

Not Even Mother's Cooking?

Nothing on the table tempts you? And you look back, with grown-up longing to those days when "a hunk of bread and a chunk of cheese" were the piece de resistance supreme? Indigestion, too!

Well, don't try to prescribe for yourself. See your doctor, because chronic indigestion is sometimes a symptom of tuberculosis.

Elected President of Class
A very signal honor has come to Miss Josephine Hough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hough, of this city. In the election of class officers Miss Hough was named freshman class president, and she also has the distinction of being one of the few freshmen elected to membership in the college glee club.

The body of Mrs. Cecelia Burke, a birdie of three weeks, was found in the rear of her automobile in a garage at Somerville, Mass., with $1,690 serving as a pillow. Death was caused by monoxide poisoning, say the police.

WEDDING BELLS WILL SOON RING IN FLAT ROCK

A big week-end house party was held at the residence of hon. and Mrs. Holsum Moore which ended up on Monday morning in honor of miss tiny moore who plans to get married enduring the month of december when her intended husband returns back from the c. c. c. camp.

Everybody nearly was surprised when her little brother rode into the spacious setting-room in his try-cicle with a big placard hung on his back by a string around his neck which read, "tiny's gonner git married." It was a very cute announcement.

The place where they will spend their honeymoon has not been selected, he do not know how much money will be due him when turned loose, but if it is over $25, they will take a tower thru floridy and the everglades, also miamma beach, in her dady's 2-floors.

The promising bride was dressed in a going-away rayon frock trimmed in pink, blue and green ribbons, this being the colors her high-school is featuring this year. she wore hoses and slippers to match and had just had her beautiful brunette hair blondined a bright yellow, and permanent waved at the same time.

Miss tiny moore will be badly missed if she do get married and moved away, but so far, her prospective husband has nowhere to move, she is very popular around the drug store and skating rink, as well as all other social spots in and around flat rock. she aster go to sunday school at 10 o'clock but she dropped out when him and her had a week last summer, (skis) was spent on the back seat.

Ice cream and russion tea with suitable waters were served 2 times per day on plates fetched in by her ma made out of paper, some music was furnished by the raddio, but onner count of the static and station interference and 4 weak tubes, it was not very highly appreciated, after ever-boddy had et and talked themselves to their hart's content, the party ended.

merton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Carson on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Bruce Fagan, of Georgia, spent Sunday in town with friends.

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET

William Richard Clyburn, M. D., was born a few miles north of Camden, in Flat Rock township, on December 7, 1867, and died on August 11, 1937. He was the son of Lewis Lee and Mary Jane Clyburn, both of whom predeceased him. His education was obtained in a private school by a celebrated educator, Leslie McCandless. He took a pre-medical course at the University of South Carolina, and was graduated a Doctor of Medicine from the University of Maryland at Baltimore, in 1889. He practiced his profession at Westville, S. C., for a few years, moving to Camden in 1904, where he had a large practice until his death.

From the organization of the Camden hospital to the day of his death, he was on the staff of the hospital as practitioner, teacher and anaesthetist. He has conducted almost all of the anaesthetics at the hospital without an accident.

He was a faithful member and attendant of the Kershaw County Medical Association.

He was a man of few words, thoughtful and positive in his assertions, never expressing an opinion unless called on, and then only after some thought. He was a good, unassuming friend at all times.

He will be sadly missed by the County Medical Association as well as the Camden Hospital.

Therefore, be it resolved, by the Kershaw County Medical Association, that we have lost a good member, whose place it will be impossible to fill.

That the people of the county have lost an untiring, sympathetic doctor, whose services were at their call at all times in the twenty-four hour day.

That a copy of these resolutions be inscribed in our minute book, and that a copy be sent to his family.

Services Are Held For Victims of Fire

Funeral services for the two child victims of an early Saturday morning fire here were held Sunday afternoon at the Shelley-Brunson funeral home in this city.

The children who lost their lives in the fire which destroyed their home on the Green Swamp road, near Sumter, were Yancey Brown, Jr., age four years, and Ada Ruth Brown, age two years. They were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Yancey Brown, who survive.

Mrs. Brown was painfully injured from burns and cuts when she was forced to flee the burning home thru a window, but she was dismissed from the hospital here yesterday.

Burial of the two children took place at the Browntown cemetery near Bishopville, following the funeral services here. The services were conducted by the Rev. Paul Whitaker, pastor of the Broad street Methodist church of this city.

Parents of the children arose early Saturday morning as the father was going on a hunting trip in the Waterree swamp. It is believed that the fire started from a stove upon which the mother prepared breakfast. The mother returned to sleep after preparing breakfast for her husband and was awakened when the house was in flames. The children, sleeping in another room, were burned to death before they could be reached.—Sumter Herald.
