

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pate visited relatives in Anderson Sunday.

Frank Gruver, of Asheville, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Lee Little.

Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee Lowry, of Chester, visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Team returned Thursday from a ten days trip to Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell, Jr., of Columbia, were the guests of relatives here Sunday.

McClain Marsh visited his brother, William Marsh, at Clemson College last week end.

Captain Harrington Yates, of Fort Jackson, spent the week end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dukes and son spent the week end with the former's parents at Smoaks.

Mrs. A. D. Lincoln has returned from a visit to her mother and brother in Summerville, S. C.

Mrs. W. H. Pearce, of Charleston, spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. Hettie Mickle.

Mrs. Edmund Rhett, of Charleston was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Kennedy 3rd, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reasonover spent Sunday in Rock Hill with the latter's sister, Mrs. W. B. Dompney.

Mrs. John T. Mackey, of Atlanta, after a two weeks trip to Florida, is the guest of her son, Dan Mackey and Mrs. Mackey.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCaskill, of Goldboro were the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCaskill last week.

Mrs. Clarence Brabham and children, of Bamberg, were guests last week of Mrs. Brabham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nettles.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lee announces the birth of a son at the Camden Hospital, January 30. The baby has been named William David Lee.

Mrs. H. L. Richey, Miss Mary Richey, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Culver were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Truesdale in Rock Hill.

Mrs. H. C. Mills, Jr., and Mrs. R. L. Barnhardt, of Durham, N. C. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCaskill on Wednesday of this past week.

American Consul General Homer Brett, enroute to his home at Meridian, Miss., was the week end guest of Col. and Mrs. E. C. VonTroscow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lane Woodcock announce the birth of a son on February 31, at the Camden hospital. He has been named Joseph Lane Woodcock, II.

Captain and Mrs. Brevard Boykin and their daughter, Aldret, who are now stationed at Ft. Benning in Columbus, Ga., spent the weekend with relatives here.

A Fletcher Spigner, popular solicitor of the Fifth circuit, was in Camden Wednesday visiting friends and looking after the state's interests in the approaching term of criminal court.

Blue-Kahrs Wedding

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity, was solemnized in the winter home of Captain and Mrs. H. O. Berry, in Camden, S. C., uniting in holy wedlock Lieutenant James M. Blue and Miss Norma Jean Kahrs, of Sedalia, Missouri.

The ceremony was performed by Captain, Roy Reynolds, regimental chaplain of the 128th Field Artillery. The attendants were Captain Harry O. Berry and Mrs. Milton Matthews, wife of Lieutenant Milton Matthews, of the 128th Field Artillery.

The bride, a lovely brunette, was attired in a costume of aqua blue with black accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Milton Matthews was attired in soldier blue, with black accessories and wore a corsage of Tallman roses.

The home was beautifully decorated with a southern variety of palms and evergreens. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at which the bride cut the wedding cake with the regimental sabre, with everyone standing at attention.

Attending the semi-military wedding were Captain and Mrs. Harry O. Berry, Captain and Mrs. Earl W. Bacon and daughter, Sandra; Captain and Mrs. Ray Reynolds and son, Robert; Lieut. and Mrs. Milton Matthews and sons, Billie, Bobbie and Skeetie; Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin Moehle, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Hassett, Lieut. and Mrs. Oscar Fetters, Lieut. and Mrs. Lieut. J. H. Asbette and Mrs. William Chick, Sergeant Shelby, Sergeant Grishkat and Private Jens.

In a flourish of rice and old shoes, the bride and groom left for a seven days honeymoon in Florida.

Had Birthday Party

Skippy Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, celebrated his sixth birthday Saturday afternoon by inviting a group of his friends to a party given at his home, at the Kirkwood Hotel.

Hostess To Club

Mrs. Ralph Shannon entertained the members of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon and invited Mrs. Clifton Richards and Mrs. Roland Goodale to play for absent members. The party was given at the hostess' home on Fair Street and after the game tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodale Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Goodale entertained on Friday evening last at dinner preceding the President's Birthday Ball, at the Sarsfield Club. Covers were set for thirty guests in the North room of the club. Decorating the table were lovely vases of red and white carnations, narcissi, and delphinium, with favors in red, white, and blue.

Returns From India

Miss Miriam Bruce, who has been in India for the past five years has returned to Camden. She landed in New York last Sunday, the trip having been made on the S. S. President Pierce. The young lady was on the high seas six weeks and three days. Miss Bruce is the daughter of Dr. T. B. Bruce and has been stationed at Surat, India, in the missionary field.

Was Bridge Hostess

Mrs. D. A. Boykin entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home on Lytleton Street at bridge for Miss Virginia Green, a newcomer to Camden. Among the twelve players invited for bridge were: Mrs. Windham Manning, of Stateburg; Mrs. Marlon Coles, of Boston; Mrs. Lella B. Kirkland, of Old Lyme, Conn. Mrs. Kirkland was the high score winner and a gift was presented the honor guest. Additional guests were invited for tea later in the afternoon. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. William Capehart and Mrs. Ruben Pitts, who presided at the tea and coffee services and also by Mrs. Bolivar Boykin and Mrs. Charles Zemp.

SPOTLIGHTING WINTER ACTIVITIES

Mrs. H. Granger Gaither, of Westbury, L. I., and F. M. Rhodes, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., teamed together to take top honors in the mixed foursome play of the annual weekly golf tournament at the Kirkwood course last Sunday. The couple shot a gross 92 which with a handicap of 21, gave them the low net of 71.

Mrs. Elizabeth Porter and Frank Wooten, both of Camden, finished second with a net of 76, while three couples, Miss Peggy Wing, of Westbury, and Herbert Bryant, of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Rodney S. Jarvis, of Great Barrington, and Chris Wood, Jr., of Washington; and Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Smith, of Paul Smith's, New York, and Camden; all finished with a net of 77 to tie for third place.

Sunday another mixed foursome event will be played on the course and Monday the golfers will have a kickers tournament.

Sunday at the No. 1 field, one of the classic events of the season in the polo circles will be played when North meets South in what promises to be one of the largest attended games in Camden polo history.

Instead of guns and sabers the riders of the North and South will battle with mallets. Cyril Harrison, ace player of the Pegausus team of Long Island polo excellence will captain the Federals and will have three members of Essex troop team, of Newark, N. J., to complete his foursome. The southern gallants who will oppose the Yankees will be chosen from the members of the Camden polo club.

Camden polo is experiencing one of the most successful seasons in the several score of years the sport has been king in Camden. Crowds of several thousand people have witnessed the last four games and with the arrival of more temperate weather the polo club looks for an even greater turnout of fans. In a recent game, traffic police reported cars from 21 states parked in the area.

Since the opening of the social season, February 1, the Kirkwood grille has been the central scene of action with tri-weekly broadcasts during the tea dance hour and the Wednesday evening bingo parties. Among the players at Wednesday's bingo were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cartwright, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moffit, of New Haven; and Mrs. T. M. Girdler's dinner guests, Mrs. William F. Buckley and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carrison. A treasure hunt, followed by dancing, will be held in the grille

Met With Mrs. Wooten

Mrs. Frank Wooten, Jr. was hostess to the club of which she is a member, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Milton Smith was the only additional player, and when refreshments were served after the game, the hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Whit Boykin.

Mrs. Bates Was Hostess

Mrs. W. W. Bates entertained her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Exchange Tea Room. Mrs. A. K. Blakeney was high scorer and additional guests were: Mrs. Alice Marye and Mrs. George Brunson.

Club Met at Exchange

On Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Exchange Tea Room, Miss Ethel Ann Mauldin entertained the Tri Gamma club of the Camden High School of which Miss Betty Blakeney is president.

Mrs. Sanders Entertains

A lovely tea was given by Mrs. Julian Sanders at her home at Hagood Monday afternoon. Among those attending from Camden were: Mrs. J. H. Guthrie, Mrs. W. D. Goodale, Mrs. M. G. Muller, Mrs. Hubert Wilson and Mrs. J. L. Willford.

Hosts at Buffet Supper

Prior to the President's Ball Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Dess Goodale entertained at their home on Broad Street for twenty-five friends. Supper was served buffet amid table decorations of patriotic effect.

For Church Benefit

The annual card party for the benefit of the Catholic church (Our Lady of Perpetual Help) will be held Monday, February 17, at 2:30 p. m. at The Kirkwood Hotel. Tables can be obtained from Mrs. Woods Robinson, north Lytleton Street.

To Meet This Afternoon

The Aleatheatn Class will hold their monthly meeting Friday evening, February 7, at 7:30, at the former Baptist parsonage. All members are cordially invited to come.

Birthday Ball Held at Court Inn
The President's Birthday Ball was danced at the Court Inn on Friday evening January 31. The dining room of the hotel was used for the occasion and was appropriately decorated. Tables were arranged about the dance floor to accommodate the guests.

Leon H. Schlosburg was master of ceremonies. Prizes were offered for answers to various questions propounded by the master of ceremonies and were donated by the merchants of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLoache were awarded first prize for the waltz competition, and William L. Goodale and Mrs. Milton Smith were awarded second prize.

The occasion was very successful and the money derived from the dance will be used to help crippled children suffering from the effects of poliomyelitis.

Saturday night. Plans are under way for the schooling show ball on February 15.

The first weekly Sunday evening concert was held in the Kirkwood music room by the hotel orchestra.

A group of Kirkwood guests and colonists joined in a picnic lunch preceding the last dove shoot of the season, January 31. Among the shooters were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney S. Jarvis, Dr. and Mrs. John Victor, Capt. and Mrs. Dwight Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Smith, Mrs. Orlando N. Dana, Mrs. Dennison D. Dana, Mrs. James H. Worcester, Mrs. Bert C. Thayer, and Miss Helen Hawthorne.

Mrs. Theodora Roosevelt, Sr., of Oyster Bay, Long Island arrived today to spend her second season at The Kirkwood. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Ruthrauff, of Red Bank, N. J. arrived a week ago to occupy the Bolton cottage for the balance of the season. Mrs. Everett Currier, of West Port, Conn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruthrauff. Miss Wilhemine S. Kirby left for New York on Sunday, February 2, for a few days. Mrs. Fay Ingalls of Hot Springs, Va. arrived this week to remain for several weeks. Miss Peggy Wing gave a cocktail party at her home on Sunday afternoon, February 2.

Mrs. Minnie L. Bishop, of Bronxville, N. Y., arrived at The Kirkwood this week. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Percival, of Boston, Mass., will be at The Kirkwood today, February 8, on their way to Florida but will return early in March for the balance of the season. Mr. Edgar Bowne, of New York, registered at The Kirkwood on Sunday, February 9, to remain for the rest of the shooting season.

Other arrivals at the Kirkwood are Mr. G. R. Stark, of New York, Mrs. Warring E. Lawrence and Miss M. G. Baldwin, of Roselle, N. J.; Lt. Col. and Mrs. W. H. Clifford, of Catlands, Va.; Mr. Preston J. Beale, of St. Paul, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Summit E. Bowne, of Larchmont, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. David Crook, of Greensburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Easton, of Argola, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. F. Douglas Foster, of Red Bank, N. J., and Mr. Maurice Halpin, Sr., of Freeport, L. I.

Fine Shirting for your New Tailored Classic by MAULLEN

The new resort collection of this well-known maker of fine tailored shirts and sports dresses features the typical shirtings ever dear to American sportswomen. Beautifully tailored by the same expert needleworkers whose art imparts to every dress a distinction all its own. No sports wardrobe is complete without them! We invite your early selection.

EXCLUSIVE WITH RAZOOK'S IMPORTERS, Inc. KIRKWOOD HOTEL

CAMDEN, S. C.

Outz-Hammond

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Christine Outz and Frank Hammond, Saturday, January 25. The pastor of the Camden Baptist church performed the ceremony at the parsonage in the presence of the immediate families and friends.

Prior to the ceremony Danny Fordham, of Rentz, Ga., sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" accompanied on the piano by M. W. Outz also of Rentz. During the ceremony "Largo" was softly played.

The bride and groom entered unattended. Mrs. Hammond was dressed in a navy blue and white spring outfit and her corsage was of gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hammond left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home at 123 DeKalb street, this city.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Outz, of Greenwood. She was educated in the schools of that city and after graduation attended the Waldrop Beauty Culture Academy, of Greenville.

Mr. Hammond is the son of J. H. Hammond, of this city. He was educated in the city schools and is now connected with the Liberty Life Insurance Company.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Outz, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Eddy, Misses Marie Outz and Marian Seigler, of Greenwood; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Outz, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, of Lancaster; M. W. Outz and Danny Fordham, of Rentz, Ga.

SPRING TONIC FOR YOUR WARDROBE

NEW COTTON DRESSES THE SMARTEST STYLES IN TOWN!

JUVENILE WASH SUITS

98c

Gay New Models!

Jimmies, Etons, flapperettes in cool cotton fabrics! Sizes 3-8.

OTHER BIG VALUES

Sturdy cotton weaves in two-tone combinations! 49c

WOMEN'S HANDBAGS

All the new spring styles in simulated leathers! 98c

GAYMODE HOSIERY

Sheer and service weights in clear silk, reinforced! 79c

WOMEN and MISSES

Blouses

Of lustrous rayon in new Spring shades! 98c

Rayon Panties

Our famous Adonna quality reinforced crotch - long-wearing, yet dainty and attractive. 49c

Girls' Tub

FROCKS

98c

Adorable! Practical! Well made! Even daughter shares in this big event! 3-16.

Lots More at 49c

Cunning girlish styles for school, play, everyday!

Many Other Unusual Buys! 49c

Springtime prints in tub-fast cotton charmers! 42-52!

MEN'S MATCHED SETS

1.98

A REAL VALUE!

Shirts 89c - Pants $1.09

BOYS' SWEATERS

Colorful two-tone models with Talon fronts! $1.49

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

Supreme comfort! Soft kid in black or white. $1.98

Women's Gowns

Heavy Outing Flannel. Sizes 16 to 20 - Full cut. 44c

BIG SUPER-ABSORBENT TERRY

Bath Towels

25c

These smartly checked bath towels are really "finds" at such a price! Good heavy-weight and reversible! In lovely bathroom colors. Size 22in.x44in.

5 PERCENT WOOL

Blankets

$1.98

A sensational bargain! In lovely pastel plaids with matching 3 in. sateen binding. Buy your extra blankets now and save at Penney's.

PENNEY'S J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Inc.

SPECIAL OFFER

Dorothy Perkins WEATHER LOTION

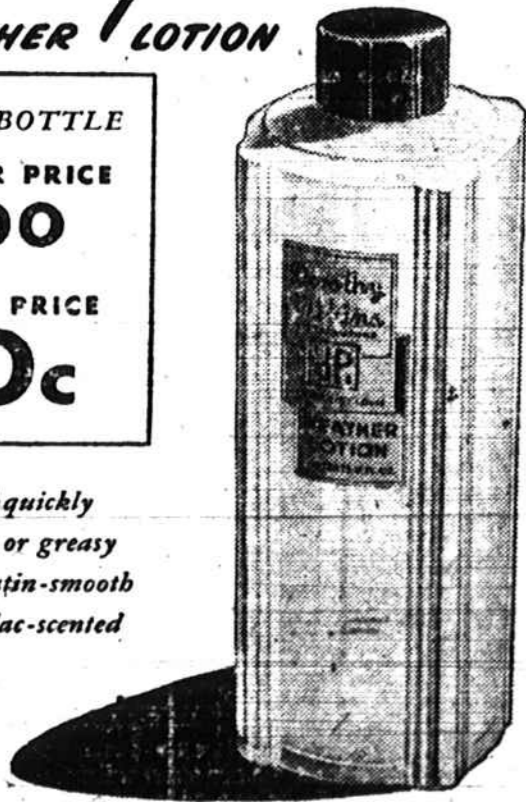

BIG 8-oz. BOTTLE

REGULAR PRICE

$1.00

SPECIAL PRICE

50c

Dries very quickly
Never sticky or greasy
Leaves skin satin-smooth
Delicately lilac-scented

Save by ordering a full winter's supply! Special price for 15 days only!

BELK'S DEPT. STORE

CAMDEN, S. C.