COMMUNION.—Holders to let, to a fair life tenant, terms easy, somewhat dis-lipidated, but can be looked by a single Key, possession given at once. Apply at this office.

TAX EXEMPTIONS.—The County Treasurer sent out excursions against delinquent tax-payers yesterday. They numbered six hundred and three, all told, and are mostly servant men who have failed to pay poll taxes. This is the least number since 1871 since the war and would have been still smaller but for the exodus from the Savannah River side.

GOING TO HIS GRAVE.—Rev. Marcus A.
McKibbin died of pneumonia at his home in Barwell on Sunday morning at a ripe old age. From early manhood he had been a devoted minister of the M. E. Church, South, and only a few years ago, when age and its infirmities rendered him unable to discharge the arduous duties of the itinerary, he was placed on the supernumerary list, a veteran who had done his life work well. After exercises conducted by Rev. A.
T. J. Clyde and F. F. Kistler his mortal remains were laid to their last rest in the Baptist cemetery on Monday afternoon to await the resurrection of the just.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever B-tes, Tetter, Chopped Hands, Chilblains Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money re-funded. Price 25 cents per box. For Sale by W. S. Eaves.

LEES.—Married on Sunday the 23d inst., at the residence of Mr. J. B. Rhoad, the bride's uncle, by Rev. W. D. Rice, Mr. J. B.
Gilliam and Miss Lizzie Cornish. The happy groom is one of our most promising and progressive young men and has won a bride worthy of himself.—Mr. W. K. Morrison has sold his agricultural and mercantile interests to Mr. J. B. Gilliam and associated himself with his brother, Mr. J.
L. Morrison of Blackville.—Mr. Willis Wood has returned from Georgia and taken an interest in Mr. J. N. Wood's mercantile business.—Many earnest courtships are in progress with prospects of early and numerous marriages.—Torne.

PERSONAL.—Miss Mattie Lou Kenneday and Eunice Westenberg, of Williston, will go to the Greenville Female College next Monday.—Gen. M. L. Penman, Jr., "looking every inch a soldier," spent Sunday at "the Oaks,"—and Childs, of Columbia, spent Sunday in Barwell, the guest of Gov. Hargood.—Rev. and Mrs. B. W.
Barwell will visit their kindred at Edge Springs this week and next.—Mr. and Mrs.
A. B. Zisset left Barwell on the 23th inst., for Baltimore, where they will make their home.—Col. G. E. Sawyer spent Monday and Tuesday in town.—Probate Judge Os-ton, of Aiken, was in town on Tuesday, Judge E. McKibbin, of Kentucky, arrived in Barwell on Monday morning.— Jas. E. Davis, Esq., was able to ride out on Tuesday, but still suffers great pain in his right arm.

HAPPY HEARTS.—A long pending suit reached a happy termination in Barwell yesterday afternoon. By consent of both plaintiff and defendant the Rev. P. F. Kistler pronounced the judgment of the court and, by virtue of his high commission, united Mr. N. G. W. Walker, and Miss Maggie I. daughter of the late Mr. J. W. Molman, in the holy, indissoluble bonds of matrimony and sanctioned both to personal happiness.

AND THE BARKWELL PEOPLE.—The people of Barwell combine in unanimous chorus of congratulation and good wishes for the fair future fortunes of the young favorites whose lives have been so suspiciously jaded. And if any mortals ever deserved perfect happiness, the golden-hearted friend of our boyhood and his charming bride are worthy of kisses radiant with life long sunshine and unmarred by even a passing cloud-shadow. May the coming years be very kind to them.

Most Excellent.
J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friend to whom I have recommended it, presents every opportunity." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup and every affection of Throat, Chest and Lungs.
Trial Bottles Free at W. S. Eaves's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

If a bedstead creaks at each movement of the sleeper, remove the slats and wrap the end of each in oil newspaper. This will prove a complete silencer.
An excellent remedy for hiccough For young and old is granulated sugar m-mixed with pure vinegar. For an infant, give from a few grains to a teaspoonful.

An End to Home Scurrying.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Buckley's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."
Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Buckley's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by W. S. Eaves, Barwell, Dr. Stephens, Blackville.

Notice to Creditors of the Estate of B. F. Rice, Deceased.

E. E. Wood, E. F. Rice et al, Defendants, ALSO,
J. B. Zetts, Plaintiff, vs.
W. Gilmore Simms as Administrator of the estate of B. F. Rice, deceased, Defendant.

Pursuant to an order made in the above entitled causes on the 6th day of November, 1886, by the Hon. L. B. Witherspoon, presiding Judge, all creditors of the estate of B. F. Rice, deceased, are hereby notified and required to present and establish their claims against said estate before me at my office in Barwell on Friday, the 15th day of February, 1887.

tions of adjacent counties that trade at Blackville for the celebrated Geiser Steam Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills and Machinery's supplies.
Also, the Cottontail Cotton Gin, the best in use.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, shifty weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y. of exactly three years, and is prepared to supply the public with the best Ales, Beers, Wines, Brandies and Whiskies in the county—for medicinal and convivial uses. The purity and peaceful uses of all liquors are fully guaranteed and people who are hunting for headaches and disturbances are advised to buy elsewhere, for I keep no such mischief making fluids in stock.

If among my audience there are any who hesitate to accept my assurances, they are cordially invited to constitute themselves committees of investigation and come and examine for themselves.
They will find, as did the Queen of Sheba, that the half has not been told them, of the best, oldest, purest and most gentlemanly liquors in Barwell.

In addition I have a well selected stock of General Merchandise and a splendid line of timely Agricultural Hardware and Implements, bridle and shuck collars, plow lines, bars, &c.

$50 FROM ONE TREE.

Large Pecan Trees yield annual incomes of twenty-five to fifty dollars.
The home of this most profitable nut is in the Southern and Western States, but it succeeds admirably in many of the Northern States. The PECAN thrives wherever the Hickory grows.
Every farmer in the South should have a Pecan grove of ten to twenty trees.
I am now selling fine trees of the best and earliest bearing variety two and three years old, at the following prices:
From 1 to 19.....$1.40 each.
" 20 to 25....." 1.50 "
" 26 to 30....." 1.60 "
" 31 to 40....." 1.70 "

Elko Excelsior.

TO THE PEOPLE:
Reason why you should buy goods from me as plentiful as blackberries in June or watermelons in August, but I will only suggest a few which will set you to thinking and result in convincing you of your duty and my desire: Respectfully, JOS. B. HAIR.

Firstly. A new store has new goods and no shop worn stuff that has been handled and handed around since the Revolutionary War is peddled off on customers.
Secondly. A new merchant has to build up a new trade. He has no customers handpicked with lions, mortgages, bills of sale and other obligations.
Thirdly. A young merchant can only draw trade by deservit. He must sell for less profit than the patriarchs, give good weight and measure and by just dealing compete with men who have learned by actual experience the art and outs of business.
Fourthly. He doesn't know all the tricks of the trade by which the veterans profit and their customers come to grief.
And lastly. If you want more reasons come to see me and I will prove by simple arithmetic that it will be to your interest to trade with Yours Truly,
