Now is the Time -TO BUY-CHEAP GOODS.

WHO? Why LEVY, the Taihas BUSTED the prices of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Gents' Fur-fishing all to flinders. You just ought to see his $5,00 sn'ts, worta $10.00 Why you never saw such a sacrifice-and fred fit, why po Tailor could take your measure and improve on it.

But then I found out how LE-VY sel's so low, he sells for the people. He has about $10,and he says he intends to seil them out before he gets in his Spring stock, as he needs the room (and money). Now is the time to hav from me-we want to only new and stylish goods and we are forced to get rid of our stock in season, and not do like ver from year to year and force the off on credit en tomers at an exorbitant price. Mr. M. E. Izlar, formerly of the Folk Clothing Company of Savannah, will be pleased to walt on his friends and eustomers. Abe Levy says he is still on deck and other merchants-keep them will take pleasure in selling you goods at rock bottom prices. And the Captain is still here. - You

Respectfully. LEV
