Announcement Party

At a lovely bridge party given by Mrs. R. E. Stevenson Saturday afternoon, the engagement of Miss Helen Tindal was announced to Richard Jenkins, of Winston-Salem and Camden. Six tables were arranged for the game in the living room and sun porch, which were made attractive with vases of summer flowers. Miss Tindal's place was marked with a corsage of gardenias and she was also presented a gift for her trousseau by her hostess. The score prizes were won by Mrs. Pearce Canteley, who made high score; Miss Ethel Mae Madden, second high score winner; and Mrs. Hughley Tindal, the honor guest's mother, who won the consolation prize. Guests from out of town attending the party were: Mrs. A. A. Madden, Mrs. Emmett Madden, Miss Ethel Mae Madden, all of Columbia; Miss Harriett DesChamps, of Bishopville; Mrs. Cecil Brasington, of Charlotte. Also present was Mrs. J. F. Jenkins, mother of Mr. Jenkins.

Camden Engagement

Camden always has so much excitement going on, and this week, it's a nice engagement. Helen Tindal and Dick Jenkins have decided to be married in the Fall, and Helen's mother, Mrs. Hughley Tindal, is announcing the engagement this week end. Helen, who is a very lovely blonde, is a graduate of Winthrop college, where she was a member of Sigma Omega Delta, social sorority, and to Alpha Psi Zeta, honorary psychology club of which she was president her senior year. Dick, who is also blond, is one of the very friendliest people ever. He is now connected with the Southern Auto Parts company, of Winston-Salem, N. C., where he and Helen will probably live after their marriage. Helen is a granddaughter of Mrs. A. A. Madden and the late Dr. Madden, of Columbia.—Saturday's Columbia Record.

A Wedding At Congaree

One of the most interesting of the early Fall marriages will take place August 26, at a half after 8 o'clock at St. John's Episcopal church, Congaree, where Hasell Hopkins and Bill Gettys will be married. Hasell, a charming Irish-brunette, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas David Hopkins, of Hopkins. She attended the University of South Carolina, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Bill is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Team Gettys, of Camden. He was graduated from the University of South Carolina law school, and while at the university, was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. Martha L. Withers will be Hasell's maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be: Marybelle Higgins, of Columbia; Martha Gettys, Bill's sister, of Camden; Sarah Perkins, of Clearwater, Florida; Mary Palmer, of Tryon, N. C.; Louise Mikell, of Eastover; Mrs. Oliver Seabrook, of Wadmalaw Island. Bill will have his brother, Team Gettys, Jr., of Sardinia, Mississippi, for his best man, and the usher-groomsman will be: John Gettys and Nicolas Gettys, of Lugoff; Stuart Clarkson, of Camden; Charles Shannon, 3rd, of Camden; James Hopkins and Thomas Hopkins, Jr., brothers of the bride-elect, of Hopkins. Among the parties which are being given in honor of this popular couple was the bridge party, which Mrs. Norman Borden and Frazzille Tilley gave July 1, at Mrs. Borden's home on Monroe street. Then, Mr. and Mrs. Porcher Hopkins entertained Friday evening with a buffet supper in honor of the bride and bridegroom-elect and their wedding attendants.—Saturday's Columbia Record.

Simons-Hellman Engagement

Miss Irene Adelle Simons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Simons, of Asbury Park, N. J., who will wed Simon S. Hellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hellman, of Chester, S. C., is a graduate of the Camden, S. C., hospital, where she has made her home for the past three years. The wedding will take place in the early fall.—Chester Reporter.

HAROLD FUNDERBURK WAS SPEAKER AT KIWANIS MEET

The program Tuesday at the Kiwanis luncheon held at the Camden Hotel was in charge of the publicity committee. E. D. Drakeford taking responsibility of arranging the program. We were delighted to have Harold Funderburk, who was the speaker of the day, Mr. Funderburk talked on the part that an attorney should play in every type of business—pointing out the many new laws which have been passed in recent years. Also the new Federal regulations which affect practically all types of business. We were delighted to have Harold and we sincerely hope that he will meet with us again soon.

DELIGHTFUL FAMILY PARTY HELD AT THE COURT INN

Charming "Court Inn"—in olden days, "Lausanne," the home of the deSaussure's—was the scene of a happy get-together family party on the evening of Saturday, July 22, when Mr. and Mrs. Egmont von Tresckow entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Salmund, of Charleston, West Virginia, the older members of their respective families being invited to welcome them home after many years of absence.

The large "parlors" were ablaze with summer flowers. Mrs. Alfred E. Kennedy, of "Bettyneck," and Mrs. Louise Proctor greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Charles Salmund and Miss Elizabeth Kennedy presided over the punch bowl. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

Out-of-town guests invited were: Mrs. Beverly English, Miss Elizabeth English, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Claude Girardeau and Miss Bessie Girardeau, of Columbia; Mrs. Edward Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Stanyame Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. William Burrows, of Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Kennedy and Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, of "Bettyneck"; Bissell Kennedy, of Orlando, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. John Cureton, of Chester; and Mrs. Edmund Rhett, of Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. Salmund are being warmly welcomed and entertained. Mrs. Salmund is lovingly remembered as "Miss Bet McDowall." At present they are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Louise Proctor, at her country home. They return Thursday, July 27, to their home in Charleston, West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. von Tresckow also celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of their marriage on Saturday, July 22. Mrs. Salmund had been a major of honor on that occasion.

Honor Miss Hopkins and Mr. Gettys

Parties have begun for Miss Hasell Hopkins and William Gettys who are to be married on August 26 at St. John's Episcopal church at Congaree. Mrs. Norman Borden and Miss Frazzille Tilley entertained recently at a lovely bridge party at the home of Mrs. Borden on Monroe street.

Mr. and Mrs. Porcher Hopkins honored Miss Hopkins and Mr. Gettys last evening with a delightful buffet supper at their apartment on College street. Vari-colored zinnias attractively decorated the rooms. Guests included the Hopkins-Gettys wedding party and a few other friends of the couple.

Miss Hopkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas David Hopkins, of Hopkins. She attended the University of South Carolina where she became a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Mr. Gettys, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Team Gettys, of Camden, is a graduate of the University Law school and is a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity.

The bride-elect will have for her maid of honor, Miss Martha L. Withers and her bridesmaids will be Miss Marybelle Higgins, Miss Martha Gettys, of Camden, cousin of the bridegroom-elect, Miss Sarah Perkins, Clearwater, Fla.; Miss Mary Palmer, Tryon, N. C.; Miss Louise Mikell, Eastover; and Mrs. Oliver Seabrook, Wadmalaw Island.

The bridegroom-elect's best man will be his brother, Team Gettys, Sardinia, Miss., and his groomsman will be: John Gettys and Nicholas Gettys, Lugoff; Stuart Clarkson and Charles Shannon, 3rd, both of Camden; and James Hopkins and Thomas Hopkins, Jr., of Hopkins, brothers of the bride-elect.—Sunday's State.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Savage, Jr., were hosts at a delightful party late Thursday afternoon, which they gave in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Louis Moyes, of Paris, France. Mrs. Moyes is the former Miss Adele Savage, and she and Mr. Moyes are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Savage, Sr. About a hundred guests were invited, most of them being former friends and contemporaries of the honor guest.

Mrs. Sheorn Hostess

Mrs. Wylie Sheorn had as her guest last week, Miss Beulah Cook, of Lancaster. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Sheorn gave a bridge party in honor of her guest at her home on Mill street. The house was attractively decorated with vases of flowers from the hostess' lovely garden and after the game an ice course was served with sandwiches and cakes. The score prizes were won by Mrs. James Gandy, Mrs. Lee Little and Mrs. Marlon Williams. Miss Cook also received a gift from the hostess.

Mrs. Team Hostess

Mrs. Ben Team invited a dozen guests to play bridge at her home Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Bunch, of Orangeburg, who is visiting Mrs. John Rauch. The score prizes were won by Mrs. Lee Little and Mrs. R. E. Stevenson, and later in the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

Walterboro Hotel Man Injured

A. L. Costello, proprietor of the Walterboro Hotel, was fatally injured at 6 o'clock Friday afternoon four miles from Edisto Beach when his car left the highway and collided with a tree. He had been spending the week at the beach and was en route to Walterboro when the wreck occurred. An eye witness stated that the car gradually left the highway and appeared to have been driven by an unconscious driver, the opinion being expressed that Mr. Costello had suffered a stroke or had died suddenly at the wheel. The car was a complete wreck and if the driver was alive he met death instantaneously.
