

A PROHIBITION ANTHEM.

I stood in the shade of the tall green tree with the bright sun overhead. And I heard the sound of the busy bees. As they droned over the wild thyme bed, And I reached above for the great brown cord.

Rechoes of the Civil War.

Chancellorsville Recalled After 11 Years.

Those who take any interest in the great events of the war between the States will always dwell upon the battle of Chancellorsville as the occasion above all others where, crowded into two or three days, more history was made than ever before or since in the life of the nation.

PLEA FOR PEACE IN CAROLINA.

LETTERS BY SECRETARY TINDAL AND GEN. FARLEY. THEY COUNCIL THE ANTS TO WAIT TWO YEARS. Gen. Farley's Severe Denunciation of the Men Who Control.

THE NAVAL OBSERVATORY.

Secretary Herbert Ends the War Between Officers and Scientific Men. Washington, Sept. 23.—Secretary Herbert has settled a naval squabble today by issuing an order completely reorganizing the Naval Observatory, where all nautical instruments are verified.

MEYERS BROUGHT TO ATLANTA.

HE STICKS TO HIS STORY OF THE CRIME. TWO ATTEMPTS TO LYON HIM FRUSTRATED. One of Them in the Vicinity of the City of Atlanta.

NORTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS.

A Great Day, With the Best of Democratic Speakers. Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—This morning there arrived on the Atlanta special the following gentlemen, who came here for the purpose of attending the meeting of the State Democratic Association of Clubs, which met here today in the Academy of Music.

DETAILS OF THE CYCLONE.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED PEOPLE LOST THEIR LIVES. THE PROPERTY LOSS IS NOT LESS THAN $1,000,000. The Path of the Storm Was Comparatively Narrow.

SHOT THE TEACHER.

A Fatal Rivalry Between Arkansas Educators. Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 23.—At an early hour yesterday morning at Texarkana, O. L. Bryant, president of the Texarkana Interstate Normal and Business College, shot and mortally wounded Professor Geo. F. Ellis, a former teacher in the college, and at present the principal of a private school.

BROKE HIS NECK.

Judge Thurston, a Descendant of Miles Standish. Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—Judge Arlie Standish Thurston, of Elmira, N. Y., fell down a stair way at the residence of his granddaughter, Mrs. James Gayley, at West Bradock, at 1 o'clock this morning and broke his neck. Mr. Thurston was not getting out of bed to read. He was heard to leave his room and presumably for the purpose of selecting a book from the library.

NEW ORLEANS.

PERE LANE IN NEW ORLEANS. New Orleans, La., Sept. 23.—Fire broke out early this evening in the yard of the Queen & Crescent Railroad company, and damaged to the extent of $20,000 was done. The passenger and freight depots, seven box cars and some merchandise was destroyed.

THEY WILL DISCUSS A LABOR FEDERATION.

Baltimore, Sept. 23.—The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen began today a two days' celebration of the eleventh anniversary of the organization of that body. Several thousand railway employees are present representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railway Telegraphers and the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association.

THE CANAL LOCK.

Paris, Sept. 23.—La Solt says that the subscriptions to the Panama Canal lock were only 40,000 shares in Paris and a like number in the provinces. Three hundred thousand shares were offered at one hundred francs each.

BARTHOLOMEU RENOMINATED.

Washington, Mo., Sept. 23.—The Republican caucus in the tenth district yesterday nominated Richard Bartholomeu for Congress. He is the present member from the tenth, which is one of the two sure Republican districts of this State.

A STORM COMING.

Warning Sent to Atlantic and Gulf coasts. Washington, Sept. 23.—The weather bureau officials are watching closely the progress of the tropical storm that appears to be moving toward the Atlantic coast from the West Indies. Tonight it appears to be about 500 miles southeast of Key West and is moving nearly northwesterly. The officials believe that the storm will be severe on the coast of Florida, but they cannot tell until tomorrow what its effect may be further north.

A RECORD BROKEN.

Washington, Sept. 23.—John J. Fisher, of Georgetown, Clyde Club, today broke the 24-hour record and established a record for the same period, making a total of 311.14 miles between 6 o'clock Saturday evening and the same hour Sunday evening. His actual riding time was an average of 14 miles an hour. For meals and other stops he consumed one hour and forty-nine minutes. The previous local record was made by E. C. Yeaman, of the Washington Road Club, computed to be a fraction over 200 miles. The previous American record was held by J. C. Spooner, of Chicago, who made 302 miles.

MISSISSIPPI DEAD-LOCK.

Canton, Miss., Sept. 23.—The dead-end continues in the seventh district Democratic convention. Col. Flicker leading with 14, 80-100 out of a total of 35. A proposition to allow the matter to be settled by a caucus was rejected by the majority.

WANDERING WITH INDIANS.

Robert Ray Hamilton Said to Have Been Seen in New Mexico. New York, Sept. 23.—Another chapter was added today to the famous baby and divorce case of Robert Ray Hamilton and Eva Mann. John H. Woodbury of No. 127 West forty-second street responded to a demand by announcing that he had received a letter from St. Louis from Henry C. Jones, a Texas, temporarily abiding there, who claimed to have information tending to show that Hamilton is still alive. Jones says in his letter to Woodbury that a friend of his recently saw Robert Ray Hamilton in Mexico in company with a party of half-breeds and Indians. Hamilton, the friend said, appeared to be dazed and demented. He was ragged and dirty. Henry C. Jones claims that he once knew Hamilton, and in his letter to Woodbury he says he understands that Robert Ray Hamilton once lived in a house owned by Woodbury in this city. Woodbury has answered the letter, expressing doubt that Hamilton is alive.

NO CONCLUSION.

Pres. II, Sept. 23.—According to President Greenleaf, no conclusion has been reached at the meeting of the Wholesale Trust directors and the officers of the distributing company when it adjourned last night. The meeting will be resumed tomorrow or Tuesday. President Eggs said tonight that so far only routine business had been done. He denied that a member of the distributing company was going to sever its relations with the trust and handle outside goods.

MILLS RESUME.

Ayer, N. H., Sept. 23.—The mills of the Columbian Manufacturing Company at Greenville, N. H., start on full time tomorrow. They furnish the principal industry of the town and have been running only four days each week for the past ten months.

DISTILLERS PROTEST.

There Was an Implied Contract With the Government. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 23.—The Distilling & Cattle Feeding Company and protest yesterday at the Revenue office in Chicago and Peoria against the new tariff provision for bonds which the distillers are compelled to give to secure the payment of the tax on the spirits bonded before the new law went into effect. Distillers were under bonds to the full amount of the whiskey in the warehouses at 30 cents per gallon. Their renewal was necessary at the rate of $1.39. With the protest new bonds for the whiskey in bond were issued yesterday filed by H. S. Staylor, Assistant General Manager for the Distilling company here. The protest takes the position that when the whiskey was made and put in bond there was an implied contract with the Government at the 30 cent rate.

MISSISSIPPI DEAD-LOCK.

Canton, Miss., Sept. 23.—The dead-end continues in the seventh district Democratic convention. Col. Flicker leading with 14, 80-100 out of a total of 35. A proposition to allow the matter to be settled by a caucus was rejected by the majority.

BANKERS.

Bankers in Chicago are discussing the possibility of a new bank in the city. The proposed bank would have a capital of $1,000,000 and would be organized as a national bank. The project is still in the early stages of planning.