SOFT BALL GAMES

ers were touched for ten hits, those from the slants of Jake were converted into homers, triples and doubles through the careless work of the outfielders. It would have been a whitewash smear for the Wolves but for the fact that the darkness of the last inning made it difficult to field the ball, already soaked and greasy from a wet field.

The crowd was stupefied by the blundering defense of the erstwhile cocky Merchant's team. They came expecting a lurid battle and they saw a rout. The Wolves on the other hand, heartened by a two run rally in the first round acquired a confidence that they maintained throughout the game.

The game put the Wolves to the front in the second half race. A game back of them is the Merchant's team and right on the heels of this team is the Guard outfit. The schedule this week calls for the Wolves to battle the Motors and a return game with the Merchants. The Wolves play the Guards on Wednesday, September 1. The Guards have two games this week and a game next week. The Merchants have three more games to play. On the dope there can be some big changes in the complexion of the race before the curtain drops on the regular schedule next Wednesday. While the Wolves are leading the race at this writing, the fact that after the next game with the Merchants is the last that the team will have its full strength, the chances are slim for the Pack to take the pennant for the second half. The best bets for the flag are the Guards and Merchants, although Herr Basil Bruce may spring an upset as he did against the White Sox last week. The Wolves lose Rhame, Villepique, Jack Nettles and Kirkland after the Thursday game as these players are all going to the football camp in the mountains.

To get back to that Tuesday game—the Wolves hit on Jake Haynes in the first inning for a triple by E. Wooten, single by E. Wooten, a double by Jack Nettles and an error by Williams to push two runners home. They added a third run in the second frame on triples by Rhame and Z. Clarkson. The Merchants had a chance to tie up the count in the first and third frames but some bonehead coaching at third mixed with some sand lot plays permitted the Wolves to keep the plate from being crossed. The Wolves raised the score to five in the fifth when Zander Clarkson homered with two on. Then in the seventh triples by Z. Clarkson, F. Wooten mixed with errors by Haynes, J. Wilson and McDowell put four Wolves home.

The Merchants threatened in the almost late evening gloom of the seventh to stage a big rally. Goodale opened with a triple and scored on Nolan's hit. McDowell singled scoring Nolan. Then Rhame lost control and walked two men with two down. Moseley struck at three fast ones and the game was over.

Notes of the Battle

Z. Clarkson hit a homer and two triples in three trips to the plate. F. Wooten showed he can wield a baseball but just as good as a brassie when he tripled twice in four times up.

Rhame gave ten hits as did Haynes but Rhame kept his well scattered and was given excellent support. Jake allowed the bunching of hits at times when his support blew wide open.

The Merchants sure lost their pep after that first inning when the Wolves went to town. Z. Clarkson's triple could have been held to a single had the ball been fielded properly.

The grounds were soaking wet and the diamond as slippery as grease. In consequence the player performed various forms of acrobatic tricks.

A big crowd gathered to see these two rival teams battle.

Fair or Foul Ball

Quite a number of the fans and players have made inquiry of the referee of recreation as to whether a ball that was batted and which struck outside of the first base line and then rolled along and over the line was fair or foul. The rule on this is the same in softball as in hard ball and is in effect "a batted ball which first touches foul ground and then rolls into fair territory before having touched any object on the playing field is a fair ball, provided it rolls or bounces into the diamond before reaching first or third base."

Struggle To a Tie

Two games of softball were played in a sea of mud last Wednesday evening and neither game produced any change in the standings of the teams concerned.

The Wolves and the Redfearn Motors struggled through five innings of burlesque baseball to a 3 to 3 tie, the game being called at the end of the fifth inning by agreement.

Clarkson Rhame, after a seven inning pitching assignment did the iron man stunt of going on the hill Wednesday and gave but six hits in the five rounds while Beck Russell for

MANY RETURN AUTOMOBILE QUESTIONNAIRES TO SURVEY

Of the 2,949 questionnaire cards sent with applications for drivers' licenses to passenger car owners in Kershaw county, exactly 631 have been returned to the Highway Planning Survey. This represents about 21.4 per cent of the cards sent out in this county.

The information on these cards is to be used by the Survey to make a financial study of South Carolina driving and drivers. The financial study, as a part of the Survey, is jointly sponsored by the state highway department and the federal bureau of public roads.

Only 72 to the 554 questionnaire cards sent to Kershaw county truck drivers were filled out and returned. Thus, the percentage of the return from truck drivers was lower than the return from privately owned passenger cars.

A total of 245,937 cards were mailed to vehicle owners in this state. By July 31 of this year, 55,170 of them had been received or 22.4 per cent of the total number sent out.

The percentage of cards returned in this state is somewhat higher than the percentage returned in other southern states. It is about two and one-half times that of Alabama, four times that of Tennessee, and one and one-half times that of Florida.

President Roosevelt has signed the bill which will liberalize pensions for gold star mothers and fathers.

The Motors was nipped ten times.

A third inning attack on the slants of Russell gave the Wolves three runs and it looked like a million to the assembled fans as the offensive of the Motors had failed completely. Cantey led off with a single and Rhame followed suit. John Villepique hit safe and Cantey scored. Z. Clarkson was out on an infield roller, but Jack Villepique hit safe to score Rhame. John Villepique came in on F. Wooten's long drive to center. Jack Villepique was run down between third and home to retire the side.

The Motors pushed a run home in the third inning but the big assault on the slants of Rhame came in the fifth when with one down Williams singled, Sheorn walked, Babin walked to fill the bases. Beck Russell doubled and two runs scored. Babin was

West Wateree Loses A Valued Citizen

John L. Hinson, 68, a valued citizen of West Wateree, died suddenly at his home near Rabon's Cross Roads Friday morning about 8 o'clock. He had complained of feeling badly and decided that he would not go to work and expired soon afterwards.

Mr. Hinson had been a merchant in his community for thirty-nine years. At the time of his death he was operating the Lugoff Supply Company, dealing in general merchandise. He was one of the outstanding men of his section and was always on the right side—never wavering for petty differences in the matter of civic affairs, or that pertaining to county and state politics. He kept his own counsel and did his own thinking. He served several terms, most acceptable, as a member of the county board of directors from his township.

Mr. Hinson was born in Kershaw county on March 9, 1869, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hinson.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon, August 21, from Pine Grove Baptist church at four o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Albarn, assisted by Rev. J. B. Caston, of Camden, and Rev. B. S. Broom, of Kershaw. Interment was in the churchyard cemetery.

Active pallbearers were his grandsons, Mitchel Rabon, Jack Rabon, Wendell Rabon, Theodore Rabon, Horace Rabon and Elmer Drakeford.

Honorary pallbearers were J. H. Clyburn, C. H. Yates, J. H. McLeod, H. G. Carrison, Jr., M. M. Johnson, N. C. Arnette, S. W. Hogue, U. N. Myers, Karl Rosborough, Dr. J. W. Sanders, Thomas Ancrum and J. Team Gettys.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mattie D. Hinson; four daughters, Mrs. E. D. Drakeford, Camden; Mrs. L. P. Branham, Ridgeway; Mrs. G. W. Rabon and Mrs. B. T. Rabon, of Lugoff; three brothers, J. J. Hinson, of Eastover; S. W. Hinson, of Bishopville, and W. E. Hinson, of Winstboro; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Branham, of Lucknow; Mrs. John Hinson, of Camden, and Mrs. Walter Smith, of Augusta, Ga.; eighteen grandchildren and one great grand daughter.

Boys and Girls Now Enjoying Camp Life

The Boys and Girls Camp sponsored by the Exchange Club of Camden, for boys and girls throughout the county, is now in its second and last week, and has been a great success, a large number of young people from Camden and different communities enjoying its benefits. The vacation itself, the fine training they receive and the associations they form are of incalculable benefit to these children and the enterprise is conceded to be one of the most worth while projects undertaken in this section.

The club's president placed Dr. A. W. Humphries at the head of the general committee in charge of the arrangements. Sheriff McLeod headed the committee on finances and Rev. and Mrs. Hardwick, of Lugoff, ably assisted by several fine young counselors are in charge of the camp itself and of the young folks there.

A donation of fifty dollars each was made by the city and the county for this worthy cause and the business people of Camden responded generously, especially in view of the many calls that have been made on them for contributions recently. T. Lee Little, operator of the Camden Theatre, has furnished free entertainment for the campers twice and the shows were much enjoyed.

This is the third year that the Exchange Club has sponsored this camp and the membership is greatly encouraged at the good work they have been able to accomplish.

killed at the plate. Russell went to third on Lightfoot's infield hit. Cateo flew out to third.

The game was full of arguments and acrobatic stunts, even umpire Mays taking an artistic slide on his face in trying to follow a play at third. Clarkson Rhame would have scored a home run and won his own game in the fifth had he not slipped down between first and second. At that he reached third before the ball was relayed back to the infield.

Bruce 8—Zemp 4.
The game between the Zemp and Bruce teams, which did not start until 6:30 was halted at the end of the fourth inning with the score 8 to 4 in favor of Bruce.
