LONG BRANCH PHILOSOPIHY. While we do not believe that Barnwell county is the best place to live, or that it is the garden spot of the world, or lay any stress on other borrowed remarks, we are convinced after a sojourn through 4 or 5 other counties, that we are socially a little ahead. We visited last week in the upper part of Aiken county. We met some good people—wholesome, religiously speaking, consider the average at a low ebb among the others of our acquaintance we met the Hon. Mr. Webb, Editor of the Horse Creek Valley Newspaper, a Representative from his county to the Legislature, a gentleman and a Christian, all of which is a combination not easily found in just any ordinary town.
