

Personals and Society

Mrs. Maxine Nettles, Society Editor Phone 181

Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Hinson are at Myrtle Beach for a two weeks vacation.

Miss Doris Workman of Columbia, who spent the week-end in Camden, with her family.

Mrs. Harvin Smith and Miss Anna Watts are visiting friends at Myrtle Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Hugh Billups and son, Hugh Frank, have returned from a vacation spent at Pawleys Island.

Henry P. Bolte of Marietta, Ga., spent the week-end in Camden with his wife at the Hotel Camden.

George Chewning who is with the U. S. Army Engineers at North, visited his family here this week.

Joining hundreds of others recently visiting Silver Springs, Fla., was Mrs. Nellie Holland of Camden.

Misses Barbara and Peggy Dixon of Myrtle Beach, are spending some time with friends and relatives here.

Miss Mary Cook of Sumter, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Evelyn Cook at the Ivy Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Merrill returned from Mooresville, where they spent their vacation with their parents.

Miss Caroline P. Richardson, 1517 Myrtle street, is a guest at the New Weston hotel in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lee Mays and children have returned from a week's stay at Cheraw State Park.

Miss Doris Smoke of Walterboro, is the guest of her brother, Harold Smoke, and Mrs. Smoak, N. Mill St.

Miss Caroline Richardson, Lyttleton street, returned on Tuesday from her vacation spent in New York and New England.

Charles R. Kirkland of Brunswick, Ga., was called home on Saturday by the illness of his father, Shannon Kirkland.

Netta Mae and Margaret Catoe have just returned from Portsmouth, Va., where they visited their brother, P. C. Catoe.

Mrs. J. Arch Sterne, Hotel Camden, has returned from a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. G. Witten, in Bluefield, W. Va.

Mrs. Fred Parham (Gladys West) and children of Oxford, N. C., is spending a few days with relatives in Camden and Midway.

Mrs. A. E. McMillan of Columbia, is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. George T. Little, and Mr. Little, Jordan street.

Rev. and Mrs. James-Troy Godwin and family of Travelers Rest, spent the week-end with Rev. Godwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Godwin.

Rev. J. B. Caston, pastor of the Camden Baptist church, is spending two weeks in Spartanburg at a conference in the interest of the Baptist hospital.

Mr. C. E. Davis of Hermitage Mill section, is a guest at the Arlington hotel in Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. Davis is connected with Sparrow & Davis Food Store of this city.

Dr. and Mrs. Otis Creed are spending sometime here with Mr. and Mrs. George Creed, DeKalb street. Dr. Creed is doing relief work at the Camden hospital for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collins and family are vacationing in the mountains of North Carolina. They will spend some time at Lake Junaluska at the Methodist assembly there.

Mrs. Hester Moore, who has served as relief operator at the Western Union for the past two weeks during the absence of Mr. May, the manager, returned to her home in Orangeburg Wednesday.

Mrs. H. C. Mill, Jr., and daughter, Cora, and Mrs. Dot Mill, sister-in-law of Mrs. Mill, all of Durham, N. C., spent the week-end with Mrs. Mill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCaskill, of this city.

Lt. and Mrs. H. M. Williams and son, are spending a few days with Mrs. Williams mother, Mrs. R. L. Mosley. Lt. Williams has just returned from North Africa, after serving his foreign mission.

Captain Ben W. Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Heath, Hampton avenue, has been appointed base engineering officer at Shaw Field, according to announcement from that basic training post.

Mrs. W. A. Mullen who has been spending several months with her relatives and friends in New Orleans and Houston, Texas, returned this week to the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Mullen, and Mr. Mullen, at Mulhall, Broad street.

Mrs. Carrie Wooten and Mrs. Pamela Thomas returned Saturday from Western North Carolina, where they spent several days with friends on a motor trip, visiting Hendersonville, Asheville and other points.

Mrs. R. E. Watkins (Edna Mosley) is visiting her husband, Pfc. R. E. Watkins, in Little Rock, Arkansas. Pfc. Watkins is in the Medical detachment. Mrs. Watkins intends to stay until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wooten of Cassatt, had a their guest recently, their son, Pfc. Lucas V. Wooten, from the U. S. Marines. After a brief visit with his parents, Pfc. Wooten went to visit his wife in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. E. Bates, the Cedars and Pines, left on Monday for Fort Benning, Ga., to visit her sister, Mrs. Oran Hydrick. She was accompanied by her nephew, Billy Heath, who has been spending the summer with her. Rev. and Mrs. A. Douglas McArn left on Monday for the mountains of North Carolina, where they will spend the next two weeks. They were accompanied as far as Asheville by Mrs. T. Lee Little, who will visit relatives there.

Corp. Laurie West, Marine corps, who is stationed at New River, N. C., spent a few days in Cassatt and Camden with relatives. She is the first member of the Marines from this section and was most attractive in her becoming uniform.

Lieut. Henry Clausen, formerly civilian flight instructor at the Southern Aviation school, has been ordered to Shaw Field as an instructor in basic flying. He has been at Maxwell Field, Ala., since obtaining his release from the 64th AAFTD. Lieut. Clausen visited friends here on Tuesday evening.

Cpl. A. D. Moore, who is in the administration branch of the Royal Air Force at Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, has been spending his furlough here with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McKain. He was a cadet at the Southern Aviation school with the first class of British cadets sent to this country for training in our air force.

CROSBY-WEST
On Saturday, August 14, 1943, Miss Mary Helen Crosby of Islandton became the bride of Mr. Nathaniel C. West of Cassatt. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Crosby of Islandton, but she has been making her home for some time in Charleston. Mr. West is the son of Mr. W. N. and the late Mrs. West of Cassatt. He is now with the U. S. Navy at Bainsbridge, Md. The marriage was performed in Camden by Probate Judge N. C. Arnett, a close friend of the family.

This marriage is of much interest to many friends and relatives in Kershaw county and throughout South Carolina. Only a few of the close relatives attended the ceremony.

CAMDEN WOMAN RECEIVES HONOR
Mrs. Leslie G. Whitaker of Camden, and member of the Hobkirk Hill chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution, wrote a story of Pocahontas, the famous Indian Princess. The story was sent to the Reviewing committee for inclusion in the National Lending and Filing bureau. Historical papers are sent in from chapters all over the U. S. A.

Mrs. Whitaker has just been notified that her story has been accepted by the National committee, which is considered a very great honor.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Master Sidney Zemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney T. Zemp, N. Mill street, played host to 25 of his playmates Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The occasion was the 6th birthday of this popular little gentleman. Games were played and at six o'clock Mrs. Zemp invited the young guests into the screened porch where a beautifully decorated table centered with a birthday cake with six yellow candles was cut by Little Sidney and served to his guests by his mother, Mrs. Robin Zemp, his grandmother and his aunt, Mrs. Harold McNinch. Green and yellow was carried out in the favors and in the cups holding ice cream.

Camden Girl Is Wedded to Lieut.

AMES-KNOBLOCK
Quaint little Bethesda Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday evening, August 14, at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Patricia Ames of Miami, Fla., and Baldwin L. L., became the bride of Lt. Bruce D. Knoblock of the Southern Aviation school and Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin. The pastor, Rev. A. Douglas McArn, using the double ring ceremony, officiated in the presence of the immediate families and fellow officers and their wives.

The church was beautifully decorated with Southern smilax, standing baskets of white flowers and seven-branched candelabras holding white cathedral tapers.

Before the ceremony Mrs. C. G. Knoblock, mother of the bridegroom, and a former concert soloist sang "Because." She was accompanied by Mrs. A. Douglas McArn, organist. The traditional wedding marches were played.

The bride, a charming brunette, was lovely in a two piece suit of white pebble crepe with embroidered motifs. With this she wore a starched calot of white pique with short white veil. Her accessories were white and her flowers were a shower bouquet of white gladioli and freesias. She was given in marriage by her father, Charles P. Ames. Miss Antoinette Ames, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of aqua blue crepe with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of Richmond Red roses.

Lt. Henry C. Benitez, classmate of Lt. Knoblock at the Southern Aviation school, was best man.

Mrs. Ames, mother of the bride, was gowned in a poudre blue crepe dress with matching straw sailor and a corsage of yellow tea roses. Mrs. Knoblock, mother of the groom, wore a suit of navy blue and white polka-dotted shoe, navy blue accessories and her flowers were pink rose buds.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ames entertained at an informal reception in the dining room at the Hotel Camden. Punch was served from a tastefully appointed table centered with a crystal bowl of white altheas and Shasta daisies and flanked by white tapers in double crystal holders. A decorated wedding cake was cut by Lt. Knoblock and his bride and served to their guests.

Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Miss Rosa Lee Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Jordan of Fair street, to Lt. Victor Marturano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Marturano of Montclair, N. J., at Rapid City, South Dakota, July 3. The ceremony took place at the Methodist church chapel, Rev. Carl Stromberg officiating.

Attending the couple at the ceremony were the mother of the bridegroom and Lt. and Mrs. Frank D. Barron of Charleston, W. Va.

The bride was attired in a two-piece frock of navy blue with neck-line and bracelet-length sleeves being edged in white. Navy accessories and a gardenia corsage completed her costume.

The bride was a former resident of the DeKalb section and of this city. She was a graduate of Baron DeKalb High school and following her school career she has been employed in the traffic department of the Southern Bell Telephone company.

The groom was formerly employed by the Wright aeronautical corporation and is now stationed at Rapid City air base.

The young couple are making their home at 430 East North street, Rapid City, S. D.

Mrs. Knoblock is a graduate of Scudder school, N. Y., and has been employed as an interpreter for the United States government.

Lt. Knoblock attended Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and the University of Puerto Rico.

They will be at home at their apartment at the Court Inn for the remainder of Lt. Knoblock's primary training.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Ames of Miami, Fla., parents of the bride, Mrs. C. G. Knoblock of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., mother of the groom, Miss Antoinette Ames of Miami, Fla., and Pvt. Ames of Ft. Jackson.

Bermuda was settled in 1609 by a party of colonists, under Sir George Somers, who were shipwrecked en route to Virginia.

BACK TO SCHOOL FASHIONS

The latest in Skirts and Blouses—All sizes—All styles—Practical school apparel.

Skirts $1.98 to $2.95
Others at $3.95
Blouses 69c

For The Pigtail Crowd

These clothes have been carefully picked—slow to look soiled, easy to keep looking fresh—and long wearing quality. After mother lets down all the hems she can from last year's clothes—if you still need more, these are honeys!

Cotton Print Dresses—Designed for School Wear

$1.49 to $1.98

Little Sister Pastel
Cotton With Dainty Trimmed Collar

Smart Stripes and Shantung Always Serviceable

$1.49 to $2.95

Cotton Pinafores—For Small Children 98c to $1.59
Efficient Percalés—Always Popular For School Wear $1.49 to $2.95

Belk's

PRINCESS BAKE WARE—Complete Line With Dainty Designs.

Casserole, Pie Plates, Salad Bowl, Cake Plates, Stove Sets, Water Pitchers, Refrigerator Bowls.

TRUEMAID HAMMOCK

Gay Colors—Durable Material
$4.49 and $5.49

There is nothing quite so comfortable as a Truemaid Hammock for a nap or a sun bath.

Western Auto Associate Store
"Everything For The Car"
HOME OWNED BY
W.R. BOWDEN
F. C. Mossley, Mgr. 915 Broad Street

CHALLENGE LINOLEUM

9 x 12

$6.95 (reduced to) $5.98

Beautiful Patterns
Come Early For Your Choice

Economy Auto Supply

946 Broad Street Phone 11