Mrs. C. N. Burchhalter entertained some twenty young ladies from 8 to 11 o'clock Friday evening in honor of her charming visitor, Miss Miles of Chester. C., and who is pastor of the Episcopal Church, Richmond, Va., has been asked by Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd of New York, secretary of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church, to take charge of a district including nearly all the Southern States and extending as far West as Oklahoma.

Will the Seaboard Air Line build that much surveyed line from Olar to Charleston?

That connection was proposed when John Skegson Williams was President and dismissed when he was re-elected. Now that he is having back the idea may be resurrected. The Seaboard has recently bought a coal road in Tennessee and is building a connection through the mountains to its terminus at Rutherfordton, N. C. It owns still a terminal site in Charleston.

There is talk of a line from the neighborhood of Camden to Charleston, but the Olar route may come in and win.

THE EDITOR'S CORNER.

Judge H. C. Dickinson of Ulmer was a welcome visitor on the 21st ult. He was the first Barnwell District man we ever knew and one of the best that ever lived. May time continue to deal gently with him.

It did our eyes and heart good to be called on last week's bus day by Mr. Henry Birt and his good, handsome son, Mr. Willie. Both looked as happy as if their lives are all sunshine.

Mr. Nolton Black and his bright, pretty son, Master Ernest were pleasant callers on Thursday.

Mr. Hal Cave paid us his annual good call on Saturday. He is a young, progressive, energetic, level headed and untrilled Red-Oak farmer who makes good every time. It is his first rule to raise all farm supplies from corn to chickens. Last year his crop averaged 400 bushels of corn and 15 bales of cotton to the plow. Of course he is prosperous.

Mr. T. B. Barber, who never forgets us, paid his annual welcome call on Saturday.

Messrs O. B. Bowers of Sycamore and W. G. Bowers of Fairfax, good brothers, paid us a doubly pleasant call on Tuesday.

HAPPENINGS AT MEYER'S MILL.

Sunday was truly an enjoyable day at Steel Creek. At the usual hour our pastor, Dr. R. W. Sanders, preached a grand sermon (which he always does) from that portion of God's word found in 1st Thessalonians, 1st chapter and 7th verse. There was a good congregation in attendance and all were very much impressed with the great truths that he proclaimed.

The congregation was then invited to meet at the new school house near Meyer's Mill at 7 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school. A good crowd gathered and after listening to two splendid addresses by Dr. R. W. Sanders, one on the great benefits to be derived from the Sunday School and the other on the importance of the school, the members of the school were organized by Bro. W. A. Meyer, Superintendent, Bro. C. C. Meyer, Treasurer and Bro. Claude Hootce Secretary.

Dr. Sanders, in a most delightful talk, complimented the trustees and patrons of the day school on having gotten Miss Susie Dunbar as their teacher. He spoke of Miss Dunbar as being a highly accomplished and painstaking teacher and that he hoped the trustees would stand by her and hold up her hands in this arduous duty of training and educating the young. He felt assured from her past record that she would do her duty. The day school opened on Monday. The house is very neat and comfortable, being heated inside, with gas, stove and other fixtures to make it complete. D.

Col. J. B. E. Sloan, who commanded the Fourth South Carolina Regiment in the First Battle of Manassas, died in Charleston on Friday 10th 7th inst.

Columbia correspondence figure out that the appropriations made by the Legislature will be a hundred thousand dollars larger than the tax collections next fall and winter.

The Citadel cadets will have at the next commencement a moving encampment, or practice march, instead of the usual localized encampment, with pie and ball variations.

The government continues preparations for trouble in Cuba. Several train loads of soldiers passed over the Charlotte-Atlanta air line last week to San Francisco, to take ship there for the Philippines.

The News and Courier and Anderson Mail are having a slow time in collecting at one end and shipping at the other. It is to be hoped that the South Carolina leather boots for Speaker Cannon. He may get them as a next Christmas gift.

John H. Hest, the most married man in the county, was lodged in Chicago on Friday for poisoning his last spouse. He admitted that he had married 13 wives. It was his game to get what money they had and then run away and marry some more.

Larry Gantt, who a dozen years ago as editor of the Columbia Register added to the liveliness of politics, writes from Athens, Ga., his present home, brooding the Legislature for voting $20,000 to the James' town Exposition. He thinks the money had better be given to needy Confederates.

Under the State law every ton of commercial fertilizer and cotton seed meal sold in the State has to pay a tag tax of 25 cents. Up to the 24th ult. the State Treasurer had received since January 1st, $96,770.45 and expected receipts to run up to a round hundred thousand dollars by today. This year's receipts lack less than a thousand dollars of being just double last year's sales for the same period.

The Southern Warehouse and Storage Company is being organized in Memphis, Tenn., with a capital of ten million dollars. It will operate warehouses throughout the South to control the cotton crop. The National Farmers' Union has pledged its members to store in the company's sheds every bale raised until the Union's prices are reached before selling. Negotiable warehouse receipts will be issued and if local banks will not advance money on them the company will cash them at a small profit.

You can graft your own peaches and pears. Get the old and new ones generally find a number of seedling sprouts. Take them up. Cut last year's branches or shoots from a tree you wish to reproduce. Take a piece about six inches long, sharpen the big end like a long wedge. Cut off a seedling the size of your sprout just above the root. Split the root, insert the wedge, tie with string and plant in a convenient damp place. Many of them will live. In the fall you can set them out in the orchard.—Southern Field.

MRS. JANIE R. BEST.

Mrs. Janie R. Best, wife of Mr. Wm. C. Best of Buford's Bridge, departed this life a few minutes of twelve o'clock last Saturday night of heart failure, aged 63 years.

At 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends her body was laid to rest in the Mizpah church yard.

From girlhood she had been a consistent member of the Methodist church, and death to her was only the transition from the well done duties of a beautiful life to the rest and reward of the better world.

She is survived by her husband and six children, Messrs W. K., B. A., G. A. and C. Arthur Best, and two daughters, Miss Lizzie Best and Mrs. R. O. Kirkland, a brother, Capt. Andrew Kirkland, and one sister, Miss Anna-Kirkland.

Mr. Glover M. Moore died of paralysis of the brain on November 20th, 1905, after a few days illness, aged 65 years. He was a brave and gallant soldier of the lost cause, serving through the war in Capt. W. H. Kennedy's artillery command. His wife survives to cherish the memory of the good husband.

Mrs. India Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bonds, departed this life on the 22d of February, 1906, after a long and painful illness, which she had borne with that patient fortitude so beautiful of the Christian. She was laid to rest in the family burial ground near Williston, the funeral being conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. D. Peacock.
