R. C. Roberts, Jr., Clerk.

Get your garden ready
Follow the advice given in these columns and you will have vegetables in the greatest abundance at small cost.
1st. Select for your garden a loamy, rich soil, make it very rich with well decomposed stable manure, broadcast and break it 18 to 22 inches deep. By breaking your garden deep it will not be nearly so apt to burn from dry weather. Prepare your hot-bed and plant therein cabbage and tomatoes. If you are willing to take chances with cold weather and want a very early garden, you can plant garden peas, lettuce, egg plant, beets, cucumbers, mustard, onion sets, snap beans, potatoes and turnips.
Don't fool with seeds that you are in doubt about their coming up, but buy all your seeds from Crech's Drug Store, and then you can rest assured that you have seeds that are reliable. All seeds sold in bulk or by the papers—6 five-cent papers for 25 cents. Of course, all goods sold are cheaper in bulk. We pay postage on all seeds and guarantee safe delivery.
Don't forget to plant our Golden Dixie Dent Corn, comes earlier and makes more corn per acre than any other Dent corn in our southern climate.

LONG BRANCH PHILOSOPHY.
The subject that we propose to tackle this week will be considered by some as a "fishy" one; namely, "Old Time Religion as Compared with Present Day Styles." Our opinion will be left out of the question.
In the first place, some people think that a man's religion consists of something besides a black suit, a fancy tie and flowery language. A preacher who seeks popularity entire should not be everything which he has in view.
And if a member who pays well, although he gets drunk every other Saturday and his business life is founded on questionable principles, when his every day actions are such that there is no way of knowing that he is a church member, except you attend his regular conference and hear the secretary call his name, the general opinion is that such a member should not be retained for the one purpose only.
Then, too, in calling a pastor, especially to a town or city church, the people sometimes take a fellow "on trial" after he has already been tried by a presbytery of ministers, who put a lot of tough questions among others.
If he feels that he is called of the Supreme Being to expound the Scriptures to the masses, after the so-called trial is over he adds, "Now, Brethren, you pray over the matter and I will do the same." And when the prayers are all over (in most cases) he is directed to where the people pay the best wages, which we don't pretend to say is wrong.
Yet some of the clergy don't want their business called a profession but a calling. And so mote it be.
We find all over the country the old timer who is not exactly pleased with the drift of things and thinks that the old time religion was somewhat the purest, when the pastor (not quite so fancy and whose native home is not quite so far off) could and would mingle with the flock without taking into consideration his poverty or riches; whether his house was painted or that he had p as or pies for dinner.
In speaking of various meetings which are claimed as good, the amount collected is the first and uppermost thing in mind, and the goodness of the gathering measured by the dollars and cents taken in. But it is discovered by some that the people who give the least complain the most.
The enlargement so called, we trust, is a good move, but some think we are getting on too fast, as it were, but are sure that it will not do well to say so.
Rich Mas.

ESCAPED AN AWFUL FATE.
Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla. writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were started. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It has saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Crech's Pharmacy, N. Burckhalter Druggists. Price 50c & $1.00. Trial Bottle free.

GOOD REPORT.

And this time probably true, that the Southern Railway will soon do what has long been wished—make Allendale, instead of Barnwell the terminal of "the short."

APPLETON NEWS.
"Reddy" sent us a well written, heavy letter, but failed to give his name for the editor's information, and according to the rule, as unchangeable as the laws of the Medes and Persians, his communication went into the waste basket.
SHERIFF SUCCESS.
Sheriff Frank H. Crech has scored another victory over crime in the capture of Hilbert O'Leah, colored, who several months ago stole from Mr. Charlie Zissme of Georges Creek, a truck containing over three hundred dollars. The run away rogue was caught at West Palm Beach, 300 miles south of Jacksonville, Fla., and $175 of the stolen money recovered.

WILSON'S CANNING OUTFIT.
I have used one of these outfits four seasons, putting up fruit and vegetables for myself and my neighbors. In every instance they have given perfect satisfaction and I conscientiously recommend the outfit and the canned goods.
I have made arrangements to furnish a limited number of these housekeeper's friends and money savers. If you want to live well, enjoy good health and keep the women folks happy call on or write to
Yours truly,
S. A. Hair,
Barnwell, S. C.

LONG BRANCH PHILOSOPHY.
The subject that we propose to tackle this week will be considered by some as a "fishy" one; namely, "Old Time Religion as Compared with Present Day Styles." Our opinion will be left out of the question.
In the first place, some people think that a man's religion consists of something besides a black suit, a fancy tie and flowery language. A preacher who seeks popularity entire should not be everything which he has in view.
And if a member who pays well, although he gets drunk every other Saturday and his business life is founded on questionable principles, when his every day actions are such that there is no way of knowing that he is a church member, except you attend his regular conference and hear the secretary call his name, the general opinion is that such a member should not be retained for the one purpose only.
Then, too, in calling a pastor, especially to a town or city church, the people sometimes take a fellow "on trial" after he has already been tried by a presbytery of ministers, who put a lot of tough questions among others.
If he feels that he is called of the Supreme Being to expound the Scriptures to the masses, after the so-called trial is over he adds, "Now, Brethren, you pray over the matter and I will do the same." And when the prayers are all over (in most cases) he is directed to where the people pay the best wages, which we don't pretend to say is wrong.
Yet some of the clergy don't want their business called a profession but a calling. And so mote it be.
We find all over the country the old timer who is not exactly pleased with the drift of things and thinks that the old time religion was somewhat the purest, when the pastor (not quite so fancy and whose native home is not quite so far off) could and would mingle with the flock without taking into consideration his poverty or riches; whether his house was painted or that he had p as or pies for dinner.
In speaking of various meetings which are claimed as good, the amount collected is the first and uppermost thing in mind, and the goodness of the gathering measured by the dollars and cents taken in. But it is discovered by some that the people who give the least complain the most.
The enlargement so called, we trust, is a good move, but some think we are getting on too fast, as it were, but are sure that it will not do well to say so.
