FINALLY SET FREE

Agatha Reichlin Murdered by "a Person Unknown" is the

VERDICT THE JURY RENDERED

The Testimony Did Not Tend to In eriminate the Accused Priest.

> Congratulated by Friends When Discharged.

at the end of a rather complete in- feuds. vestigation into the cause of the death of Agatha Reichlin who was murdered last Thursday night, Coroner French of this county this even-

"That Agatha Reichlin came to her death from wounds inflicted by a stone in the hands of a person unknown."

ing gave this as his conclusion of the

The investigation was held in the presence of a large and deeply interested crowd of witnesses and spectators. The conclusion reached by the coroner resulted in the feeling of Father Walser from confinement later in the evening.

The witnesses examined Wednesconcensus of the testimony of the had committed the crime. Capt, Ketchum, chief of police, testified more attention to Father Walser's bed than to the other beds in the house.

Casimer Reichlan, brother of the and giving the signal. murdered girl, described the scene in his sister's room when he reached it after being arouse the night of the murder. The girl's left foot was and she lay partly on her left side. The bed clothes were smooth and untache and a slouch hat. Casimer said and business affairs. the watch dog that was on the lower floor of the house on the night of the usually barked when any one came around the house at night. The dog did not bark on the night in question, ed excitement when Prosecutor Stroup play, let us, gentlemen, give him the drowning. asked the witness: You do not know your sister?" "No, sir," answered Casimer with emphasis. "You do not know whether the per-

"No, sir, I cannot tell you." Rev. Chas. Reichlin said as to the motive: "My first thought was that Plague and famine in China are reached the Saginaw the latter had it might have been a jilted lover. Mr. becoming more devastating daily ac- disappeared beneath the waves and Rospere was her last lover. I think cording to cable advices received at nothing but her topmasts were visithe motive for the crime was robbery. | the state department from United | ble. To these several men were clinglove for Rospere. He called twice He states that the plague is increas- tain of the Saginaw, J. S. Tunnell. since November. My sister lived ing in that city and that the famine When he was taken off it was found alone with Walser during my absence in Kwang Si province is spreading. An that he had sustained severe, if not in Europe last summer. Rev. Walser American missionary is his authority serious, internal injuries. put a bolt on the door between his for his statement. In one village the The Hamilton hovered around the room and Agatha's at that time."

THE PRIEST DISCHARGED. Father Walser, arrested last Satur day morning in connection with the murder of Agatha Reichlin, was brought to that city Wednesday night from the county jail at Elyria and discharged from the charge of murder which was placed against him at that said: "After having listened to the evidence presented at the inquest Wednesday I can see that there is not sufficient evidence to hold the defendant. The action taken on the part of the officers in arresting Father Walser has been in attendance with their duty. A terrible crime has been prosecuting attorney had remarked 10.75 until just before the close when under the care of a doctor. His inthere was not sufficient evidence to there was a sale at 10.77. hold the accused and there was nothcongratulated upon his release.

A DEPLORABLE CONDITION.

Assassins Seem to Have the Law and Press Intimidated.

J. B. Marcum, a prominent lawyer and deputy United States commissioner, was shot and killed Monday, FULL ACCOUNT OF THE TRAGEDY. May 4, while standing in the door of the court house at Jackson, Ky. The shot was fired from inside the court house. It is not known who did the shooting. Marcum was a leader of the anti-Hargis political faction and a friend of Cockrills who was killed two A dispatch from Elysia, Ohio, says months ago in the Cockrill-Hargis

> Tuesday for Jackson, Ky., as attorney for the fusionists in the Breathitt county contested election cases. He pany's liner Hamilton occurred besucceeds as counsel James B. Mar- tween Winter Quarter lightship and cum, who was killed at the court Fenwick Island lightship, on the Virhouse Monday while filing pare s in ginia coast, at 4.40 o'clock Tuesday these cases. It is feared that the proceedings at this time will precipitate further trouble in the Cockrilllives have already been lost. A tele- passed out the Virginia capes at 9 colored waiter. gram from a m mber of the Hargis faction to ex-Senator Alexander Har- Richmond and Norfolk for Philadelgis at Winchester, says that Belven phia. A dense fog settled along the Ewen, who was talking with Marcum when he was shot by the assassin in vessels were going at reduced speed the Breathitt county court house recognized the murderer. Ewen when seen positively refused to say anything regarding the shooting.

1.30 o'clock Friday morning and respondents for fear of the feudists. murdered girl. Rev. Charles Reichlin, son to Lexington over the Lexington over the Lexington occurred. In first two boats from the first two boats another brother, also testified. The and Eastern railway on being promised According to Capt. Boaz of the by the Associated Press correspondent Hamilton his ship was going about witnessess Wednesday was favorable that his name should not be used, to Father Walser's claim of innocence said, the conditions at Jackson were and in support of the theory that a deplorable and renewed hostilities beburglar or some other desperate man tween the friends of Marcum and those now in power are imminent. No arrests have been made and there that the bloodhounds did not pay any are no efforts made to apprehend the went to see the dead body of her hus- Hamiton, but they had not the time Describing his visit to the house, Capt. band Tuesday for the first time, but to clear each other and the knife-like Marcum's friend, have been afraid to steel prow of the southbound vessel

A Murder Mystery. drawn up and her head was bleeding Nunice, Ind., and a brother-in-law of two life boats. There was consternaroom had been disturbed. The other out. One story is that Patterson was company's steamer. had not. A ladder on the south side shot about 3 o'clock in his own house. of the building leading to the attic One bullet passed through the stomach

Cleveland an Roosevelt.

Mr. Cleveland's reference to Presimurder had an ugly disposition and dent Roosevelt at the St. Louis dinner could not have faied to attract notice. "Let us not forget," said he, "that we owe something to this servant of ours. however, until after the murder had If any discredit fall upon him, his disbenefit of the doubt, so long as we of your own knowledge who killed know that however wrong he may be, he believes he is right," The Richmond Times-Dispatch interprets this as "'very nearly akin to the plea which they used to pin on the back of the littered the sea. To this the strugson who killed your sister came from planist in the Western music hall: outside or whether he was on the in Don't shoot the planist; he's doing the best he can.'

Plague and Famine.

My sister never expressed to me any States Consul McWade at Canton. ing, one of whom was the aged capbody of a famine victim was eaten by scene of the wreck for over an hour, the starving people.

Cotton Way Up.

A dispatch from New Yord says unhave been treated as the defendant tinued to advance and at 11.30 was among them. quoted at 10.75. In the afternoon Capt. Tunnell could not be seen. He Mayor King then stated as the May cotton sold between 10.70 to was in a stateroom on the Hamilton

TWENTY LIVES LOST

By the Sinking of the Steamship Saginaw at Sea.

The Steamships Saginaw and Hamilton Collided in a Dense Fog, and the Saginaw

Was Sunk.

A collision at sea that cost the lives A dispatch from Lexington, Ky., of twenty or more people and the sinkby the Old Dominion Steamship.commorning May 5. The Hamilton left New York the afternoon before at 2 o'clock for Norfolk and the Saginaw cook; Wm. Morris, steward; unknown o'clock the same night bound from when the crash occurred.

> The scene of the collision is about twelve miles off the shore and benine miles an hour and the Saginaw nine miles an hour and the Saginaw no serious injury had been sustained, the buggy in safety and was driven pending an inquiry. This action has tened to the Saginaw.
>
> The fog was so thick has tened to the Saginaw.
>
> off at a rapid pace. Kelley attempted aroused the citiz us to frenzy, and a invisible and when the two crafts hove in sight of each other, bow on, there was but a moment's interim before they met.

The Saginaw veered, as did the roar like the report of big guns and the Hamilton's boats." tons of freight of all descriptions soon the lifeboats of the Hamilton had but no sign of life could be seen among the mass of floating freight. Two bodies, one of a man and the other of Scarcely had the convention of the a woman, both clad in night dress, city democracy of Charleston adjourn- were observed drifting between the cording to the Clyde officials, the names of only 18 passengers are known and it is admitted by Second Officer Morris that 15 colored women, all of whom are now dead, were in the swamped lifeboat.

The crew of the Saginaw numbered 26, all told. From the officers of the Clyde company here, the following list of passengers was obtained:

E. B. Coles, Philadelphia; J. Trevor, Philadelphia; R. B. Younghead, Chester, Pa.; George B. Hood, Philadelphia: H. F. Winters, Camden, N. J.

Mary A. Sanderson, Windsor, N. C. Morris Payner, Northwest Virginia; John Reese, Norfolk; Miller Pnell, Norfolk; Judson S. Willis Berkley, Va.; David Rowland, Newport News; Mary Robertson, Florence Newby, Edna Ward, M. E. Jones, P. L. Pendlesays Wood G. Dunlap of that city left ing of the Clyde steamship Saginaw ton, A. Gilmore, S. Jernigan, all col-

> Those known to be lest are: Passengers-A. Gilmore, P. L. Pendleton, Florence Newby, Edna Ward, M. E. Jones, Mary Robertson. Crew Edward Goslee, first mate; Wm. Bittes, first assistant engineer;

Peter Swanson, a lame member of Creech until he was nearly past him. the crew, is a among the missing, As soon as he did, however, he picked known as "Sanctified People," and Doucette, Thomas Frazier, George coast shortly after nightfall and both vessels were going at reduced speed when the crash occurred.

| A dense fog settled along the gers were included in the 15 that were three shots in rapid succession which shot and killed by a mob at Wardell, entered Mr. Creech's back. Mr. Sinder and was determined as yet. A number of the gleton got out of the buggy and was moon, on Wednesday. Malone had been tween 180 and 200 miles south of these is secured it will be impossible Creech ran up the road to a buggy had been aroused against him. A wo-New York, or between 125 and 140 to secure an accurate estimate of the driven by Mr. King, which was going been called to the Reichlin home at son, Ky., by the local or resident cor. miles north of Norfolk. The fog dead. The discipline of the crew was towards Bishopville. whistles of both vessels were distinct- admirable and "women first," was the As Creech ran up the road Kelley, husband, caused much agitation re ly heard by each other for several initial command of Capt. Tunnellafter who had in the meantline gotten out, contly by living with Malone, who left, believed he had plenty of sea room lowering. The first two boats from the from his buggy and almed it at him, the preacher's wife, objected vigorous-Hamilton first made a brief survey of but Singleton stepped in front of the that vessel's condition and seeing that muzzle of the gun and Creech reached and caused her to be detained in Juli account of the wreck is graphic. He them. He thereupon unhitched one mud on the floor, that had apparently recently dropped from a man's shoe. The crash came next and a grinding recently dropped from a man's shoe. The crash came next and a grinding recently dropped from a man's shoe. The crash came next and a grinding recently dropped from a man's shoe. The crash came next and a grinding water caused with her handkerchief. Suspicion points to three was also fresh mud on the ladder that had been put up to the attic wednesday morning, six bells fired three more shots, killing Creech. Knock at the front door and Mooney range and I knew something was wrong. It is rumored that this act on Mr. Kelley's part was in consequence of dead in the door. A miob fushed into does not be ledged in the door. A miob fushed into dead in the door. A miob fushed into dead in the door. A miob fushed into dead on the ledges and she swung broad-window."

Casimer Reichlan, brother of the came of the sing him into the darkness. Mrs stern and the impetus of the family.

Frill frantically begged that no harm pounding heavily. Lines were thrown ton took her out of sight of the crip- stern torn completely away. I could Mr. W. E. Creech, a North Caro- be done to him, but she was roughly ashore from the schooner sever were put full steam to the rear and time she was still affoat, but she quickdisturbed and the bed quilts drawn up close under her chin. The body and fatally wounded Wednesday were of their safety, but as soon as it found that she was not injured then ful and quiet citizen.

ANOTHER ACC was still warm. The door between mysteryand the police are guarding the tically uninjured, only some bow ward the other boat, hoping to save the girl's room and R.v. Walser's house. The day was well advanced plates being stove in, all efforts were some human lives. When the Hamilroom was open, one bed in the latter before news of the shooting leaked directed to the rescue of the Clyde ton circled and we again saw the steamer through the fog and mist only When the Saginaw was again sighted her two masts were showing, as she her stern was under water and her had scuttled and was resting quietly window was found. It did not reach and the other through the groin. bow high in the air. Panic sticken on the bottom. It was providential the window by two and a half feet. Another report is that he was shot on people rushed over her decks and brought off 16 people, four of whom against an old trunk. He noticed no most generally accepted report is that were being lowered and into the first were white. The captain was lashed About 12 miles from Bishopville they tracks until next morning. When the shots were fired while he was in 15 colored women were placed, accord- to the mast with one white passenger, discovered the tracks were small, but his own room, but by whom is not ing to Second Officer W. L. Morris, but two of his ribs were broken. So a buggy, accompanied by a negro and not indistinct. He said Walser gave known. The Patterson family is one who was in command. The boat was great was the confusion that one man leading another horse. As he came him a description of the man he had of the oldest in the city and William swamped as it struck the water and put life preservers on his feet and opposite to Creech and Singleton, who seen as being thin, tall, were a mus. Patterson was pominent both in social its occupants were thrown into the when seen later was drowned floating were riding together, Kelly drew his sea. All were drowned except the feet up. E. B. Cole of Philadelphia, double-barreled gun from under the second officer and the colored stew- who was saved from the Saninaw, had buggy seat and aiming his gun at ardess, who was caught by First Of- just sold out his business in Newport Creech said; "I have been hunting ficer Goslee and held until a boat from News and was en route home. He you for 48 hours." the Hamilton reached them. The placed $700 and a diamond pin bewoman was pulled in but the gallant neath his pillow before retiring. When ed up the barrel and the load went mate sank immediately. The woman the crash came all thought of valua- over the top of the buggy. Creech died before the small boat reached the bles was forgotton and he sought safe- and Singleton then jumped out and been discovered. There was suppressed the horses rain away. Kelly fired the excitement when Prosecutor Strough the load striking Creek in the load striking by the impact of the collision than by money he started below, but he was again, the load striking Creech in the driven back by the waters. Mr. Cole side and arm. King then caught In the meantime the rush of wa- grasped a piece of wreckage and man. Creech and pulled him into his buggy, Sensational Arrest. A dispatch from Walhalla to The gling people in the water clung and State says Hoyt Hayes was committed miles. many were rescued by the boats from to jail here Tuesday charged with the the Hamilton and Saginaw. Before murder of his wife, who was shot and Sallie Boykin, Creech begged King to are prominent families.

Held on Suspicion.

nian Hall. A rumor flashed through at Old Point where the Hamilton the building that a man had been stopped for a few moments on her way pected of being one of the four brothtime. Prosecuting Attorney Stroup shot. An investigation indicated, to Norfolk. She arrived at her pier ers of Czolgosz, the assassin of the however, that this was not the case. in Norfolk about 2 o'clock Tuesday late President McKinley. Great Policeman C. W. Cooper had an alter- afternoon. Her bow plates were stove secrecy has been maintained about cation with Policeman Collins in the course of which he arew his gun and discharged it.

In and tons of wreckage still clung to the arrest. No charge has been lodged against him, the police simply discharged it. survivors of the Saginaw had been til after the president shall have left given clothing by the passengers and Los Angeles. It is said that Ozoltheir duty. A terrible crime has been committed and if the suspicion of guilt der date of May 6: "May cotton sold had been placed against any other today at 10.77. Yesterday's highest person I can assure you he would not point was 10.68. May cotton controlled the passengers to be distributed to be d said, have not been out of the ordinary.

Another Buffalo Tragedy.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

of Bishopville.

W. E. CREECH SHOT TO DEATH

By Spain Kelley, Who, After Wound ing Creech, Pursued Him on a Horse, Caught Up and Finished Him.

A special from Camden to The State says: W. E. Creech of Bishopville of horses and a man of pleasing perwas killed by Spain Kelley of Lee county Wednesday evening on the Mr. Trantham at that time did not public highway leading from Camden know which Kelly had done the shootto Bishopville, about 10 miles from the former place. It is stated that Mr. Creech was returning from Camden, driving a buggy, Mr. Howard Singleton being with him. While going up a hill near the Lee county-line The Leader of "Sanctified People" Mary Anderson, stewardess; - Cook, they met Mr. Kelley in a two-horse buggy driven by a negro boy.

Kelly evidently did not recognize

C. K. Berwin of New York was one to follow them with his team, but the warrant was issued against Malone of the passengers on the steamer Hampursued had made such headway that litton, which was in the collision. Hs he realized he could not overtake lawfully living together. of his horses and jumping on its back, night arrested both because of the "Fog settled down like a pall on the armed with his breechloader, galloped lateness of the hour decided to take the crew who were below rushed on ocean about 7 o'clock Tuesday night. after the buggy, overtaking it after it Suddenly when we were two hours had passed the Lee-county line. Kelly Shortly after midnight there was a late Wednesday morning, six bells fired three more shots, killing Creech. knock at the front door and Mooney.

pled vessel. Engines already reversed look right into the steamer. At that linian by birth, was a partner of the Bishopville branch of Mr. George T. William Patterson, a member of one the Hamilton circled to the scene of ly disappeared in the dense fog and Little's Camden livery stable. For the prominent and wealthy families of the wreck, at the same time lowering Nunice, Ind., and a brother-in-law of two life boats. There was consternation was for our own safe-George F. McCulloch, president of the tion among the passengers of the Union Traction company, was shot Old Dominion ship and first thoughts the hull examined. When it was bore the reputation of being a peace-

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

A dispatch from Bishopville to The tragic death of W. E. Creech, who was shot to death Wednesday evening by Spain Kelly. Mr. Creech was re-turning from Camden in company with H. H. King and Howard Singleton. were met by Kelly, who was riding in

He then fired, but the negro knockters into the Saginaw had caused the aged to reach one of the topmasts, driving rapidly away. Kells mounted decks to burst their fastenings with a after the retreating men. King, seeing that Kelly was fast appproaching, whipped his horse into a run and this pace was kept up for more than two

Coming opposite the house of Mrs. instantly killed on the morning of stop as he could go no further. They April 26. John E. Mason, Esq., of drove into the yard, Kelly following. Oakway committed Mr. Hayes upon an King pleaded with Kelly not to shoot affidavit of Mr. Crame, the father of again as the man was dying. Kelly rode the wife of young Hayes. It was cur- up to the buggy and fired twice with rently reported that Mrs. Hayes had his revolver, killing Creech instantly. committed suicide and left a note say- Neither Creech nor the two men with ing why she had done so. The arrest him were armed. The verdict of the of young Hayes has caused a great coroner's jury was that the deceased deal of excitement in the commu- came to his death by means of gun-

HAD NOT WRONGED HIM.

The State of Friday morning says further information in regard to the shocking tragedy was brought to Columbia Friday night by Mr. John Milady, who was in Bishopville when the shocking news was brought to the town. He stated to a reporter of The State that the entire town is in gloom, that Kelly is one of the commission to adjust the debt between the county of Lee and the old counties from which it was made, and is a member On a Public Highway in the County of the legislature. In this connection, however, it should be stated that the member of the legislature is B. F. Kelly, while the dispatches declare that Spain Kelly killed Creech. The escape of Mr. Howard Single- FIFTEEN LIVES LOST IN WRECK. ton is said to be remarkable, for he received but one slight wound in the hand. The horse which he was driving was struck by six buckshot and the buggy was riddled. Mr. W. D. Trantham, a leading lawyer of Camden, stated Friday night that he knew Creech very well. The latter was about 32 years of age, a splendid judge

PREACHER SLAIN BY MOB

sonality. In Camden Creech was regarded as a man of blameless life.

Lynched in Missouri

D. M. Halone, a preacher for a sect Just how many of the above passen- up a pistol lying beside him and fired Constable W. J. Mooneyhoon were passengers left Richmond Sunday on followed by Creech, whose horse took prosperitying in this county for severthe Saginaw, and until the list of fright and bolted, whereupon Mr. al months and considerable feeling man named Mrs. Frill having left her

ly, and Malone declared her insans Constable Mooneyhoon Saturday was offered to Mrs. Frill or to Mrs.

Intense excitement has resulted State says: This town was shocked mistaken for Malone or the mob was Thursday morning to hear of the angered because the constable took more than they could battle against Fatal Runaway Accident.

Mr. Morgan Shumaker, one of the oldest citizens of Orangeburg county, from a train, which was leaving the from the rigging, but he was dead. depot and ran away. 'The animal was The place where the Gloriana was thoroughly frightened and ran at wrecked is one of the most dangerous great speed. In turning a corner the on the Nova Scotia coast. It is less buggy was turned over and Mr. Shu- than a mile from where the steamer maker fell with a great force on his Blaamanden was totally wrecked last face. He was picked up and exami. year and only a half mile from the nation showed that his face was badly scence of the wreck of the steamer cut and his skull crushed. Dr. A. C. Tiber in February, 1902, when 22 Baxter was called to see the unfortunate man, and after awhile restored him to consciousness. He was then removed to his home and lingered until Monday evening when he died. gaged in digging trenches for water A colored woman who was in the bug- mains in Franklin and Magazine a few slight bruises. Mr. Shumaker earthed a number of human skeletons tragic death is greatly deplored by gers dug through a number of graves many who knew the old gentleman. and grinning skulls were thrown up He was over eighty years of age.

Ambushed and Shot.

State says Wednesday evening while the work was continued, the laborers going toward his home riding a mule, throwing the bones and skulls to one just after dark, Carolina Jones, one of side in the street. It is believed that the staunchest colored men of that the skeletons are the remains of Britsection, was shot from ambush near ish soldiers, who were killed in an exnity where all the persons live. The shot wounds at the hands of Spain his house, about three miles south plosion of a powder magazine that parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Kelly. The cause of the shooting is of Eastover. The weapon used by the stood at the spot during revolutionary a mystery to everybody here and no would-be assassin was a shot gun days. It is on record that about 1780, motive can be assigned for the deed. loaded with No. 7 shot, the load tak- while the city was in the hands of the At Los Angeles, Cal., acting under stable here of the firm of Creech & Jones, who has ample means, at once of a magazine in that section, in ed Monday when the report of a pistol bales of cotton and cases of goods. The instructions from the secret service Little. He had made many friends telephoned Sheriff Coleman to send which a number of soldiers were killed rang out in the lobby of the Hiber- first news of the disaster was received bureau at Washington, the police since his residence here and was a bloodhounds to the scene of the shoot- and their bodies were buried about ing. The hounds trailed Jones' own the site of the building. The locasons to his (Carolina's) house where a tion of the magazine is shown on gun was found with one empty cham- some old maps of the city and it was ber apparently just shot. From all- from that building that the street acthat can be gathered it seem; that quired its name. three of his own sons did the shooting. However, no arrests have yet been made. It it thought now that Carolina will recover.

I In Good Hands.

The Augusta Chronicle, the oldest popular in the town. It is said that newspaper in the south, was sold against him ever since his appoint with his dying breath Creech declared his innocence of any wrong toward per was bid in by Thomas W. Loyless, gated by the postoffice authorities Buffalo, N. Y., must be a very tough Kelly. The body of the dead man chief editorial writer of the Atlanta and another carrier was sent out over juries are said to consist of two broken place. As the culmination to domestic was taken to Tennessee Friday night Constitution, for $40,000, representing Friday morning. There is no objecribs and interal disorders. It was troubles John Costelly, the millionaire by Mr. J. B. McLaughlin, a lawyer of himself and H. H. Cabaniss, business tion to the carrier personally, but the hold the accused and there was nothing to do but to discharge him from custody.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us many feating thanks for his libway we refer to the Smart Set as or eration and saying Agatha Reichlin was the last person he would have the last person he would have congratulated upon his release.

He is Caustic.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us many from the official lists have been wife instance of the Smart Set as ost clais of either line regarding the real ment could be secured from the official lists have been works." Because it gets its inspiration of the paper.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us why we refer to the Smart Set as ost clais of either line regarding the real afternoon by his wife, Sarah. His father is also wife immediately surrendered to the half and was at one works." Because it gets its inspiration of the paper.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us why we refer to the Smart Set as ostillating between hell and the iron was the last person he would have works." Because it gets its inspiration of the paper.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us why we refer to the Smart Set as ostillating between hell and the iron was the last person he would have works." Because it gets its inspiration of the paper.

The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us white in the contemporary asks us to him on account of the Atlanta Journal. The Standard Oil man, was shot and by the demeanor and well educated, wife interest great of the amount of the paper. The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us the last part of the Atlanta Journal to have a man of the real flowers. The boundard Oil man, was shot and to be a man of the real flowers. The Louisville Cyvrier-Journal says:

"An esteemed contemporary asks us the last passenger of the Atlanta Journal Louisville Cy

LOST IN A FOG.

The Fishing Schooner Gloriana is Wrecked on Whale Cove.

and They Had to See Their Companions Die Before Their Eyes.

A dispatch from Canso, N. S., sa ys the American fishing schooner Gleriana, Capt. George Stoddart of Gloucester, Mass., rand ashore during a thick fog on the cliffs at Whale Cove, near White Point ledges, Wednesday night and 15 of the crew, including the captain, were drowned out of a total of 18.

The survivors are John Richards, Eugene Leblanc and Frank Nickerson. The drowned are Capt. George Stoddart of Gloucester, Armsworth Thomas, Eli Manson, Ansel Goodwin, Reuben Surr, Harry French, Fred V. Mulzee, Martin Goodwin, Alex Hanson, Charles Pierce, John Moulsong, Arthur Bonaghan and one unknown. The Gloriana left the northeast bar of Sable Island Wednesday afternoon bound for Canso. There was a heavy easterly gale blowing, with thick fog. The vessel was kept under short sail, and it is presumed that Capt. Stoddart When the Gloriana struck on the ledges she passed over the outer ones, but brought up on the inner reef, butted against a cliff of rocks and then fell off into the sea. When the vessel struck the cliff Richards, Leblanc and Nickerson were on deck and they ran forward, rushed out in the bowsprit and climbed up the cliff to a place of safety before a receding wave carried the vessel off again. The others of pushed into the house and the mob de- times, but they were either broken parted. Malone was taken to a wood or torn from their fastenings on the some distance away and shot to death. rocks by the surging of the vessel they were caught in the break dashed against the rocks and killed in from the tragedy. It is not explained the attempt. The others who were why the constable was shot by the on the vessel took to the rigging and mob but it is believed he was either clung there while their strength lasted, but the enormous seas were the couple to his home after arresting and one by one they were swept away. The three men on the rocks could see their companions clinging to the rig-ging and their shouts for help above the roar of the sea, but it was impossible to do anything to save them. The three survivors spent a terrible who lived about three miles from El- night on the cliffs. When daylight loree, was thrown from his buggy on dawned they saw one man still cling-Monday of last week, and injured so ing to the rigging, and made their badly that he died the same evening. way to the mainland for assistance. Mr. Shumaker was entering Elloree The shore folk hurried to the scene of in a buggy when his horse took fright the wreck and the man was taken lives were lost.

Skeletons Exhumed. The Charleston Post says while en-

gy with Mr. Shumaker escaped with streets Thursday, negro laborers unwas a highly respected citizen and his and rotting coffins. The trench digfrom under ground one after another. The digging up of the skeletons and rotting coffins created a sensation among the negroes for a time, but A dispatch from Eastover to The their nerves soon became steady and Mail Carrier Held Up.

A dispatch from Gollatin Tenn. says the carrier on rural route No. 1 was held up Thursday afternoon by two masked men and threatened with death if he did not resign. The carrier is John Allgood, a colored man