THE CAMPAIGN MEETING.

Very good in quantity and extra good in quality, was the gathering of representative citizens from all sections of the county...

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S. WASHINGTON, D. C. June 15, 1906.

Chairman Democratic Executive Committee. My dear Sir:

In pursuance of the assignments made by the State Democratic Executive Committee, the state campaign party, consisting of all candidates for State offices...

Excuse me, Administrators & who shall have failed to make annual returns to the Probate Judge before July 1st...

It did eyes and ears good to see and hear Julian Calhoun last week, unspooled by Spartanburg life and as good as handsome as in his Turkey Creek days.

Dr. W. M. Jones preached the last sermon on Sunday evening in the old Baptist church at Williston. On Monday his removal was commenced to make room for a nice new church.

Barwell town had only one male college graduate this summer. Mr. Day to 4 been taking at the College of Charleston, the degree of Bachelor of Science, with high honors in chemistry.

Plant peas plentifully, properly, promptly, and persistently. They will help the corn shortage greatly.

The Savannah Valley Lumber Company, which has for a good while been buying lumber rights and lands along the Lower Three Rivers and tributaries...

The Zouave Democratic Club extends a cordial invitation to the County Candidates and the general will behave public to attend and enjoy a Picnic Dinner at Millerville on July 11th.

Next Wednesday will be the "Glorious Fourth."

The first primary election is exactly two months off.

June 28th and no ripe home raised water melons yet.

Mr. F. H. Hicks of Rich Land gave us a pleasant ball on Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Weatherbee of Williston is visiting Mrs. J. K. Snelling.

Chief Justice Dunbar was the first citizen to come to the Campaign Meeting.

Miss Jennie Pate returned on Monday from a visit to North Carolina relatives.

The kind words and good deeds of our friends made Monday a happy day for us.

Mrs. Eugene Parker and two little sons are visiting Judge J. M. Haire and family at Williston.

Mr. A. D. Pate, of THE PEOPLE left on Thursday to spend the summer at Eastland, N. C.

Wednesday next July 4th, being a holiday the Barnwell postoffice will keep Sunday hours.

Now that the State Campaigners have gone the county candidates must come into the limelight.

Mrs. T. S. Dunbar is enjoying a delightful visit to her niece, Mrs. J. N. Weatherly of Bonnettville.

Verily the times are changing. Edgelyield has only two candidates for the Legislature, both lawyers.

M. J. Pate, Jr., returned on Friday from a long engagement with a prominent North Carolina Bridge Company.

The summer term of the Court of General Sessions will begin next Monday. Judge Ernest Gary of Columbia, presiding.

Bright and pretty little Miss Bertha McElmore, of Rosemary, sent us on Monday the prettiest bouquet received this season.

Mrs. J. C. Mogg and little John Henry of Blackville are enjoying the sea breeze on Sullivan's Island for a couple of months.

We were glad to make the pleasant acquaintance of Mr. E. D. Sallinger traveling representative of the News and Courier Monday.

We see and can hear no reason to change the estimate that Barnwell County cannot make above two thirds of an average crop this year.

Four hundred people in town, the dispensary open all day and not an arrest on Monday speaks well of the good people of this good county.

Executors, Administrators & who shall have failed to make annual returns to the Probate Judge before July 1st, will be liable to the law's penalties.

Solicitor Davis will see expedite sessions work next week that there will be no second week of court, a fact that will be well appreciated by the busy farmers.

BLACKVILLE NEWS.

Mr. G. D. C. Lange returned last week from Philadelphia where he has received the best treatment possible for the severe accidental injury sustained several months ago.

It is a great pleasure to his many friends and no man has deserved more than he, to see that he is so surely improving and on the high road to complete restoration of his accustomed robust health.

Sincerely appreciates of the loving sympathy, kindness and attention of his friends during his long illness and will always remember them with warm affection.

A picnic of colored people at Shiloh Bluff on the 19th inst., had a shocking accident in the drowning of Bronnie Hopkins, a young colored man, while bathing in the Edisto. His body was recovered Sunday.

The salary of the postmaster at Blackville was raised on Monday from $1,200 to $1,300.

OF RANTO NEWS.

The heavy rains have damaged the crops considerably.

Several important bridges were washed away by the high water and the roads are badly washed but the farmers are too busy to repair them now.

Mrs. W. C. Bryan and Miss Bryan of Barton visited relatives here last Sunday.

Mr. Morel of Ohio, Ga., is visiting relatives and friends here.

A large crowd is expected at the picnic at Mrs. R. L. Penney's Sulphur Springs near Barton on the 27th inst.

Rev. C. B. Reeves died Saturday night and was buried Sunday at Smyrna church, of which he had been a consistent member for about 40 years.

He was 84 years of age and had been in bad health for a long time. He leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter, besides many relatives and friends. Rev. J. D. Higgins conducted the funeral services.

CAPITAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, D. C. June 21, 1906. Mr. Editor:— This is my birthday and I have been enjoying it. Among my pleasures were the reading of THE PEOPLE and a visit to the Capitol, where I heard some lively arguments off the appropriation of $25,000 to pay the president's traveling expenses.

Senator Tillman argued that the President could use this money to make trips into doubtful states to help "frame ducks," and Senator Bailey said, "I present chief executive is worth less and has cost more than any other man who has had the place in many years."

As to the Italians, Dagos or "Greasers." After having seen hundreds of this class of people employed on works here; to see how filthy they are; that they even go by numbers instead of names. I being frequently raised by an old building, I demand a number of the people lived and noticed their utter disregard of or seeming contempt for cleanliness, and judging by their general appearance and occupations on the streets here I cannot think that the men who are trying to bring this class of human garbage into contact with my home people have either the welfare of their neighbors or State at heart.

I wish you good speed in holding up this dirty class of people as plainly until the people will sicken at the sight and turn the stream in another direction before it is too late.

Carolinian.

It has not rained in the coast districts of Texas since the middle of February. The corn crop of Southern Texas is practically ruined by drought and in Central Texas it is but little better. Cattle are dying for lack of water.

"Was your wife angry when you got home so late last night?" "Angry? Why, my boy, the dear woman melted me with flowers!" "But how did you get that black eye?" "Well, you see, she neglected to take the flowers out of the pots before she threw them."

Candidates' Column.

Primary Election Aug. 28, 1906.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Washington, D. C. May 14, 1906.

I respectfully announce my candidacy for re-election to Congress from the Second Congressional District of South Carolina. In doing so, I ask that my constituents examine into my record of only a few months as their Representative. I have been and am now embarrassed by reason of the contest for my seat which seriously affects my influence and my efforts in behalf of my people. With my experience, I am satisfied that I can and will represent you more advantageously in the future than I have done in the past.

I make this announcement subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic primary, pledging myself to abide by the results, and to support the nominees thereof.

Very respectfully, J. O. Patterson.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District of South Carolina, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary.
