A Recent Bride

Mrs. Edward Eugene Lee, the former Miss Laura Jo Watkins, whose marriage to Mr. Lee was solemnized Feb. 11. Mrs. Lee is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watkins, of Camden. Mr. Lee is the son of Mrs. E. E. Lee and the late Mr. Lee, also of Camden.

Mrs. Will Bradham Is Hostess At Bridge Party

Mrs. Will Bradham gave a pretty party at her apartment on N. Broad street on last Wednesday afternoon.

Guests were served a delicious dessert course upon arriving and a cold drink was served during the afternoon. Many arrangements of early summer flowers were used in the living room, where the two tables of bridge were in play. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ralph E. Stevenson, Jr., for high score, Mrs. Vernon Haslam (Caroline Boykin) for low score and the bingo prize was awarded Mrs. Nettles Myers.

Mrs. Bradham was assisted by her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. C. Bradham.

Invited were Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Haslam, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. John Stover, Mrs. M. E. Moody, Mrs. Lane Woodcock and Mrs. Lesta D. Clarke.

Miss Cary Guthrie Is Again Complimented

Miss Cary Guthrie, bride-elect of June 4, was complimented on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Mrs. W. J. Barton and Miss Francis Rhame with a bridge party at Thomas Tavern.

Effective arrangements of sparkle berries and cut flowers were used on the megganine floor where the four tables were in play.

The honor guests place was marked by a wedding slipper filled with pansies and the hostesses presented her with a piece of silver in her chosen pattern as a guest prize. Other prizes were won by Mrs. J. H. Guthrie for high score and Mrs. N. P. Gettys, Jr., for the bingo prize.

A dessert course and coffee was served.

Fields Entertain At A Supper Party

Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Fields entertained on last Saturday evening with a supper party at their home in Kirkwood Circle.

A chicken supper was served buffet style in the garden to the 52 invited guests.

Mrs. M. M. Julian (Elizabeth Jackson) of Panama Canal Zone was a special guest.

Following supper the Fields and their guests attended the weekly "Open House" of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at their club house at Woodward Airport.

Mrs. Fields was assisted in serving by Mrs. Everett Montgomery, Mrs. James W. Stuart and Mrs. J. B. Kelly.

Benefit Bridge Party Given By Hobkirk Hill Chapter Of The D.A.R.

The benefit bridge party, sponsored by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Cooke on Greene street, was one of the loveliest affairs ever to be held in Camden.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. W. F. Nettles, Mrs. J. L. Guy, Mrs. George S. Barnes and Mrs. U. N. Myers, and shown to the card rooms where 18 tables were in play.

Many of the members of the DAR entertained at bridge on this occasion, among those being Mrs. C. Grainger Kornegay, Mrs. William L. Goodale, Mrs. J. L. Guy, who honored Miss Cary Guthrie, bride-elect, and a number of card clubs, also kept their groups.

During the afternoon little Miss Mary Jo Upchurch, daughter of the organizing secretary for the children of the American Revolution, dressed in a quaint "grab-bag" costume of cretonne with shoe-pockets sewed all around for the surprises, gave her proceeds to the chapter fund. This will be used for renovation of the local South Carolina Room at Continental Hall for the proposed marker at the Hobkirk Hill Battlefield and for the school at Tamassee.

At the conclusion of the card games prizes were awarded Mrs. Joseph B. Kelly for the highest score; Mrs. Lindsay Pierce for the second, highest score, the slam prize to Mrs. James W. Stuart, consolation prize to Mrs. William B. Pitts and the door prizes were won by Mrs. Warren G. Harris and Mrs. Clyde Gobel.

Over 50 persons called at the tea hour and were served delicious lime sherbert punch, sandwiches, small cakes and cookies and mints from a beautifully appointed table in the dining room and one on the veranda. The table in the dining room was centered with an exquisite antique silver urn filled with white gladioli, white iris, yellow roses and Easter Reed daisies. Tall green tapers, in silver holders and Dresden candy dishes holding green and white mints completed the table arrangement.

The two punch bowls, one at each end of banquet table, were presided over by Mrs. Cooke, the hostess, and by Mrs. Wm. L. Goodale, while Mrs. Ike Sanders presided at the tea table on the porch.

Members of the DAR chapter assisted in serving.

General chairman for this successful affair was Mrs. John F. Wall with the assistance of Mrs. U. N. Myers, Mrs. E. S. Steadmon, Mrs. C. G. Kornegay, Mrs. Wm. Whitaker, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. M. Pomyea, Mrs. George S. Barnes, Mrs. Ike Sanders, Mrs. W. F. Nettles and Mrs. George R. Cook.

Mrs. E. C. vonTresckow, regent, thanked her group chairman and her chapter for their splendid work and expressed her appreciation for the donations of flowers, prizes and food.
