visiting gridiron machine being thrown completely out of gear by Camden's well trained Bulldogs. In the neighborhood of 1,200 fans saw the boys from pothts east mangled by a score of 25 to 0.

Darlington showed a flash of strength in the first quarter when the boys from over there staved off several scoring threats made by the Bulldogs. Camden drove down to within the shadow of the goal posts on several occasions but Darlington braced and took the ball to stave off the scoring threat.

In the second quarter Camden made four thrusts, Cox taking the ball over twice and West and Williams counting the other touchdown. Camden missed the extra point on the first two touchdowns and the last but West drove through on a line play to register the conversion on the third score.

The threatening weather with occasional flurries of fine rain-kept the crowd down, but at that, there were between a thousand and twelve hundred fans and fanettes present to cheer the play of the battling teams. The final ten minutes of play found a fine drizzle falling.

Fans, who jatunted to the grid field expecting Darlington to be a pushover were given a jolt in the first quarter. Camden fumbled several times to add to the jittery nerves of the rooters and when the visitors braced in the shadow of their goal ened to the fact that there was a football game in progress.

In the second quarter however the Bulldogs proceeded to demonstrate Agricultural and Mechanical Society, heir versatility and complete mastery over the invaders by engineering several parades that resulted in touchdowns. Driving down to the 21 yard meeting last night.
