BARGEST COUNTY CIRCULATION.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1905.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt yester day left Washington on a nine days trip "away down South in Dixle." They will have run time of their lives, the Indian Summer welcome of the Southern people to the nurthern son of a noble Georgia woman and the good wife who has been his best adviser and only controller.

A good time to both of you, but especially to your better half, Mr. President. May you escape those equally harmful insects, the yellow fever mos- C Holman for deft (two cases.) quitoes and republican ple counter polthe rock-ribbed Democratic faith of B H Easter! sciolans and get soundly converted to the Georgia cracker, which your grand Simms for plff; Aldrich for deft. father Bulloch had good and strong.

The treaty of peace between Russia and Japan was signed on Saturday by Czar at St. Petersburg and the Mikade at Tokio, putting an official end to the wicked war that commenced February 8th 1984.

The Standard Warehouse Company was organised on Saturday with a cap ital of $500,000 and no stock for sale Governor Heyward was elected President. He will not be a very active official until after the expiration of his present term. The company owns a T Rice for plft; J O Patterson & Son, number of warehouses and will build John R Bellinger and W A Holman for more to store cotton &c.

At 9 o'clock Friday night fire, probably caused by rats and matches, start- man for piff; Aldrich for deft. ed in the depot at Bamberg, burning Jennie Dunbar va C & W. C Ry Co, that building, with large quantities of merchandise therein and 210 bales of cotton in cars and on platform, the total loss being between forty and fifty thousand dollars, protected by railroad was damaged about $700, insured, and CLW Jones Brothers stables damaged about 3500, probably insured.

Only the stillness of the night saved the business portion of the town from a great calamity.

LONG BRANCH PHILOSOPHY.

"Words are inadequate to describe the greatness of the Savannah Valley Fair to be held in Augusta on Oct. 2, 3 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8th, 1905. Half fare on il ratiroads, 4,000 people at Luna Park last night."

The above is one of the many head lines in the daily after the editor almostly exhausted his blowing born in previous issues. So with the informawe had a gnaving for discovery and accordingly got ourselves together and lit out. We found in the first place the tickets on the R. Re. plus 25cts. and R. C. Joseph Erwin, J. O. Patterson, & Son and R. C. Holman for plff; Aldrich for deft.

Julia B Easterling vs So Ry Co, Rates & Simma for plff; Aldrich for deft. of course the average countryman con't know whether plus means addition or subtraction till he has to go down in his jeans and get the plus. Then a bealth certificate called for plus again and by this time we began to call it cash, but after the majority of plus had been ejected from our light pocket we arrived at the Dazzling Sapocket we arrived at the Dazzling Savannah Valley Fair in Augusta, Ga., October 5th, 1905, and just think of it— a solitary respectable looking old Georgia farmer sitting on a bale of cotton near a table which contained about three bottles of scuppernong wine, a basket of persimmons, 30 or 40 ears of corn and two bunches of millet seed; a grand sight for a S. C. backwoodsman. Our Mike and Bailey could have pulled on any of our roads the entire exhibit on any of our roads the entire exhibit and not have been loaded except some gasoline engines loaned by Lombard & Co. But of all the old fake shows that ever cursed the earth they were lined up on every hand, talking through trumpets and taking in cash. And the air ship: she must have had ber wings cropped as she lay still under the shed during our stay and should have gone pp promptly at 4 sharp each day.

But we shall stop complaining after a while. We do not blame the State of Georgia for raising the blood suckers that visited us the one night we were off, as they were raised on the Carolina aide of the Savanuah River, but as we by and feught in the dark we thought of the poison sold by the Dutch pedder, that was sure death if you would shust catch bim and drop a little drop into his mouth, but we arrived home without any special accident, much wiser and poorer than we ever expect-
