Old Peddler Lived In Underhill Dies; Inman Captured New Oil In Peanuts Stable Saving $12,000

Cincinnati, Jan. 6 .--- "Uncle Jake" Burnstein, the peddler, lived in a stable in Mount Sterling, Ky., for most of sixty years, his niece revealed today, saving his money so there would be enough for her care after he was gone.

He died, and was buried at Mount Sterling yesterday. But the Ida Ewing he worked and saved for now is Mrs. Albert E. Heekin, wife of a Cincinnati manufacturer and isn't in need of the $12,009 in cash and bonds he bequeathed.

His sole heir, Mrs. Heekin, said "Uncle Jake" sent for her during his last illness Tuesday and persons ally handed her his little hoard.

"The . money," she said, "was not only in government bonds, but in gold certificates and gold coins, one on the Bank of Maryland, dated January 1, 1840."

Christened "Jasjer Burnstein," he became "Uncle Jake" to everybody in Mount Sterling since he and a sister custody in the rooming house. emigrated from Bavaria sixty years ago. The sister, Mrs. Heekin's mother, made her home in Louisville, Ky. "Uncle Jake" lived for years in an old stable where he had a repair shop in Mount Sterling. He tried, his niece related, to live on twenty-five cents a day.

And the money he saved, she said, he kept hidden around his home. There were bonds tucked under mattresses, gold coins in tin cans, seemingly carelessly put aside.

Motorists who apply for new license plates any time before next October 1 will get the refund due them for the two months at the end of the year 1933, Attorney General Daniel rules.' There are now between $15,-000 and $20,000 of these refunds which have not been claimed by car owners when getting 1934 license plates.

W. J. Deas Dead

Rembert, Jan. 5 .- William Jo Deas died at his home in Kershaw county near here on Saturday, December 30, aged 83 years, after an illness of two weeks.

He had spent his entire life on the farm where he died. He had been a member of Swift Creek Baptist church.

Besides his wife he is survived by six children: Mrs. Laura Taylor of Camden, A. D. Deas of Florence, Mrs. Ida Wallace of Columbia, Mrs. Sallie McLeod, B. C. and J. C. Deas of Rembert, several grandchildren and great grandchildren; also one sister, Mrs. Rachael Crossland, Columbia.

Seminole, Okla., Jan. 7 .- Shortly after Wilbur Underhill, "tri-state terror," died of 13 bullet wounds in the McAlester penitentiary hospital, one of his confederates, Elmer Inman,-was wounded and captured near Bowlegs early today, further reducing the roll of the southwest's fugitive bad men.

Inman, one-time confederate of Ray Terrill, member of the now decimated Terrill gang of killers and robbers, escaped temporarily from a posse of Seminole officers after a midnight raid on a rooming house here, but was wounded during the chase that followed. Doctors said he would lose the sight of one eye.

He was arrested with Grace Cunningham, a Seminole underworld character, who fled with him by motor car. Lena Nichols, sister of Eva Mae Vichols, who was fatally wounded when Underhill was captured at Shawnee eight days ago, was taken in

The trail of crime of Underhill, narcotic addict and killer, was ended by death late last night.

Suffering from 13 bullet wounds he received in the gun fight with officers who surprised him in his Shawnee hideout, he died 12 hours after he had been taken in a machine gunguarded ambulance from a Shawnee hospital to the better fortified prison hospital.

The desperado's body will be sent to Joplin, Mo., for burial. His aged mother, Mrs. Almira Underhill, and his unmarried sister, of Kansas City, hurried to McAlester this morning. "I wish they had not brought Wil bur to' McAlester when they did,' sobbed the mother. "If they had not moved him when they did, he might have lived. I just begged them to let Wilbur stay in the Shawnee hospital a few days longer."

The United States bureau of identification said at Washington it had ordered Underhill transferred because of rumors of a plot to deliver him.

Tuskegee, Ala., Dec. 30 .- Discovery of a mineral oil in peanuts that had aided in the recovery of infantile paralysis victims and in the rejuvenation of tissues was announced today by Dr. George W. Carver, noted negro scientist and head of the research department of Tuskegee institute.

Dr. Carver Discovers

"It has been given out that I have found a cure," said Dr. Carver. ". have not, but it looks hopeful.

Doctor Carver said the tissue building properties in the oil were accidentally discovered, after he had used it as the base for a beauty lotion. "I gave it to some ladies to use," he said in discussing his discovery, 'and those inclined to be fat brought it back, saying they could not use it because it made them gain weight. "When they brought this back, I saw it had great value, and I find that it is the greatest fat producer I have ever seen."

Dr. Carver said after drawing off the emulsion, he had made tests and then used it in the treatment of two young boys, one 13 and the other 14, who had suffered from infantile paralysis.

Improvement was noted early in the tests, Doctor Carver said. Pink returned to the skin and the muscles increased in size by actual measurements.

After nine applications of the oil. which was massaged into the affected limbs, one of the subjects who had been walking with crutches was able to walk with the use of only a cane. The other boy, less severely afflicted, had increased use of his leg and joined other boys in playing football. "I have used it on 250 persons, and uary 1st "Putrid" will be awarded on it has never failed, so far as I can find out," said Doctor Carver. "I am using it as a fact finder, and I am working out its complete pharmaceutical value.

"For certain things, I know it has a definite value, but for others it remains to be proven.

"The oil is translucent and limped and is readily absorbed by the skin. It is extracted from the peanut by the cold process."

Doctor Carver demonstrated it, rubbing a few drops into the arm of a subject, and in a few moments the immediate area of the application shucks. animal or animals which should be feeding them instead of their feeding it over the winter. If he has not, he can make a deal with a neighbor, offering labor in return for canned products.

It is estimated that 640 pounds of meat will provide five servings of meat per week for a family of five persons throughout the year. Such a quantity of meat might be secured from one beef animal weighing 500 pounds live weight, three hogs averaging 180 pounds and one lamb weighing 60 pounds. The hams, shoulders and sides of the hog should preferably be cured, but there is much of the sausage, spare-ribs, loins and other fresh cuts that should be saved for later use. 142 pounds of dressed pig will produce eight No. 3 cans of roast, twelve No. 2 cans of sausage, six No. 2 cans of liver paste, six No. 2 cans of scrapple, three pounds of head cheese, eight pounds of pickled pigs feet, 341-2 pounds of lard, 14 pounds of cured bacon and 28 pounds of cured hams.

Miss Sadie B. Craig, the home agent, and Miss Mary Hayes, the assistant emergency worker, will assist with meat canning throughout the county. They are making up their schedule for January now so see them at once if you have meat to can. This is a part of the emergency campaign and the "live-at-home" movement. This canning program is also a means of providing the farm family with the equivalent of fresh meat the year 'round.

Methodist Men's Bible Class

Our attendance last Sunday reached to the high point of 48 and this number should be doubled. Dr. Wimberly is giving us his best in these Sunday morning addresses and it is worthwhile to hear them. We want to go over the 50 mark next Sunday. Dr. Wimberly told us where we got our four Gospels last Sunday and next Sunday he will tell us where we got the Epistles and Revelation. Let each man bring a new member and we can easily have a class of 75. Let us encourage our pastor by cooperating with him in this big task. Jack Moore, Secretary.
