Court will begin on the first Monday in July.

Next Monday week the voice of the Candidate will be heard at Barnwell.

Several valuable mules died in the County last week from eating oats insufficiently eared.

We are truly obliged to Mr. Julian Calhoun for a late photograph of Dr. James H. Carlisle.

The monthly meeting of the Salkothale Agricultural Society will be held tomorrow, Friday.

A Friday call from Mr. W. O. Thompson was a pleasant reminder of the good old days when THE PEOPLE was young.

Senator Tillman will make, as much money lecturing in the North during the Congressional vacation as he is paid for his senatorial labors.

The Barnwell Oil Mill has received and is installing two car loads of new machinery for full operation.

Our first melon treat was enjoyed on Saturday through the clever kindness of Mr. W. F. Creech, Jr., whose name will be held in sweet remembrance.

Treasurer Armstrong has furnished us more copy than we have room for this week, but in next issue we will complete publication of his annual report.

Gen. George Bell Timmerman, commanding the South Carolina Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, has appointed Dr. Ryan A. Gyles Division Surgeon on his staff.

Prophet W. R. Hicks has forecasted the weather accurately this year.

It was a new and nice departure of the front Spartanburg ladies attending Wofford commencement to take off their hats so that the sisters sitting behind could see the speakers.

The Legislative Delegation met on Monday and recommended for reappointment as the County Board of Control, Messrs. George W. Peacock, Edwin Hazel and Milla G. Hair.

Mr. D. M. Cave of Houston, Texas, in visiting Barnwell relatives and friends, who are glad to see him looking so well and to know that he is making so high a business record in the lone star State.

Rev. J. C. Younger assisted his brother, Rev. R. A. Younger, last week in the District meeting at the Methodist Church, and this week Rev. John G. Beckwith, so well beloved in all Barnwell hearts and homes, is assisting.

There will be held a meeting at Barnwell Court House Friday, June 15th at 10 o'clock a. m. to organize a County Law and Order League.

In the death of Mr. J. Wilson—Forsythe the county loses one of its foremost citizens, a man who achieved success by deserving and the charity of whose liberal hand was equal to the generous promptings of his great good heart.

"Apoplexy was the cause of his death on Sunday. He was 53 years of age, and was buried at Martin on Tuesday.

We received on Friday an average stalk from an eighty acre patch of wheat—Peterkin's extra No. 1. Dr. E. H. Patterson's place cultivated by Albert Eubanks, colored. It measured 28 inches from bottom to top leaf and was full of forms, some about opening.

Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society a Birth Day mission meeting will be held in the Mt. Arion Baptist Church on Friday June 22nd. Meet at 4:30 P. M.

Whereas, the many friends of the Baptist Church have been kind in aiding in the building of the Pastorial, therefore, Resolved:

That we assure them of our heart appreciation of every kindness, in whatever way rendered, and invoke Heaven's blessings upon them.

That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the town papers for publication.

ATTENTION ALL CANDIDATES. The Executive Committee of the Democratic Party will meet at the Court House in Barnwell Monday, June 18th, in the same way as the Campaign meeting for the State, at half past ten o'clock a. m.

The pledges to be filed at the Clerk of the Court office have been mailed to all of the candidates that have advertised in the county papers.

If there are any candidates for the office of Magistrate that have not advertised in the county papers and they write me I will forward these pledges by return mail, that they may have no trouble in having their votes counted after the primary election.

It is to be hoped that as many of the Executive Committee men will be present as possible, as matters of importance will be transacted.

The following clubs were not represented at the May Convention, so I can not notify their Executive committees personally: Ashleigh, Rosemary, Double Pond and Spur Branch. It is to be hoped these clubs will be represented on June 25th.

N. F. Kirkland, Jr., Secretary.

The cotton average is being further reduced by the ravages of lice.

Candidates for the Legislature are so few and far between in many counties that it appears doubtful if a quorum will be present in the House when it meets next January.

FIRST BLOOMS. We received on the 8th inst. two red boll blooms, pulled by M. J. Drummond of Meyer's Mill on the 7th inst. This puts him at the head of the procession and we doff our straw hat to him. This is about the average date for the first bloom, and Mr. Drummond has doubled.
