

LOOKING BACKWARD

Taken From the Files of The Chronicle Fifteen and Thirty Years Ago

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

December 17, 1920
Twenty automobiles loaded with prominent New Englanders stop for a stay in Camden on an automobile sight seeing trip.
Sheriff Grover Welch, deputy Henry McLeod, policeman Hollis Hilton and L. E. Barnes made important liquor raid in Betty Neek section, capturing one of the largest and most complete moonshine outfits in the history of the county.
Williams Insurance Company moves from second story of Baruch-Nettles building to a location on the ground floor on West Main street.
Yeggs attack Bank of Bethune, get no cash, but two explosions damage door to vault to extent of about $100.
Solicitor Spigner's report shows that he tried 36 cases in Kershaw county for the year and secured 33 convictions.
So many burglaries in Camden that city council puts on extra policeman in the person of U. N. Myers.
Joseph C. McCaskill, of Camden, wins recognition at Davidson College as manager of its football team.
C. P. McDaniel comes to Camden from Albany, Alabama, as secretary of the Camden Chamber of Commerce.
Bulletin issued shows automobiles to be licensed by weight, making a Ford touring car cost $6.00 and a Cadillac seven passenger touring cost $18.00.
Charlie Flowers, 42, well known colored citizen dies at his home on Campbell street. He was a shoemaker by trade.
"Portland Ned," notorious yeggman, charged with various safe robberies in many sections, captured at Raleigh, N. C.
Civic League holds meeting at home of Mrs. John B. Lindsay.
Invitations issued to marriage of Miss Henrietta Shannon DeLoache to A. Kennedy Blakeney.
George Crocker, of Boston, visiting his brother J. B. Crocker, in Camden.
Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jacobson, of Atlanta, visiting relatives in Camden.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

December 22, 1905
The Camden German Club to give annual ball at Opera house.
Dr. C. Mitchell, eye specialist, of Columbia, spending a few days in Camden at the Workman House on professional business.
Camden Country Club planning Christmas tree at Club house.
Seaboard Air Line announces Florida Limited, crack passenger train to pass Camden beginning January 8.
Sid Smith in Camden, after coaching at Citadel, and has been drafted by New York American baseball club.
E. O. McCraight reported critically ill at his home in Camden.
J. W. Hyatt, citizen of the county, stricken with paralysis.
Mrs. J. F. Bateman and children go to Charleston to spend the Christmas holidays.
Chief of police serves notice that ordinance against shooting fireworks on Main street will be enforced.
H. G. Carrison, secretary of the Watered Iron Bridge Company advertises for a bridge-keeper to take up fares across the toll bridge.
M. L. Smith in Georgetown as orator for the day at Centennial celebration.
Cotton quoted at eleven and one-half cents per pound.
George Hasty, at Gaffney, shoots and kills Milan Bassett, musical director of the "Nothing But Money" musical comedy. Abbott Davidson, the star performer, was also mortally wounded.
Greensboro, N. C., practically isolated from the world by damaging steel storm. All wires down from Lynchburg, Va.
Monument erected by public subscriptions unveiled to the memory of N. G. Gonzales at Columbia.
Russian revolutionary leaders declare Russian treasury bankrupt.
The Florida supreme court has ruled that slot machines are not within the constitution's prohibition of lotteries in Florida.

Dandy Suggestion, But—
"Give yourself a new linotype for Christmas," admonishes an ad in a newspaper of the printing trade. Few publishers can be so generous toward themselves, however much they may feel their efforts deserve reward. Linotypes cost from around $4,500 up, depending on the model, and if purchased on the deferred payment plan, as they usually are, prove even more expensive. Still, they come about as near being worth what they cost as any other machine. No other has ever eliminated so much drudgery—the painfully slow, tedious and endless task of "sticking" type by hand. Men who have been in the printing business twenty years or more know what a dull and wearisome job that was. Back in those days it would have taken a compositor twenty minutes to set this item; now only about three minutes are required.—Newberry Herald and News.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.
How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.
Second, Calotabs are diuretic kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, which are needed in the treatment of colds.
Calotabs are quite economical—only twenty-five cents for the package, ten cents for the package. (Adv.)

At Christmas Time...

ALL ROADS LEAD TO HOME

Go home for the holidays if you can. The clasp of a welcoming hand, the sound of a friendly voice, the gifts of happiness that nobody should forego.

Time or distance, however, may prevent your visiting a few close friends and relatives whom you would so much like to see. Then all you have to do, as many folks have learned, is to let "long distance" bring you and your friends together for a voice-to-voice visit.

It doesn't matter whether you call on Christmas day or not, you will both get a real thrill from your telephone visit any time during the holiday season.

The pleasure you will experience from your visits by telephone is not expensive. For example, by using Station-to-Station service after 7 P. M., you can talk 150 miles for about 50 cents, and other distances for similarly low cost.

Your "long distance" operator will be pleased to inform you about rates to any point, and help make your holidays pleasant by giving quick connections to the friends you want to greet.
