Bennettsville, January 13. MURDERED HIS SON.

The Awful Deed Was Done While the Father Was Drunk.

At Greenwood the coroner's jury which adjourned Monday Jan. 16, to meet again Wednesday to finish hearing the evidence in the matter of Scott Clegg, whose death was reported Monday Jan. 16, brought in a verdict Wednesday afternoon that he came to his death from a gun shot wound at April, '04, receipts.... the nands of his own father, John Clegg. Whether he caused the death of his son by drunken carelessness or by the impulse of a sudden blind way of drunken passion will be for a jury to decide.

The most important transaction of the Senate Wednesday was the pas sage of the concurrent resolution to investigate the State dispensary. There was no fight made and the amendment suggested were embodied without discussion. Had anyon anticipated a spicy debate they would have been mistaken, for the chamber 64.00 did not for any time lose its wonted air of dignity and newspapers seemed 7,043.75 to engage as much attention as the resolution. The resolution was a special order and therefore was taken up first on the calendar.

Senator McIver's amendment that the c mmittee be increased from two senators and three members of the house to three senators was accepted. 494,338.26 He also offered an amendment that instead of having the committee sit now and report before February 1st 403,569 21 (18 provided in the resolution) it 2,896 24 should meet soon after adjournment and report to the next session. The committee is to receive $4 per diem and mileage. Another amendment submitted by Senator Raysor was a provision that "statements made by witnesses should not be used against them in any criminal proceeding" be stricken out. This was done.
