was Hostess

Mrs. A. S. Llewellyn was bridge hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained her contract club and Mrs. Craig Wright, of New York, and Mrs. W. H. Harris. The afternoon's high score was made by Mrs. Jack Whitaker, Jr. Late in the afternoon a delightful salad course was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Graham leave tomorrow for Fort Gaines, Ga., to spend Christmas with Mr. Graham's parents.

Personal Mention

Miss Mabel Todd, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Laurie Campbell.

Miss Alice DePass, who is attending a business college in Atlanta, is at home for Christmas.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. McArn will spend Christmas with the former's mother in Laurinburg, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Paine, of Newberry, former citizens of this city, were visitors in Camden Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Watson Pomeroy and daughter are here. They have the Pomeroy home on North Lytleton street for the season.

Mrs. V. W. Clark and Miss Elizabeth Clark, accompanied by Mrs. N. W. Rosborough, motored to New Orleans this week to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Rufus Thurman and daughter, of Cheraw; Mrs. Stanley Watkins and daughter, of Savannah, are the guests of R. B. DeLoache for the Christmas holidays.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Roger Carleton, of Pensacola, are here to spend Christmas with Captain and Mrs. William Ancrum at the residence of Mr. H. G. Carrison, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Algernon S. Craven and two sons, of Greenwood, Va., have arrived in Camden for the winter season. They are occupying a cottage at Hobkirk Inn.

George W. Brunson, Jr., who attends N. M. N. Academy at Walworth, Wisconsin, is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brunson, for the holidays.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Dan Miller, of Annapolis, are in Camden for the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. W. J. Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clyburn have as their guests for Christmas their children—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Lewis Clyburn and children, from Hartsville; Lieutenant and Mrs. James W. Clyburn and children, of West Point, and Henry Lee Clyburn, a student at The Citadel.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Case, of Toronto, Canada, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Kirkover at their home "The Hedges." They were enroute from their northern home to Florida for a visit, after which they will return to Aiken for the season. Mr. Case is a well known judge of horses in the United States, Canada and abroad.

Teacher's Had Party

The Camden Armory presented a scene of beauty and gaiety Monday night, when the Kershaw County Teachers Association held their Christmas party. The hall was charming in its decorations suggestive of the Yuletide season. Potted poinsettias were effectively used as were pine boughs and Southern smilax. Red candles burned in silver candlesticks and their light made a pretty picture of the cut flowers, also in shades of red.

Mrs. Dan Murchison greeted the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line, which was composed of Mayor and Mrs. R. M. Kennedy, Jr., Superintendent and Mrs. J. G. Richards, Jr., Mr. Byrd, Mrs. Kathleen Watts; Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Caston; Rev. and Mrs. A. D. McArn, Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Craighill and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Wimberly.

An attractive feature of the party was the novel program of entertainment furnished by Jack Richards, of Newberry; Mr. and Mrs. Lord, of Lugoff; Miss Virginia DeLoache, Mrs. James Gandy and Nellie Wimberly contributed musical numbers which added greatly to the evening's entertainment. Amusing gifts from a gaily decorated Christmas tree were presented to the guests.

The tea table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with a silver bowl of red berries and fern. Silver candelabra held lighted red tapers. At each end of the table was a silver service from which Mrs. W. R. Zemp and Miss Lillian Yates poured coffee.

Miss Burnet Entertains

At her apartment on Laurens street Miss Margaret Burnet entertained at a delightful bridge party Friday evening. Christmas decorations were effectively used in the living room. Supper was served on the card tables before the contract games and Miss Minnie Clyburn scored high for the evening.

Carols Christmas Morning

The young people of the Presbyterian church invite the boys and girls and young people of the city to join them in singing carols early Christmas morning. Come to the Presbyterian church at 11:30 Christmas eve night and bring a candle. You are cordially welcome.

Dance Christmas Night

Cards have been sent out by the Camden Dance Club announcing their annual Christmas ball at the Armory Hall Christmas night. Music will be furnished by Frank Girard and his ten-piece orchestra.

The hall is decorated in the Yuletide colors and with all the college girls and boys at home for the holidays this should be the largest and most enjoyable dance the club has sponsored the past year. Many out of town couples will be present also.

Gen. Hugh Johnson, national recovery administrator, predicts that eventually industry in the United States will operate on a six-hour day basis.

Haile Gold Mine Was Once Productive

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 8.—Eighty-six gold mines or localities where gold has been found but not mined were listed by Earle Sloan, state geologist, in his book, "Mineral Localities in South Carolina," which was published in 1908, it was recently pointed out by Dr. J. J. Petty, associate professor of geology in the University of South Carolina.

Nearly all the gold found in this state is rock gold found in this neous rock. It is usually discovered in minute flecks in hard granite which must be crushed before the metal can be removed.

The amount gotten from these gold mines is amazing. The Haile gold mine, in Lancaster county near Kershaw, which was for a long time the biggest mine in operation, had an output of 7,500,000 tons of ore, yielding $2.60 to $10 per ton, with a profitable average exceeding $3.50 in gold values. In this mine the outcrops are exposed in crystalline rock on both sides of Ledbetter creek. This mine was worked out. It is no longer in operation. This became one of the most noted and successful gold mines east of the Mississippi river.

The localities, listed by counties where gold as a mineral has been found are: Abbeville, 7; Anderson, 1; Cherokee, 7; Chesterfield, 6; Edgefield, 2; Greenville, 8; Kershaw, 1; Lancaster, 13; Laurens, 3; Newberry, 1; Oconee, 9; Pickens, 1; Saluda, 3; Union, 5; York, 13.

Ran Him Down

The little man who had been hauled into court by his wife shuddered as the judge cornered him up with his keen questioning. "Where, did you first meet this woman?" the judge asked.

The witness responded: "Your Honor, I never did exactly meet her, she overtook me."

Still Following

"Could you do something for a poor old sailor?" asked the seedy-looking wanderer at the gate.

"Poor old sailor?" echoed the lady at work at the tub.

"Yes'm, I follered the wotter for sixteen years."

"Well," said the woman, after a critical look, "you certainly don't look as if you ever caught up with it."

Then she resumed her labors.—The New Majority.

A Gentleman of Leisure

"Mandy, do you want a divorce from Uncle Ned?"

"I sho' do, jedge. Dat nigger ain't no 'count, nohow."

"It's a case of incompatibility, I suppose?"

"Well, jedge, if settin' in de sun when de sun shines an' settin' by de fire when de win' blows, an' eatin' me out o' house an' home is dat incom—what you said, den I sho' has ggt dat kind o' case against 'im."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Returns From Duty in The Far East

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 8.—After completing a tour of duty with the Marines aboard the U. S. S. Houston, former flagship of the Asiatic fleet, during which he visited many Oriental ports, Private First Class Robert C. Arthur, of Camden, S. C., arrived here recently on that vessel.

As a member of the Marine detachment aboard the Houston, private Arthur cruised thousands of miles, traveling between Yokohama, Japan and the Philippine Islands. Promptly upon returning from duty with the Asiatic squadron in the Far East, the Houston was assigned to the battle fleet in the Pacific, where she will remain during the Christmas season.

Arthur made his home with his mother, Mrs. Mattie Arthur, of Camden, general delivery, prior to enlisting with the Marines in October, 1931. After completing his recruit training at Parris Island, S. C., Arthur was assigned to sea duty and subsequently joined the Houston.

Had Anniversary Party

A delightful dinner was served at the City Laundry on Friday to the employees of the City Laundry and the Camden Dry Cleanery and invited guests. The occasion was the sixth anniversary of W. M. Alexander's connection with these two establishments.

In a lovely Christmas setting places were set for the forty guests, and a bountiful turkey dinner was served to the employees of the company and the following invited guests: Rev. J. B. Caston, Dr. C. F. Wimberly, Mrs. J. H. McLeod, Mrs. V. W. Clarke, Mrs. John Henry McDowell, J. F. Boyd, M. M. Reasonover and Stanley Babin.

Francis McLeod and Frank Caston are at home for the Christmas holidays from Mar's College, N. C.
