CONQUERED COLORADO.

Col. Robert Aldrich returned to his busy office last week, after a restful vacation at Saluda, N. C. Mrs. Aldrich and children will not come home until after the Indian Summer has made glories the mountains.

Gen. T. W. Carville, although he has seen the statement that the veterans would be invited to meet in the city of Greenville this year, has had no official communication in regard to the matter. Edgeland Advertiser.

Last week was brightened by pleasant remembrances from Messrs. Bryan Bros., A. P. Givens, S. I. Eaves, William Berry, J. C. R. Crech, W. H. Hartzog (of Blackville R. F. D. No. 1) and Capt. O. D. A. Wilson.

Rev. R. A. Sublett, the evangelist, was in town on Monday, the guest of Treasurer J. B. Armstrong. A very general desire was expressed that he and his sweet singer, Mr. Marshall, will soon hold a protracted meeting at this place.

The Long Branch Philosopher gave us a delightful surprise party by bringing a couple of fresh September melons, dew cooled and full of condensed, concentrated sweetness. One of them was grown from seed from a melon ripened this summer.

A high price is predicted for cow peas next year. Owing to the season the crop is small. Besides a larger acreage than usual will be planted in cow peas to make up for the shortage in the corn crops, and seed to sow the stubble land will be in big demand next year.

The State Board of Education on Friday approved the appointments of Prof. W. W. Hart as a member of the Barnwell County Board of Education, of Miss Lelia C. Walker to Winthrop College and of Leonard and Leslie Melchamp of Williston to normal scholarships in the South Carolina College.

Nine very admirable young ladies stood the examination for Teachers' Certificates on Friday. Though lacking college training they deserve all the more credit for what they have accomplished with limited opportunities.

In practical school work they are qualified to accomplish as good results as the average holder of a diploma. They know that they will be judged by what they do and not by the prestige of a college course.

The monthly meeting of the Lower Three Run Agricultural Club on Friday was well attended. Several new members were added and the roll now numbers about fifty, all occupations represented, but all of one mind in favor of agricultural betterment.

Speeches appropriate to the purposes of the club were made by members George H. Bates and James O. Patterson. At the next meeting addresses will be delivered by members Frank H. Crech and H. W. Richardson.

Every township in every county in the States needs an agricultural club. After the success of the Lower Three Run, Bennetts Springs and Four Mile Clubs. They need not begin with large memberships but they will grow if conducted on right lines. Their effect is not only educative but they bring the farmers and business men together and prepare them to act together when ever occasion demands. And there's no other way to secure that union in which there is strength.

The protracted meeting at Long Branch Church commenced on Monday, 12th inst. closed on Friday, Rev. W. W. Glover of Augusta did the preaching; other ministers expected being kept away by sickness. The meeting was a very excellent one, resulting in ten accessions to membership, four by Baptism, two by letter and four by restoration. All members, both male and female, are earnestly requested to attend conference at the church at 11 a. m. on next Saturday.

Orange Blossoms and Happy Bridal Bells this evening.

Last week cotton platform receipts numbered 400 bales.

Today is the Autumnal Equinox, the day and night of equal length.

Our good friend, Rev. G. N. Askew, paid us an appreciated call on Monday.

Congressman Patterson went to Aiken court on Monday for a stay of several days.

J. F. Carter, Esq., of Bamberg, a very pleasant gentleman, was in town on Monday.

Rev. J. B. Holley of Bamberg has accepted the pastorate of the Second Baptist Church of Augusta.

Attorneys John R. Bellinger of Bamberg and Z. A. Searson of Hampton were in town on Friday.

Capt. W. J. Sanders and family return to Fairfax this week after a perfect summer stay at Hendersoville, N. C.

We have received a copy of the Premium List for the Thirty-Seventh Annual State Fair at Columbia, October 24 to 27, 1905.

Mr. C. W. Pate, getting well-nigh blind from a severe attack of continued fever, came up from Kille on Monday to spend several days with parents.

Dr. Jesse Green, who has been in the drug business at Gaffney several years, came home last week for a stay all too short for the liking of his friends.

Rev. J. W. H. Dyches writes us pleasantly of his happy life among the good people of Virginia. And he well deserves their best love and confidence.

The Square near the Sanctum was as lively for a while Saturday morning, with cotton seed sellers as it ever was, with horse swappers on a September Sale day.

With this issue we finish several college and school advertisements, and next week we will have room for advertisements of our merchant friends and others.

Miss Nell Aldrich Duncan, passing a highly creditable examination, was admitted last week into Mount Saint Agnes College, in Baltimore's most beautiful suburb.

Stephen Roberts, colored, ended a Saturday midnight quarrel with Mary Morris, colored, near Cape's church by cutting her throat. Roberts made his escape into Georgia.

Mr. J. H. Parks of Laurens is the new manager of The Barnwell Oil Mill. He stands exceedingly well with his home people, who regret the removal of his family from their midst.

The State Board of Health has appointed Dr. E. L. Patterson to look after small pox cases in this county and to carry out the plan to revaccinate all school children and others exposed to that disease.

Young Norman Anderson of Richland township had his left arm so lacerated by a fall from a tree that amputation above the elbow was necessary. Dr. A. B. Patterson performed the operation.

Gen. T. W. Carville, although he has seen the statement that the veterans would be invited to meet in the city of Greenville this year, has had no official communication in regard to the matter. Edgeland Advertiser.

ALBERT P. MANVILLE, JR.

After a long illness, at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, Mr. Albert P. Manville, Jr., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Manville, Sr., departed this life at the home of his parents, aged about 28 years.

So gentle was his nature, so tender and trusting his disposition, so brave and true his courage to do the right, so white and pure his life from childhood until he answered to the Master's call and passed within the gates of peace that all who knew him loved him with the sincerest affection and honored him with their highest, truest regard, and though so soon taken from the hearts that so loved him he shall not be forgotten. But in the short span that he was given to them he showed each hour, each day, each year how one can live—unscarred by the thorns that hedge the human pathway, unspoiled by the temptations that allure, keeping the whiteness of his soul unsoiled from the cradle, through suffering and the weariness of many a long, weary day with rejoicing in the home eternal.

And his memory shall linger and be loved here; the smile that had the sweetness of the spring time, the voice so soft and gentle, the eye so clear and true, the heart so pure and tender—the example so stirring, so higher, so better, that still be a leaving, drawing others to follow him as he followed Christ.

As the morning star rose bright with its promise of another Sabbath his spirit passed into the eternal peace, and the sun sank low in the West his body was laid by loving hands to rest in the Baptist Church yard, to wait until the sun of the resurrection morning shall rise.

The touching last services of the church were tenderly administered by Rev. W. H. Jones, who, with all gathered there, the old, the middle-aged and the young, every heart sorrowed with his stricken kindred; yet was comforted by the perfect assurance that earth's loss is Heaven's gain, that he is safe forever more in the altar of the great white throne above.

BLACKVILLE ITEMS.

Misses Alma and Isabelle Free left for Limestone College on Wednesday morning, to remain until June of '06.

Miss Sarah Hammet will attend Lanier College at Greenwood, S. C.

J. E. Hair, Jr. left Saturday morning for Union. He will spend a few days with his brothers, Drs. I. M. and U. B. Hair, and go from there to Furman University for the collegiate year.

Miss Lettie B. Milhous left Wednesday morning for Orangeburg College Institute, which opens on Wednesday, 20th.

Miss Evelyn Milhous entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday last. Those present were: Misses Alma and Isabelle Free, Leonard Kelly, Maud Leonard, Miriam Strong of Allendale, who is visiting the Misses Free, and Miss Bartha Davidson, one of Newberry's charming young ladies, and assistant teacher in the graded school here.

Mr. Boland went to Columbia Friday afternoon and Mrs. Boland went to visit her home near Augusta Friday morning.

Mrs. J. H. E. Milhous, with Miss Evelyn, leave Thursday for Charleston to spend a few days in "the city by the sea."

Miss Eva White of Florence will stop over in Blackville for a few days, the guest of Miss Marie Milhous.

Miss Fowler of Atlanta is visiting her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Neason.

Mrs. James McMillan of Savannah is visiting her husband's family, Rev. W. D. McMillan.

Mrs. Percy Rice and daughter of Riceville, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Ellen Rice of River Side.

Miss L. J. Brown of Aiken is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barrall.

There was a shooting scrape here Saturday afternoon. Sam Benjamin, colored, was shot with a double barrel gun by Agent Brown, colored. The shooting was done in the midst of a crowd and on the main street. Sam Benjamin is a machinist. So far he is still alive.

AT LONG BRANCH. We had occasion to be at Long Branch church one day during the recent protracted meeting for the first time in eight or nine years. Then the pastor was the well loved and long remembered Rev. A. Buist, who gave himself to God at the same time and was baptized in the same water with the writer's father, who passed away from this life almost twenty five years ago. But well do I remember as regularly as the second Saturday and Sunday in each month came, ever so cold or so hot, would my father saddle the seemingly never tired animal and go riding up the river to Long Branch to hear God's message delivered by his messenger previously spoken of. The preacher I recently heard there reminds me of him so much, but little did I think in those days or even in later years that old Long Branch would come to what seemingly it now is.

Old historic Long Branch has no pastor. The writer loves old Long Branch and her people. This sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. W. Glover, mostly to the fathers of the church. We don't think a more appropriate text and sermon could be delivered to those who have been so long a regular pastor our visits will not be so far apart in the future.

When the collections were added together we think it exceeded twenty five dollars good. Come again. Brother Glover, we like to hear you. A Visitor.

Terrill County Georgia, is either a very dissipated or very good place. The people there will have no county tax to pay in five years, as the dispensary profits are sufficient to meet all expenses. The dispensary there is a county affair, no Columbia business connected with it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust in my lungs, but after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world." A. C. N. Bruchkhalter's Drug Store, Crech's Pharmacy, 50c, and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

You Can Get at CREECH'S PHARMACY, LIBBEY'S CUT GLASS.

LIBBEY'S CUT GLASS, if it's LIBBEY, it has the name etched in the glass so it can be seen and read plainly. So many people pay for what they think is Cut Glass, but afterwards find that they have paid out glass prices for only a cheap imitation. This brand of selling cheap imitations or "something just as good" has been practiced to such an extent that the question always arises, "Is it really CUT GLASS?" You have heard the question asked yourself, then if LIBBEY'S name can be found on the piece of glass the question is settled and the answer comes back, "yes, there is LIBBEY, it's the real thing," and the prettiest and finest article that can be turned out by any manufacturer. We are proud of the fact that we represent LIBBEY'S cut glass in this county. The price is no higher than that which you would have to pay for an article which you could not tell whether it was cut glass or an imitation. So why be in doubt? LIBBEY'S costs no more than the imitation. Besides we would simply like you to see LIBBEY'S cut glass beside the other brands. If LIBBEY'S don't make the others look like about 30 cents, why there is no comparison, absolutely none. You might just as well try to compare a perfect two carat diamond to a piece of quartz. See our line, very suitable for Christmas and WEDDING presents.

SILVER WARE.

The Brand of our Sterling Silver Ware is "Whiting." WHITING means as much in sterling silver ware as Libbey does in cut glass. If its Whiting's its all right—the best. People are so suspicious these days, they always want to know if a thing is genuine—if it's a good brand. It is so easy for a manufacturer to supply plate goods and sell them for as much as if they were solid silver. If the piece of silver has WHITING stamped on it everybody knows that it is the real stuff—no fraud about it. We carry a full line of WHITING'S STERLING SILVER WARE—just the thing for Christmas and WEDDING PRESENTS. A few of the articles we carry—Table Knives, Forks, Spoons, Butter Knives, Carving Sets, Ladles, etc. CREECH'S PHARMACY.

REGISTERED HEIFERS.

Glendale Farm at Barnwell, has for sale a number of choice registered Jersey Heifers and young Bulls, the offspring of our noted Tormentor Bull by fine registered cows. We had intended to reserve these heifers for our own use, but now offer them without reserve for sale. This is a good opportunity for those desiring fine heifers as they represent nine years of careful selection and breeding of the best Jersey in the country. Our cattle have been purchased from celebrated herds north and west, and they show for themselves, and their offspring are as fine as can be had anywhere. Pedigrees registration certificates and transfer in name of purchaser furnished free of charge. This offer will not last long.
